

Doug Antoon, Task Force Member

Doug Antoon is an attorney with 25 years experience providing legal counsel to major commercial and government-sponsored technology organizations. His background as a business generalist includes representation of clients in matters involving public procurement law, contract law, tax law, intellectual property protection and licensing, employment, real estate, and privacy law. Experienced in the various rules of procurement ethics and gift and gratuity regulations of the federal, state, and local governments, Doug has represented clients in several forums, including the Albuquerque Board of Ethics and Campaign Practices. His community involvement includes service as an elected selectman (city councilor) in his home state of Massachusetts, political and public affairs consulting, previous volunteer work on the Boy Scouts of America executive committee, Association of Retarded Citizens board of directors, Albuquerque Uptown Progress Team, and currently as a LifeQuest volunteer, helping incarcerated youth in CYFD programs.