

The Albuquerque Museum of Art & History
19th and Mountain Road NW
www.cabq.gov/museum
505-243-7255 or 311 • Relay NM or 711

Tuesday - Sunday • 9am - 5pm
Closed Mondays

The Albuquerque Museum is a Division of the Cultural Services
Department of the City of Albuquerque.
Richard J. Berry, Mayor

albuquerque

NOW

a two-part exploration of new art winter

events and programs

The Albuquerque Museum of Art & History
19th and Mountain NW

January 24 - April 18, 2010

Programs are free with museum admission, unless otherwise noted.

Opening Day

SUNDAY, JANUARY 24

1:00-3:00 p.m. Reception in the lobby

2:00 p.m. Gallery talks in Albuquerque Now: Winter.

Join a selection of artists in the gallery for brief talks about their work.

Participating artists: Anne Cole, John Garrett, Susan Gutt, Eugene Nelson, Antonio Roybal, Jennifer Vasher

Gallery Conversations

WEDNESDAYS

FEBRUARY 3, MARCH 3, AND APRIL 7

11:00 a.m.

Join museum staff and artists for informal discussions of works in the gallery. A free Wednesday event, no admission required.

Tour of the Torreón Fresco

TUESDAY, APRIL 6

11:00 am

By reservation only

Internationally renowned artist Fr derico Vigil will lead a rare tour of the Torre n Fresco. His massive painting depicting Hispanic heritage from prehistory to the present is executed on the walls and ceiling of the Torre n, located on the grounds of the National Hispanic Cultural Center. A cartoon (drawing) from the fresco is on display in the exhibition Albuquerque Now: Winter.

Tour size is limited; call Theresa Sedillo at 243-7255 to reserve your space. Tour group meets at the Torre n, National Hispanic Cultural Center, 1701 4th Street SW. There is no fee for this tour.

Albuquerque Now Presents

A series exploring the range of performing arts in Albuquerque

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 7

2:00 p.m.

Gamelan Encantada

A contemporary percussion ensemble based on the gong, drum, and metallophone musical traditions of Southeast Asia, specifically those of Central Java and Bali, in Indonesia. The concert will feature compositions by Albuquerque composers Beth Yip and Daniel Davis.

FRIDAY, APRIL 9

8:00 p.m.

Quicknoise

Quicknoise is an Albuquerque-based dance and media team that creates original productions about current social and environmental issues. Through improvisational collaboration, it combines sound, video, and dance to portray the physical and emotional impact of issues. Weather permitting this performance will be held in the amphitheatre. This is an after-hours event, no admission required.

For updated information on programs for this exhibition, go to our website at www.cabq.gov/museum or call 243-7255