Auto insurance

Travelers – the company that wrote the first automobile policy in 1897 – offers special program rates and multiple money-saving discounts and advantages that could save you money on your auto insurance. Below are basic descriptions of just some of the coverages offered by Travelers.

Bodily injury liability – Generally pays for injuries to others if you are responsible for an accident.

Property damage liability – Can pay for damages to other people's property if you are responsible for an accident.

Medical payments – Can pay for medical expenses for injuries you and your passengers sustain in an accident.

Uninsured/Underinsured motorists – Can cover bodily injury to you and your passengers when the person who caused the accident has insufficient coverage.

Collision – Pays for damages to your car when it hits or is hit by another car or object.

Comprehensive – pays for damages to your car resulting from theft, fire, vandalism, hail, animal contact or other covered causes.

Additional optional coverages – You can add on Extended Transportation Expense, Towing and Labor, Auto Loan/Lease Coverage, Repair or Replacement Collision Coverage. Plus, Travelers offers higher deductible options that could lower your premium.

Home insurance

Travelers offers a wide selection of coverage options to help you protect the things you value most. Home insurance coverage typically includes:

Dwelling – Can cover damages to your home's physical structures.

Other structures – Can cover damage to building, such as a detached garage or shed.

Personal property – Can cover your personal belongings, whether they're in your home or elsewhere.

Personal liability – Can protect you in the event someone is injured or another person's property is damaged and you are responsible.
