2.1/11.6 miles . Bike trail crosses small ditch, coming very close to 2nd Street.

North of the fence are fields used for farming; in recent years, alfalfa and chiles have been the main crops. Waterfowl cruising above the Rio Grande will often stop here – in the winter, the stately sandhill crane is a regular attendee.

3.2/10.5 miles. Bike trail passes the National Hispanic Cultural Center and ducks under Bridge Blvd. underpass.

3.8/9.9 miles. Pass the west side of the ABQ BioPark Zoo.

4.3 / 9.4 miles. Alcalde Place to the east – connection with Lead and Coal Streets, leading through downtown and miles to the east.

4.5/9.2 miles. Pass the "Rio Line" train station and the lakes of ABQ BioPark Tingley Beach.

5.3/8.4 miles. Pass under Central Avenue, reaching Rotary Riverside Park and the south end of the ABQ BioPark Botanic Garden and Aquarium.

6.3/7.4 miles Bike trail meets the west end of a connecting bike trail, leading to the west end of Mountain Road, also the west end of Albuquerque's Bike Boulevard.

6.5/7.2 miles Paseo del Bosque crosses under Interstate-40, intersecting the I-40 Bike Trail, including the sleek Gail Ryba bike bridge over the Rio Grande.

8.2/5.5 miles Trail exit for Candelaria Road and the Rio Grande Nature Center

9.5/4.2 miles Trail crosses under Montaña Road and its bridge to the west side of the river.
Bike/pedestrian trail along south side of river.

12.6/1.1 miles Trail reaches Paseo del Norte and bike trails to east as far as North Diversion Channel Trail and west across the river bridge.

13.7/0.0 miles Trail arrives at parking lot at north end of trail and just SE of where Alameda Blvd. crosses the river. Bike/pedestrian bridge alongside auto bridge to Corrales and Rio Rancho just beyond parking lot; bike trail leads east to the Bachechi Open Space Park, across the Valley and up the hill toward the Balloon Fiesta Park.
