Field Services Bureau - East

Southeast Area Command...

- In January, the Southeast Area Command had 10,838 calls for service, wrote 2,137 reports, and issued 508 citations. There were 260 felony arrests, 256 misdemeanor arrests, and 40 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Eleven community meetings were attended.
- In January, officers conducted tactical plans targeting two high crime areas within the area command. Officers made five auto theft arrests, one auto burglary arrest, one residential burglary arrest, one commercial burglary arrest, two felony narcotics arrests and cleared 13 felony warrants. Officers also made six driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests, issued five criminal summonses, wrote 73 traffic citations, and cleared four misdemeanor warrants.
- On January 1, Officers Duran and Casaus responded to a report of a stolen vehicle taken as it was warming up. Officer Duran located a vehicle matching the description and initiated a stop. The offender was taken into custody without incident and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On January 6, Officers Aragon, Whitten, Hernandez and Recruit Officer Padilla responded to a call of a male passed out in a running car in a motel parking lot. Upon arrival, they located the offender sleeping in a vehicle parked in a handicap space. They also saw a revolver on the seat next to him. Officers took the offender into custody. The vehicle and revolver were stolen and the offender had an outstanding felony warrant for transferring/receiving a stolen vehicle. The offender is a self-admitted gang member who has an extensive criminal history. The case was forwarded to Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives for possible federal charges.
- On January 8, Officer Hernandez and Recruit Officer Padilla responded to a possible burglary in progress. The caller was hiding in the bathroom and could hear someone in her house. Upon officers' arrival, the suspect opened the front door and was placed in custody. The caller told officers she heard a knock on the door but ignored it. She then heard someone pushing through the frame of the front window and saw a hand reach in and unlock the door. She ran and hid and called police. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for breaking and entering.
- On January 9, Officer Yurcisin was on patrol when he observed a stolen vehicle from a report he took the previous evening. The vehicle also had a suspicious temporary tag. The vehicle was parked at a gas station and Officer Yurcisin observed the driver and a passenger get out of the vehicle and walk towards the clerk. Both suspects saw the officer and ran in opposite directions. Officer Yurcisin engaged in a foot chase and caught the passenger without incident. Officers Schroeder and Marquez caught the driver a block away without incident. Both subjects were arrested.
- On January 9, Officers Mares and Bumphrey were dispatched to a domestic violence call. When officers arrived, they contacted the offender who was very irate. The offender was involved in a physical altercation with his father and had damaged numerous items in the apartment. Attempts were made to calm down the offender, but he became aggressive with officers. When officers attempted to place him into handcuffs, he struck Officer Mares with his knee multiple times and kicked Officer Bumphrey. Both officers were able to safely take the offender into custody without using force. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center on charges of domestic violence and battery on a police officer.
- On January 14, Officers Romero and Portillos responded to an alarm at a local cafe. Upon arrival, they noticed a broken window. They established a perimeter and requested a K-9 Unit. Once the K-9 Unit arrived, a search was conducted and a male was located hiding inside the business. The male was taken into custody. A check of the business showed the register had been tampered with and there was a crowbar, screwdriver, and hacksaw inside that didn't belong to the owner. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for commercial burglary.
- On January 14, officers responded to a call of a male pointing a handgun at the caller at a local convenience store. The caller stated the offender had seen her at a nearby apartment and started yelling at her about his Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card. She said at one point he pulled out a handgun, ran the slide, and pointed it at her. She convinced the offender to go to the convenience store with her where she was able to tell the clerk to call police. Officers arrived and placed the offender in custody and located the gun hidden in the ice machine. The offender was found to be a convicted felon. This case was forwarded to Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives for possible federal follow up. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and felon in possession of a firearm.

- On January 14, Officer Stockton and Recruit Officer Harp were on patrol when they observed a suspicious male in the parking lot of the Southeast Substation. They made contact with the subject and found he had an outstanding felony warrant for his arrest from California for setting a police substation on fire. Officer Harp placed the male under arrest. The male was also in possession of methamphetamine. The male was transported to the Metropolitan Detention Center and booked for possession of a controlled substance and the felony warrant.
- On January 15, Officer Stockton and Recruit Officer Harp located a reported stolen vehicle after running a check on the license plate. Officers initiated a stop but the driver fled on foot. Officers caught the offender after a short foot chase. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for transferring/receiving a stolen vehicle. It was later found the offender was tied to a stabbing homicide from December and was charged with tampering with evidence for that incident.
- On January 15, Officer Brito was dispatched to a call of a suspicious person and vehicle. Upon arrival, Officer Brito made contact with individuals who lived in the area. The individuals provided Officer Brito with video of two females stealing from mail boxes. Officer Brito checked the area and located the two females. The females did have United States Postal Service (USPS) mail in their vehicle and Officer Brito contacted the on-call United States Postmaster. An investigator arrived and both females were arrested on federal felony charges of receiving and transferring stolen mail.
- On January 19, Officers Ramos and Hernandez conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle with an expired tag. While contacting the driver, Officer Hernandez observed a firearm under the driver's legs. During the investigation, it was discovered the offender was on probation for robbery. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for probation violation. A loaded weapon was also found in the vehicle and the case was forwarded to Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives for possible federal prosecution.

- On January 23, officers were dispatched to a stolen vehicle being followed by the original owner. Officers located the vehicle and a male subject ran as officers approached. A perimeter was established and K-9 officers were called in. During the search, a citizen relayed to officers that a suspicious male was hiding under a white van. A K-9 search team was directed to the area and a male was taken into custody. The victim recovered his stolen truck and fifth wheel hitch. The male suspect was found to have one outstanding felony and one outstanding misdemeanor warrant. The suspect was booked on a charge of receiving/transferring a stolen motor vehicle as well as the outstanding warrants.
- On January 25, officers were dispatched to a residential burglary in progress. The witness called 911 after observing a male subject at a nearby residence. The subject knocked on the front door, got no answer, and then made his way to the rear of the residence. The witness observed the male leaving the residence with a bicycle, backpack and satchel and throwing a white bag over the backyard wall. The witness continued to monitor the subject and directed officers to his approximate location. Officers located and detained the subject. A search of the residence revealed someone had rummaged through the house and there was an open rear bedroom window with the screen removed. Officers also located other items, including a safe wrapped in bedding over the backyard wall. The owner of the home was contacted and confirmed the items were his and no one had permission to enter his home. The suspect was booked for residential burglary.
- On January 27, Officer Mares was dispatched to a felony larceny call at a local motel. The victim advised Officer Mares her purse containing $3,700 was stolen while she was at the motel's swimming pool. Officer Mares requested to view the motel's surveillance footage and observed a male subject exit the swimming pool area with the described purse. The surveillance revealed the offender walking down the hallway rummaging through the victim's purse, entering a room, exiting the room wearing a change of clothes, and leaving the property in a vehicle. While still conducting his investigation, Officer

Mares observed the vehicle pull back into the parking lot. At this time, officers made contact with the offender and placed him under arrest. The offender admitted to stealing the purse and using her credit cards to buy pizza. He was also found to have cocaine in his possession. The offender was subsequently booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.

Northeast Area Command...

- In January, the Northeast Area Command had 9,288 calls for service, wrote 1,911 reports, and issued 886 citations. There were 130 felony arrests, 279 misdemeanor arrests, 30 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests, and 119 warrants issued. Thirteen community meetings were attended.
- On January 1, Officer Arnold was dispatched to a call of a male attempting to drive off in a female's vehicle. The owner of the vehicle stated she and her friend stopped at a business and she exited, while the passenger remained in the car. A male opened the driver's door, jumped in, and got into a struggle with the passenger over the keys. The male put the car in reverse, knocking down the owner as she opened the door. Witnesses were able to get the male out of the vehicle and detain him until officers arrived. Officer Arnold placed the male subject under arrest for numerous felony charges.
- On January 2, Detective Neil received a call of a shooting at an apartment complex. The victim was shot four times by two male subjects. The victim provided the first name of one of the offenders but only the street name of the other. One offender was positively identified and an arrest warrant was written for his arrest.
- On January 2, Officer Forsberg was dispatched to assist another officer in a physical altercation with a group of subjects. Officer Forsberg arrived and assisted in controlling the situation. The incident resulted in the arrest of two juveniles for felony battery against a police officer.
- On January 3, Officers Garcia, Tillman and Henry were dispatched to a call of a stolen vehicle which the original owner was following. Upon Officers' arrival, a male and female offender fled the scene. Officers established a perimeter and both subjects were apprehended.
- On January 6, officers responded to a robbery of an individual at the a transit center. Officers arrived and gathered information and a description of the offender. Mall security was alerted and they subsequently informed officers that the offender was on the mall property. The offender was found with the victim's phone in his pocket. The male was arrested on robbery charges.
- On January 7, Officers Cerasia and Beckstrom were dispatched to a call from a victim who had located his stolen vehicle parked outside a mobile home. Officers recovered the vehicle and arrested the individual who stole it.
- On January 9, a caller contacted police to report a suspicious person entering a closed business through a broken window. Officers Guerrero and Lujan responded to the scene and noticed the broken window and a brick inside the business. They established a perimeter and called for a K-9 officer to conduct a search. While holding their positions, Officer Guerrero saw an individual exit the business. Officer Guerrero commanded him to stop but the subject fled on foot. The subject was quickly apprehended. This subject is suspected in a string of similar burglaries both before this burglary and after his release from the Metropolitan Detention Center for this incident.
- On January 11, Officers Bostic and Candelaria responded to a male pointing a gun at people. Officers spoke with two victims who advised the offender was the boyfriend of one of the victims. The offender was in a physical altercation with one of the females for her cell phone. The offender pulled a handgun, pointed it at her, and then left the area on foot. An undercover officer located the offender and directed officers to a local motel. Officers took the offender into custody and located the handgun. The offender was booked on felony aggravated assault charges.
- On January 16, Officers Knaub and Kelly were dispatched to a suspicious vehicle with an unconscious male inside blocking traffic. The vehicle began to roll into the intersection, when one of the citizens broke the driver's side window and pulled the driver out. The driver was found to have a needle in his arm. The driver was placed under arrest for drug possession and an inventory check of the vehicle found a handgun under the driver's seat. The driver was booked on a narcotics violation and found to be a convicted felon. A search warrant was executed and three firearms were located in the vehicle, with one being stolen.
- On January 19, Officers Porlas and Munoz responded to an auto burglary. The caller stated two suspects entered his neighbor's vehicle. The two suspects fled the area in a vehicle. As Officer Porlas was checking the area, he located a vehicle matching the description parked on the road. He also observed burglary tools and other suspicious items on the seat. As Officer Porlas was getting the license plate information, two suspects walked up and they were detained. The caller was able to give a positive identification of both suspects. The suspects were booked on charges of auto burglary, possession of burglary tools, and conspiracy.

- On January 20, officers were dispatched to a residential burglary in progress. Upon arrival, officers took one of the offenders into custody in a nearby backyard. The victim located the second offender and attempted to detain him but, while waiting for officers, the offender was picked up by a female and fled. Earlier, Officer Beckstrom had noticed a suspicious vehicle driven by a female and got the license plate number. The captured offender was arrested for aggravated residential burglary, eluding officers, and a felon in possession of a firearm.
- On January 20, Officers Malkovich and Ruiz were dispatched to a male attempting to force entry into a motel room. The manager advised the male had not rented a room at the motel. Officers attempted to contact the male, but he fled on foot. A foot chase ensued and the male was eventually taken into custody. A search incident to arrest revealed packets of methamphetamines and drug paraphernalia.
- On January 21, the Carmel Home Owners Association (HOA) held their board meeting. Due to recent automobile burglary activity in the area, the board members requested Northeast Area Command personnel attend and inform the HOA what was being done to control these types of crimes. The same week as the meeting, two offenders were apprehended after breaking into a vehicle within the boundaries of the HOA. The victims were in attendance at the meeting and extremely grateful for what officers had done.
- On January 21, Officers Montano and Danius responded to a domestic violence incident at an apartment complex. Officers learned a female had threatened her boyfriend with a knife and had secured herself within an apartment. The female had made suicidal threats to officers, and informed them she had taken several pills in an attempt at suicide. Officers forced entry into the residence and discovered the female, semi-conscious, in a rear bedroom. The female was treated by rescue personnel and later arrested on felony charges.

- On January 22, Officers Cochran and LaForce were dispatched to an accident with injuries call. A single vehicle drove across Montgomery Boulevard and collided with a tree in an apartment complex. The driver suffered minor injuries. However, because he was highly intoxicated, he attempted to flee on foot prior to the officers' arrival. Citizens detained him until Officer LaForce arrived and took him into custody.
- On January 26, officers were dispatched to a male passed out in the driver's seat of a pickup truck. The truck had been reported stolen and officers took the male into custody without incident. The truck had been stolen during a residential burglary the day prior. The suspect had also been arrested in a stolen vehicle two weeks prior to this incident.
- On January 26, Officer Madrid was dispatched to a male attempting to cash a government check with false identification. The store's Loss Prevention informed Officer Madrid that the check had been stolen from a mailbox. The male had made a fake temporary license matching the check. Officer Madrid took the male into custody, contacted the victim, who advised her that no one had permission to have his check. The male was booked on identity theft and forgery.
- On January 26, Officer Sprague observed a vehicle quickly exit the parking lot of a local retail outlet. Officer Sprague ran the license plate of the vehicle which came back stolen. The vehicle pulled into another parking lot and the occupants ran into another business to hide from officers. Officers established a perimeter and eventually the occupants came out and were taken into custody.
- On January 27, Officer Eichel attempted to conduct a traffic stop for a red light violation. The vehicle did not stop and continued on for several blocks. During that time, Officer Eichel requested additional resources. The vehicle finally stopped and two occupants fled on foot. Officer Eichel pursued the driver and captured him. The driver was intoxicated and the passenger had reportedly just committed a theft.
- On January 30, officers successfully apprehended two suspects attempting to pay for items with a stolen check. Execution of a search warrant revealed printers and check making items in the vehicle and information on two hotel rooms being used for the fraud operation. This arrest also cleared up an outstanding felony warrant.

- On January 31, Sergeant Fincher was dispatched to a stranded motorist on the side of the freeway. After running the plate, Sergeant Fincher found it did not belong to the vehicle and noticed the vehicle had been spray painted blue. The vehicle was towed. Further investigation revealed the vehicle had been involved in residential burglaries in Farwell, Texas. The Chief from that department contacted APD and approximately $20,000 worth of stolen property was discovered in the driver's possession. The property was returned to the Farwell Police Department and they will continue the investigation and prosecution of the case.

Foothills Area Command...

- In January, the Foothills Area Command had 5,752 calls for service, wrote 1,156 reports, and issued 943 citations. There were 141 felony arrests, 111 misdemeanor arrests, and 31 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Seventeen community meetings were attended.
- In January, Officer Smith conducted an automobile theft tactical plan in response to automobile thefts, abandoned stolen vehicles and occupied stolen vehicles. The tactical plan resulted in two felony arrests and 16 automobiles recovered.
- On January 7, Officer Elliott reported he was following a stolen vehicle. He watched the vehicle as it entered a parking lot and awaited the arrival of other officers. The occupants attempted to enter an establishment but it was closed. As the subjects were walking back to the vehicle, officers took the three into custody. One suspect was arrested for receiving and transferring a stolen motor vehicle, possession of methamphetamines, and possession of a controlled substance. A second suspect was arrested for a misdemeanor warrant. The third suspect was released after being interviewed.
- On January 7, Officers Carpenter and Moore were dispatched to a call of subjects walking through a parking lot, looking into vehicle windows. Officers made contact with a male subject standing next to a stolen vehicle who provided false identification. When Officer Carpenter attempted to conduct a pat-down, the subject fled on foot but was shortly apprehended. A stolen vehicle was recovered and the subject also had multiple felony warrants for his arrest.

- On January 9, Officer Denerstein responded to a priority one disturbance of an individual running in the middle of a busy intersection during rush hour. Numerous calls came in stating the individual appeared to be either under the influence of narcotics or was having a mental health breakdown. The subject was throwing himself in front of vehicles, yelling, and punching the air. Officer Denerstein arrived to find the subject standing in the middle of the street yelling at the top of his lungs. Officer Denerstein called for back-up and attempted to talk to the irate individual. The individual was not in the state of mind to follow verbal orders. At that time, Officer Denerstein and a citizen were able to drag the individual to the sidewalk where he was placed in handcuffs for his safety. Shortly, other officers arrived on scene and helped Officer Denerstein place the individual in a passive restraint system until paramedics arrived. Once paramedics arrived, the individual was given a sedative and transported to the University of New Mexico Hospital for a mental health evaluation
- On January 11, Officer Knipprath was contacted about a shoplifting in progress. The store security said there were two lookouts outside the store and one female inside selecting a large amount of clothing. Officer Knipprath contacted the two lookouts and found one with a felony warrant and the other in possession of methamphetamine. The female inside the store was apprehended with over $400 worth of stolen merchandise.
- On January 16, Officer Knipprath was again dispatched to a shoplifting in progress at the same store. A female had a large amount of jewelry on her person. After observing the suspect, Officer Knipprath apprehended her outside of the business and recovered all of the stolen items. The total amount was over $600.
- On January 17, Officer Elliott discovered a subject asleep inside a stolen vehicle. The suspect was taken into custody without incident. A loaded weapon was found inside the vehicle and Officer Elliott contacted the Drug Enforcement Agency regarding a felon in possession. The agency took over the investigation and the suspect is facing charges of receiving and transferring a stolen motor vehicle, possession of a controlled substance, felon in possession of a firearm, and possession of burglary tools.
- On January 20, Officer Friedfertig was dispatched to a disturbance at a health service facility. When he arrived, he found the facility on lock down. The manager told him a patient telephoned stating he was going to “shoot up” the facility. Officers contacted the patient by telephone and he agreed to return to his residence and meet with officers. The patient returned home and was compliant and cooperative with police. He told officers he was frustrated at the inability to get his medication. After speaking with the patient, he agreed to voluntarily accompany Officer Friedfertig to the University of New Mexico Mental Health Facility for an Emergency Mental Health Evaluation and assistance in getting back on his medications.

- On January 22, officers were dispatched to a priority one aggravated battery incident at a local motel. Officers found a female with injuries, a broken window, and blood throughout the motel room. Officers were advised the suspect had fled the scene. The victim indicated she had met the suspect the day before and agreed to go with him to the motel. When the victim wanted to leave, the suspect became angry, grabbed her head, slammed it against the window, and repeatedly punched her body and face. The victim was able to grab a pocket knife from her pocket and began swinging it towards the suspect, however, she did not know if she had stabbed him. Due to the commotion, an employee checked on the room. The suspect opened the door but was still holding onto the victim. She was screaming for help. The suspect proceeded to slam the door in the employee’s face and continued to batter the victim for a short time before exiting the room and fleeing in his vehicle. The female was transported to the University of New Mexico Hospital (UNMH). A search of the room revealed a large quantity of blood not consistent with the victim’s injuries. An arrest warrant was executed for the suspect on charges of kidnapping and aggravated battery with a deadly weapon. The next morning Bosque Farms police located the suspect with multiple lacerations and a puncture wound.
- On January 25, Officer Gunderson was dispatched to a domestic violence incident. The female caller stated her live-in boyfriend held her against her will and battered her numerous times over a 24 hour period. The male offender had reportedly left the scene and driven to Grants, New Mexico. Officer Gunderson and Detective Burton teamed up to conduct an investigation which included contacting the male offender. They convinced him to return to Albuquerque to be interviewed. Upon completing their investigation, the male offender was taken into custody and charged with six felony charges related to the domestic violence incident. The female victim was treated at the scene and released.

- On January 26, officers were dispatched to a residential burglary in progress. The offender reportedly gained entry into the residence by prying open a back door. The offender was seen entering the residence, but had not been seen exiting it. Officers could hear movement inside and made announcements to the suspect to exit, but he did not respond or comply. Officers tried to enter the residence but the suspect had pushed a washing machine up against the door to prevent entry. Officers were eventually able to push the door in enough to gain entry. The suspect was located and taken into custody.
- On January 27, Officer Shultz was dispatched to a traffic accident. Prior to arrival, Officer Shultz ran the reported vehicle’s license plate. The registered owner was found to be on probation. Officer Shultz obtained a photograph of the owner. Upon arrival, the vehicle was unoccupied and disabled on the sidewalk. A witness who called police stated a male subject had exited the vehicle and left on foot wearing a tan jacket. Another officer located a male subject wearing a tan jacket nearby. Officer Shultz proceeded to that location and positively identified the male subject as the owner of the vehicle. When they contacted the subject, he refused to follow officers’ commands to remove his hands from his pockets. Other officers arrived to assist, before the subject complied and was taken into custody. A revolver was located in the subject’s pant pocket. The subject was placed under arrest for felon in possession of a firearm. Officers also found a folded five dollar bill which had a white crystal substance inside the folds. The substance tested presumptive positive for methamphetamine.
- On January 30, Officers Friedfertig and Simmons were dispatched to a bank at a local grocery store where an individual was attempting to cash a fraudulent check in the amount of $2,875. The teller realized the check was similar to a check cashed the day before by another subject. She determined the check was not valid and called police. Officers Friedfertig and Simmons arrived and took the offender into custody. Subsequent investigation revealed the subject was involved in nine other fraudulent check incidents using the same account number. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.

Field Services Bureau - West Valley Area Command...

- In January, the Valley Area Command had 6,930 calls for service, wrote 5,377 reports and issued 764 citations. There were 94 felony arrests and warrants, 141 misdemeanor arrests and warrants, and 45 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Thirteen community meetings were attended.
- In January, Officer Shrouf conducted a city park tactical plan to deter individuals from being in the park after hours, drinking, using drugs, or committing other violations of the law. During the month, Officer Shrouf contacted six vehicles and fourteen individuals inside the park. All high school age youth were informed of park hours and removed from the premises. Additionally, four older individuals were cited for criminal trespass and one handicap citation was issued for a vehicle being parked in the handicap stall.
- On January 7, officers were dispatched to a commercial burglary in progress. Several officers arrived and established a perimeter. As officers approached the building on foot, a vehicle matching the description given by the caller was observed. The vehicle drove straight at officers before swerving into an empty field adjacent to the building. The vehicle was found abandoned and officers searched the area. A subject was located near the abandoned vehicle and taken into custody. The vehicle contained thousands of dollars of stolen equipment and the subject was charged with several felonies.
- On January 7, Officer Chafin located a stolen motor vehicle and arrested the two occupants without incident. During his investigation, he found tools, electrical items, sunglasses and various automobile parts in the stolen vehicle. The items were potentially stolen from several recent burglaries. The vehicle was returned to the rightful owner.
- On January 10, Officer Dehne and Recruit Officer Brown responded to a priority one suspicious person call. The officers located a 12 year-old runaway and transported him back to his residence. When officers arrived at the residence, they located his brother who had been locked out of the residence by their mother.

At that time it was 2 a.m. and the temperature was 29 degrees. Officers also located a third brother without adult supervision. The mother was located and arrested for child abuse. The children were taken to their grandmother's house and the Children, Youth, and Family Department (CYFD) was notified about the incident.

- On January 12, Officer Lucero drove up on a dumpster fire. The fire was spreading down a wooden fence threatening a nearby apartment building and business. Team 6 officers assisted in evacuating the apartments and business, and closed down roadways until the Fire Department arrived and extinguished the fire.
- On January 13, detectives arrested a female subject trying to cash a $19,000 check with a homemade temporary identification. The female was arrested for identification theft, fraud, and manufacturing a fraudulent identification.
- On January 18, Officer Chafin responded to a residence where the reporting person found an unknown adult male sleeping in his young daughter's bed. Officer Chafin arrived, made sure the family was safe, and placed the male under arrest. The male had broken into the home by damaging the bedroom window and was found to have an extensive felony arrest record to include burglary and breaking and entering. Fortunately, the daughter was not in the room during the male's entry. Officer Chafin comforted the family by assuring a periodic watch on the home and providing his contact information.
- On January 18, officers were dispatched to a call of a subject who had shot himself. The subject was located in the corner of the apartment with an apparent gunshot wound to the head. Paramedics declared the subject deceased at the scene. The caller indicated she and the deceased, her boyfriend, were arguing earlier in the day. Later in the evening, the deceased grabbed a hand gun, loaded a single round, and said "Let's play Russian roulette." The deceased pointed the weapon at the caller and pulled the trigger. The deceased then stuck the gun under his chin and pulled the trigger and the gun went off. A field investigator and the Office of the Medical Investigator were called to the scene. Both advised the scene did not appear suspicious and was consistent with a suicide.
- On January 18, Officer Reese made contact with two subjects in a suspicious vehicle. While speaking to the driver, Officer Reese noticed several items in the back seat, as well as what appeared to be a gun. License plate records did not match the vehicle. A run of the vehicle identification number (VIN) revealed the vehicle to be stolen. Both the driver and his passenger were placed under arrest.

- On January 23, officers were investigating a reported assault in downtown Albuquerque. While conducting the investigation, they were advised there was a male subject with a firearm at a pizza restaurant one block away. Officers established a perimeter and located the subject. Officers recovered the firearm which turned out to be a plastic BB gun. A few days later, officers faced a similar situation at the bus station which resulted in the recovery of another BB gun and the subject being transported to the hospital for evaluation.
- On January 25, officers were dispatched to a male battering a female with a hammer. Upon arrival, officers heard a female screaming for help. Officers entered the residence and found a male attempting to hold a bedroom door closed. Officers pushed the door open and found a female hiding in the bedroom corner. The male was taken into custody and arrested for aggravated battery upon a household member.
- On January 27, officers were dispatched to a body found in the Bosque by a hiker. The caller directed officers to the body located about 40 yards off of a trail. The deceased was sitting on a duffle bag with an apparent self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head. The body was undisturbed and the shotgun was still in the deceased's lap. The Office of the Medical Investigator (OMI) determined the scene was consistent with a suicide.
- On January 28, officers were dispatched on a domestic violence call. The caller reported a male subject was abusing his girlfriend. When officers arrived, a male ran out the back of the apartment. Officers learned the identity of the male and found he was possibly armed and known to be violent towards law enforcement officers. The male also had several outstanding felony arrest warrants. The male's vehicle was located but he fled away when an officer attempted a traffic stop. The vehicle was not pursued, but was located abandoned a short time later. Officers received a call that the male was possibly back at the apartment. Officers established a perimeter and attempted contact at the front door. The male tried to exit the rear of the apartment but was challenged by officers. He ran back inside the apartment but, after a few announcements, exited the apartment and was taken into custody. He was booked on domestic violence charges and five active warrants.

- On January 28, Officer Quade was flagged down by two victims claiming to be assaulted by an individual with garden snips. The victims stated they were doing yard work when the subject approached them asking for work. When they told the subject they had no work for him, the subject picked up the garden snips they were using and threatened them. The subject also entered a vehicle of one of the victims. He fled after the victims flagged down a truck. The subject was located at a nearby shelter and taken into custody. He had been arrested three times in January, including aggravated battery with a deadly weapon on January 20. The subject was arrested for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and breaking and entering.
- On January 29, officers responded to a domestic violence call where the offender possibly had a gun. Upon arrival, officers persuaded the male to allow them to enter the residence. Officers located a female who believed she had a fractured arm as a result of the male striking her with a stick. She had also been punched in the face and was swollen and bleeding. The male stated he was on bond for human trafficking. He was arrested on felony charges and transported to the Prisoner Transport Center.

Southwest Area Command...

- In January, the Southwest Area Command had 5,246 calls for service, wrote 1,241 reports, and issued 811 citations. There were 76 felony arrests, 34 misdemeanor arrests, 15 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests and 50 warrants issued. Thirteen community meetings were attended.
- In January, Officer Bailey was dispatched to a subject attempting to cash a stolen check. Employees advised they had received numerous checks with the same information but had never been able to keep the offender in the store. Due to Officer Bailey's quick response, she located, identified, and obtained a confession from the offender.
- On January 1, officers were dispatched to take a homicide offender into custody. An officer obtained the offender's phone number and talked him into peacefully exiting his home. The offender was booked on homicide charges.
- On January 5, Officers Gallegos and McMillin were dispatched to a domestic dispute. The caller advised her ex-boyfriend violated a restraining order prohibiting him from contact with her or their two-year-old child. The caller came home and found the suspect inside her house and her pet bird dead. The caller pushed the suspect out the door but he threatened to come back and kill her. The caller indicated the suspect is homeless and usually hangs out around the downtown area near the shelters. Bike patrol officers in the Valley Area Command were advised and given a detailed description of him. The suspect was located and taken into custody. He was booked for breaking and entering and violation of a restraining order on a household member.

- On January 7, Officer Martinez stopped a vehicle for a traffic violation. The driver had a warrant for his arrest. While being taken into custody, he was found with two handguns in his possession. The case was turned over to Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives (ATF).

Open Space...

- On January 1, Open Space Search and Rescue (SAR) was informed a retired APD officer and three teenage males were stuck in deep snow in the Sandia mountains. They had gotten information to several family members and friends that they were in trouble and needed help. The information relayed to SAR was contradictory between reporting parties, so initial response to a location was difficult. Their phones were dying and the subjects would not respond to calls and messages from Open Space SAR. Radio communications was able to ping one of the phones and relay coordinates. Rescuers hiked several miles to the subjects in waist deep snow using snow shoes. The subjects were cold, tired, hungry, and thirsty. All subjects were returned home unharmed. The operation was carried out in ten degree weather.

- On January 4, Open Space officers were patrolling the Bosque when they heard a call for service regarding a subject who wanted to shoot himself. Officers Candelaria and Harvey located the person. Officers learned that the male subject was diagnosed with post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) and had taken medication prior to consuming alcohol. Officers were able to calm the male subject so he would cooperate with paramedics. The male subject voluntarily went with rescue personnel and they transported him to the hospital without incident.
- On January 23, Open Space Search and Rescue (SAR) received a call that a 72-year-old woman and two teenagers were lost and stranded on the La Luz trail. A cell phone ping was attempted but was unsuccessful. Assistance from Metro2 was requested and the subjects were located approximately one mile from the tram house in deep snow before the exposed cliff section. SAR attempted to traverse the exposed face of the La Luz trail, but determined it was too dangerous because of the ice and snow. An alternate route to the La Luz trail was identified and SAR reached the subjects at approximately 10:00 p.m. They had been lying in the snow for approximately five hours. The boys were hypothermic. Their clothing had to be cut from their bodies because they were frozen solid and could not be removed. APD SAR rendered medical aid, provided food, hot liquids, and warm dry clothing. At about midnight, with the assistance of Albuquerque Mountain Rescue Council, the task of getting all three patients up the ice covered cliff began. A safety rope system was established and all three subjects were safely rescued from the mountain at about 3:00 a.m.
- On January 23, Open Space Search and Rescue

(SAR) received a call of two males lost while trying to locate the TWA plane crash site. The two male subjects were in phone contact and SAR began the six mile hike through snow and ice. After five hours, the two subjects were located on a cliff ledge at approximately 1:00 a.m. The subjects were cold, wet, and in need of food and water. Rescuers climbed to their location and provided them with dry clothing, food and water. With the assistance of Cibola Search and Rescue, the subjects were brought off the mountain. Overall, the rescue took eleven hours.

- From January 24 through 31, Open Space officers were called to assist with numerous fires that appeared to be set intentionally in the Bosque. Cameras were strategically placed in hopes of identifying a suspect. Officers continue to work with the Bernalillo County and Albuquerque Fire Department in trying to identify a suspect.

% change is based upon the 2016 time-frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time-frame. The blue represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). The yellow represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). This data was prepared by the Crime Analysis Unit of the Real Time Crime Center. Contact Sarah Masek at 768-4822 or smasek@cabq.gov for further information or questions.
