Set among the Parisian theatre scene of the 1820s and 30s, it tells the story of a beautiful courtesan, Garance, and the four men who love her in their own ways: a mime artist, an actor, a criminal and an aristocrat.

A three-hour film in two parts, it was described in the original American trailer as the French answer to Gone with the Wind (1939). The leading director Francois Truffant once said: "I would give up all my films to have directed 'Children of Paradise'". - July 17th The Blue Hornets
 The Blue Hornets sound is a unique blend of influences based around the roots of Jamaican rocksteady, ska, and reggae from the island's bluebeat musical heyday of the '60s and '70s. Their musical style is a bouncy and energetic traditional rocksteady/reggae style, featuring smooth vocal harmonies, catchy horn melodies, and a solid skanking rhythm section, that harkens back to the golden age of this wonderful music. Through their combined experiences and musical styles, the Blue Hornets bring a danceable, entertaining performance to their live shows.
- July 24th Todo Mundo ("All the World"), who's Organic Fire was voted "Best World Music Album" at the 2011 San Diego Music Awards, blends the musical flavors of Rumba, Reggae, Samba, and Gypsy styles into an irresistible groove that has been moving dance floors and connecting with audiences throughout North America, South America, and Europe since 2009.
- July 31st The Barefoot Movement
 This group has been making waves in the folk world since the release of their 2011 debut album Footwork. 2013 brought the release of a new album, cross country touring, and all manners of shoeless excitement. From the foot-tapping instrumental "Shepherd" to the emotional ballad "Thunder" and everything in between, these roots music newcomers have assembled quite the collection here, both old songs and new, offering something for everyone.

After the death of Edward he becomes Richard III and need only defeat the exiled Henry to retain power.

11-25 ABQ BioPark Zoo Zoo Music Concerts

Fridays
 6 – 9 pm

Zoo Music brings thousands of fans to the beautiful grounds to enjoy live music each summer.

July 11th The Young Dubliners
 They may be Celtic rock's hardest working band, playing hundreds of shows to thousands of fans across the US and Europe every year. In recent years they have twice appeared on ABC's Jimmy Kimmel Live!, had songs featured in TV shows and toured extensively as a headliner and as the opener for artists like The Flaming Lips, Collective Soul, Jethro Tull, Johnny Lang and many more. Although the Young Dubliners sound is most commonly called 'Celtic Rock', that label, as labels often can be, is misleading. The Irish influence is there, certainly, but it's not the only influence that rears its head on their albums, or in live shows.

July 18th The Brubeck Brothers Quartet
 Join us for an evening with this exciting jazz group featuring two members of one of America's most accomplished musical families, Daniel Brubeck (drums,) and Chris Brubeck (bass & trombone). Guitarist Mike DeMicco and pianist Chuck Lamb complete this dynamic quartet. The Brubeck Brothers Quartet have been featured artists in several festivals, and their album, Life Times, was in the top 10 of all jazz CDs receiving the most radio airplay in 2012.

Although the Quartet's style is rooted in "straight-ahead" jazz, their concerts reveal an inherent ability to explore and play odd time signatures while naturally integrating the influences of funk, blues and world music. The group's creativity, technique and improvisation can be heard in their uncompromising music, which reflects their dedication to melody, rhythm, culture and the spontaneous spirit of jazz.

July 25th Perla Batalla
 This world-class vocalist is a full-throated songstress who has worked with Leonard Cohen, k.d.lang, Nick Cave and Laurie Anderson. Deftly moving through musical genre, Perla will be performing a variety of classic and original material in both English and Spanish, including selections from her award winning Mestiza songcycle, Grammy nominated "Songs of Leonard Cohen", and Perla's own unique take on the Great American Songbook.

Tickets are $10 for adults, seniors and BioPark members $5, and children $3. Children under 3 are admitted at no charge. Tickets are available online or from any BioPark cashier during normal operating hours. Continued...

Young Trevor McKinney is troubled by his mother's alcoholism and fears of his abusive but absent father. He is caught up in an intriguing assignment from his new social studies teacher, Mr. Simonet. The assignment: think of something to change the world and put it into action. Trevor conjures up the notion of paying a favor not back, but forward—repaying good deeds not with payback, but with new good deeds done to three new people.

Trevor's efforts to make good on his idea bring a revolution, not only in the lives of himself, his mother and his physically and emotionally scarred teacher, but in those of an ever-widening circle of people completely unknown to him. This sweeping saga takes place in the early 20th century colonial Kenya. Danish baroness and plantation owner Karen Blixen (played by Streep) has married Baron Bror Blixen (Klaus Maria Brandauer) and he has used her money to purchase a coffee plantation which he shows little inclination of managing, leaving her to assume that role. His philandering leads to problematic circumstances and her life becomes even more difficult, including a stint back in Denmark to cure syphilis she caught from her husband. One of the people she befriends in Kenya is Denys Finch Hatton, a big game hunter played by Robert Redford, and the relationship grows into an affair. However, their differences are so great that they eventually part. Continued...

In the meanwhile, a devastating fire wipes out the one good tobacco crop she has managed to yield, and broke and alone, she prepares to return to Denmark. Denys comes to visit and they share an evening as friends. He offers to fly her to Mombasa where she will catch a plane home and promises to return in a few days. He does not come back, and Karen learns the his plane has crashed and he is dead. Her losses now complete, she returns to her homeland. The story is based on the autobiographical book Out of Africa by Isak Dinesen (pseudonym of Karen Blixen). The film won the Oscar for Best Picture, Merle Streep won for Best Actress, and Klaus Maria Brandauer won for Best Supporting Actor. The beautiful score also won the Oscar that year. ART EXHIBITIONS

Albuquerque Museum

CHRISTO & JEANNE-CLAUDE: THE TOM GOLDEN COLLECTION

North Gallery

This unique collection of works of art by renowned artists Christo and Jeanne-Claude includes original drawings, sculptures, collages and photographs capturing the versatility, longevity and international scope of the duo's extensive career. Started by Tom Golden in the summer of 1974, it is one of the largest collections of art by Christo and Jeanne-Claude in the United States, Golden's personal and professional relationship with the artists began during the 1974 public hearings for Christo and Jeanne-Claude's project "Running Fence." Golden continued to manage and assist with several of the artist's large-scale projects such as "The Umbrellas" and "Over the River." Drawings and collages of the large-scale public works, sold to fund the actual installations, are an important component of this collection.

As partners for more than 40 years, Christo and Jeanne-Claude have created lasting environmental installation art throughout the world. Their works include the wrapping of the Reichstag in Berlin and the Pont Neuf bridge in Paris, the 24-mile long curtain titled "Running Fence" in California, and most recently "The Gates" in New York City's Central Park. Because their large-scale public projects are temporary, these preliminary artworks remain as evidence of these installations.

This collection represents not only the special relationship between an artist and a collector, but also the collaborative effort between the artists and the many people involved in producing the works. Closing September 14, 2014.

NATIVE AMERICAN BOLO TIES: VINTAGE AND CONTEMPORARY ARTISTRY

West Gallery

Join us for a fun-filled exploration of the intriguing history of the bolo tie, New Mexico's official state neckwear. Organized by the Heard Museum in Phoenix, Arizona, the exhibition traces the history of the bolo tie back to 19th-century scarf slides and slide necklaces. The bolo tie we know of today emerged in the 1940s as a challenge to traditional neckwear. While Wickenburg, Arizona's Vic Cedarstaff laid claim to inventing the bolo in 1949, others disagree.

Nevertheless, bolo ties were haute couture in Western movies and mid-century TV shows, and through the decades have become a major expression of Native American artists including Charles Loloma, Hopi, and Norbert Peshlakai, Navajo. Bolo ties remain popular, and are even re-invented in unique mediums such as glass and ceramics.

Native American Bolo Ties: Vintage and Contemporary Artistry is made possible by the Virginia M. Ullman Foundation. Closing September 21, 2014.

Balloon Museum

CHILDREN OF WAR, VOICES FOR PEACE

Back by popular demand, this touching exhibition features a little-known footnote in the history of World War II. Japanese schoolchildren were recruited to help create "Fugos"—giant balloons that were armed with bombs and launched across the Pacific. The only enemy-caused deaths on the North American continent in World War II occurred from the detonation of one of these bombs. The exhibition features the story of one Japanese schoolgirl who later learned that her contribution to her country's safety was an instrument of death, and of her subsequent efforts to promote peace.

CHILDREN'S PEACE STATUE

This statue was dedicated at the Balloon Museum August 4, 2013. The Children's Peace Statue is a monument designed and funded entirely by children. It stands as a symbol of hope for a peaceful future. In the fall of 1989, children of Arroyo del Oso Elementary School in Albuquerque, New Mexico were studying the Arms Race. The children decided that one solution to the problem of war would be to teach young people to work for peace. During their studies, the students learned the story of school children in Japan who built a monument, the Genbaku No Ko No Zo Statue for Children Who Were Victims of the Atomic Bombs. Inspired by the story, the children formed the Kids' Committee for the Children's Peace Statue and made plans to design and build a peace monument of their own.

FAI BALLOONING COMMISSION INTERNATIONAL HALL OF FAME

The Hall of Fame features some 40 existing inductees and recognizes people who have made significant contributions to aerostation. In a private induction ceremony for media and invited guests on September 30, 2011, the following were inducted into the Hall of Fame: Ron Clark, a member of the crew to make the first balloon crossing of the Pacific Ocean; Larry Newman, a co-inventor of the ultra-light airplane and co-captain on the first manned balloon crossing of the Pacific Ocean; Rocky Aoki, a restaurateur and a record-setting balloonist in crossing the Pacific Ocean in a helium balloon; and Olivier Roux Devillas, the founder of the French Aeronautical Federation and competitive balloonist. Past inductees with a New Mexico connection include Sid Cutter, the Balloon Fiesta co-founder, and Maxie Anderson and Ben Abruzzo, two of the three balloonists of the first trans-Atlantic balloon flight.

AGAINST PREVAILING WINDS

Prevailing winds are bound together to form one general direction of movement. Creating art has many origins. "Against Prevailing Winds" is an art exhibit featuring the works of six artists who are working in their own quest to define their own space—a space where art takes on literal and abstract constructs of one's own quest. Some artists choose to challenge the dominating forces around them and create something new, while other artists may follow conventions and become part of the prevailing winds. The works of artists Bruce Warren Davis, Lito Vales, Dan Fuller, Joshua Willis, Maria Yoon, Julia Lambright and Danielle Rae Miller are featured.

Come soar with us! Every Wednesday year-round the Balloon Museum offers a fabulous free story time, Stories in the Sky, led by the very popular Laurie Magovern. Our youngest adventurers and their adult explorers will sail through the seasons with stories, songs, crafts and games designed for 0-6 years old. Parents and grandparents have as much fun as the little ones! Create some fantastic memories; make some handmade crafts while introducing early literacy in a beautiful museum setting. Many families return week after week, declaring, "This is the only storytime I recommend."
