On January 4, 2005, the Albuquerque Police Department (APD) will hold the 23rd Citizen Police Academy. The Academy is FREE!

It will be held at the APD Roger A. Hoisington Jr. Training Academy, 5412 2nd Street NW. The Police Training Academy is located behind the Gerald E. Cline Memorial Substation.

Classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. for ten (10) weeks. Some sessions will end at 10:00pm, with several optional Saturday morning sessions.

Our mission is to provide citizens with an overview of the Albuquerque Police Department and the criminal justice system. The goal is to give citizens a better understanding of the guidelines an officer operates within and to develop citizen awareness of the role law enforcement plays in their community and lives. The police department also hopes to maximize the use of citizens for the Department's Volunteer Program.

Students will meet and have an opportunity to ask questions of supervisors, police officers and undercover agents.

Applicants must be at least 18 years of age. Applicants cannot have any felony convictions, or any misdemeanor or D.W.I. arrests within the last three years of application date. Applicants must pass a background check conducted by the police department.

A tour of the Communication Center and Crime Lab will be conducted during the academy. The Shooting Range and Office of Medical Investigator tours will be contingent up availability.

If you have any concerns or questions about the Citizen Police Academy, please contact Officer Jennifer Madrid-Otero at the Albuquerque Police Academy - 343-5000.
