FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-EAST

Southeast Area Command...

- In October, Officer Martinez was dispatched to a caller who had located their stolen vehicle. Upon arrival, Officer Martinez witnessed the occupant exit the stolen vehicle and enter a restaurant. Officer Martinez took the suspect into custody. The suspect was in possession of the vehicle's keys and methamphetamine. The offender was arrested for being in possession of a controlled substance and receiving/transferring a stolen motor vehicle.
- In October, Officer Wolffbrandt took a report and found that a 12 year-old's bicycle had been stolen during a burglary. Officer Wolffbrandt used his own money to purchase a new bicycle after learning it was the child's birthday.
- On October 11, Officer Schultz was dispatched on a robbery call. Comments on the call stated the offender was a male wearing a clown mask and black jacket. A second robbery call was dispatched with the same description of the offender. A male subject matching the description was found in the area. Air1 watched the subject as he dropped objects on the ground near an area where officers located a gun and mask. Dispatch advised of a third robbery in the same vicinity. Upon investigation, Officer Schultz determined all three robberies were committed by the same offender. The subject was charged with all three robberies and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On October 19, Officer Romero was finishing a call when an "attempt to locate" a female was dispatched. The female had attempted to kidnap a child at a nearby store. Officer Romero located the subject and made contact with her. She was positively identified and was taken into custody for attempted kidnapping.
- On October 28, officers were dispatched to a carjacking. Upon arrival, officers learned the vehicle was taken along with a four-year-old child by a female. A description of the vehicle was broadcast along with an "attempt to locate." Later that morning, a camper found the child at a campground in Bernalillo. The female was subsequently found and booked for child abandonment, child abuse, unlawful taking of a motor vehicle, and false imprisonment.

Northeast Area Command...

- On October 7, Officer Benavides responded to an armed robbery call. When officers arrived, the victim stated they were from out of town and had driven overnight to go to the Balloon Fiesta. The victim advised that she and her friend were taking a nap in her car when a male subject knocked on their car window and pointed a gun at them and told them to open the car door. The victim got her gun and pointed it at the offender who then fled. Officer Benavides located the offender and he was positively identified by the victim. The suspect was arrested and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.

- On October 7, Officer Fisher was patrolling a local motel when he noticed a suspicious subject sitting in a truck with a scooter in the bed of the vehicle. The subject appeared to be hiding from him. Officer Fisher along with other officers made contact with the subject who told them he did not know who the truck belonged to. After investigation, it was determined the truck and scooter were stolen. The subject was arrested for receiving/transferring stolen property and two outstanding arrest warrants.
- On October 10, Officer A. Moreno responded to a suspicious person call. Upon investigation and communication with Southeast Area Command units, it was determined the suspicious person was the offender of a fatal hit and run and was booked for vehicular homicide.
- On October 21, Officer J. Grady was dispatched to investigate a disturbance at an apartment complex. Officer Grady found a male had beaten his girlfriend and her children. The male left on foot but Officer Grady and assisting officers along with Air1 located the male. The man was arrested and charged with numerous violent crimes.
- On October 23, officers were dispatched to a suspicious vehicle in the parking lot of an apartment complex. Security provided the license plate and said the vehicle was still occupied. Officers learned the vehicle was taken earlier that morning during a violent home invasion. Officers approached the vehicle and its three occupants. Two of the males were taken into custody at the scene. The third male fled on foot through the complex but was apprehended by Sergeant Edison. The investigation turned up an automatic handgun and it was determined the suspect who fled had committed the home invasion. During the home invasion, the offender had pushed a disabled elderly male and pointed a gun towards a female. The male also had five outstanding misdemeanor and felony warrants.
- On October 30, Officer J. Gumble was dispatched to a male subject standing on the barrier wall of the freeway. Upon arrival, Officer Gumble attempted to make conversation with the male. Shortly thereafter, Sergeant Napoleone arrived and talked to the male about the reasons he was on the wall. The male stated he was planning on committing suicide by running into traffic on the freeway. Sergeant Napoleone was able to talk the male off of the wall. The male was checked by rescue and transported to the hospital for a mental health evaluation.

Foothills Area Command...

- On October 9, Officer Knipprath was advised by dispatch that a victim had located their stolen vehicle being driven by a male subject. Officer Knipprath located the vehicle and conducted a traffic stop. The male driver was taken into custody and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for transferring/receiving a stolen vehicle.
- On October 15, Officers Warwick and Urioste were dispatched to a suspicious vehicle with two occupants inside. Upon arrival, officers ran the plate and determined the vehicle was stolen. Both subjects were taken into custody and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On October 21, Officers Lee and Deatherage spotted a vehicle weaving and crossing traffic lanes. Officers pulled the vehicle over and made contact with the driver. As Officer Lee was speaking to the driver, Officer Deatherage saw a handgun located by the driver's hip area. The driver and front passenger were removed from the vehicle and the handgun was secured for officer safety. The handgun was confirmed to be stolen and the driver was found to have an outstanding warrant for his arrest. The front seat passenger also had a felony warrant for his arrest and the back seat passenger had two misdemeanor warrants. During the inventory search, a shotgun was found in the back seat along with a large plastic bag containing five one ounce bags of marijuana. The driver was charged with transferring/receiving a stolen firearm and possession of a controlled substance with the intent to distribute. All three subjects were booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center on their outstanding warrants.
- On October 23, Officer Knipprath was dispatched on a suspicious person call. Officer Knipprath located the male who attempted to conceal his identity. Officer Knipprath

- determined the male's identify and found he had a felony warrant for probation violation for the charge of murder from the United States Marshal's Office. He was arrested and booked.
- On October 27, officers were dispatched to a robbery in progress. When officers arrived, they found a martial arts trainer from a neighboring business holding one of the suspects on the ground. Officers took custody of the suspect. The individual was found to be one of the offenders committing a string of robberies in the Foothills Area Command. The suspects would steal a vehicle and then use it to commit robberies of businesses. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On October 30, officers made contact with a domestic violence victim and observed she was bleeding from multiple head lacerations and her left forearm appeared to be broken in multiple places. The following day, Foothills Impact Detective Clipp responded to the University of New Mexico Hospital. The victim had multiple broken bones, lacerations and internal injuries. At the time it was uncertain if the victim would survive her injuries. The victim's condition stabilized and she confirmed it was her boyfriend who attacked her. She believed he had every intention of killing her. An arrest warrant was issued for the offender on the charges of attempt to commit a first degree felony, five counts of aggravated battery against a household member and child abuse. The offender was arrested and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.

FIELD SERVICES BUREAU-WEST Valley Area Command...

- On October 1, officers were dispatched on a priority one aggravated assault call. Officers were advised that a male had threatened his neighbor with a handgun. Officers arrived on scene and established a perimeter around the mobile home. After a series of commands, the offender exited the residence and was taken into custody. Valley Impact Detective Ortiz responded to the scene and a search warrant was obtained for the residence. During the search, the firearm was located inside the house and the offender was arrested for the aggravated assault and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On October 3, Officers Nelson and Drager were working a downtown tactical plan when Officer Nelson heard multiple shots fired. He proceeded to the area and was advised by witnesses that a male had fired shots at another male after an argument. The victim was shot in the leg. While checking the area, Officer Nelson located the offender and took him into custody after a foot pursuit. He was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for aggravated battery. The victim received medical treatment.

- On October 4, officers were dispatched to assist Valley Impact detectives who were following a vehicle involved in an auto burglary. Air support was on scene and guided officers. The vehicle stopped at a dead end and the occupants fled on foot. Officers established a perimeter and detained two of the four suspects. Air support located the other two suspects hiding in the backyard of a nearby residence. Officers maintained their perimeter and K-9 units were called to assist. After several public service announcements, one of the suspects came out of a trash can he was hiding in and was taken into custody. The final subject was located in the backyard and taken into custody.
- On October 7, Team 1 officers responded to an auto burglary in progress. The caller indicated three subjects were unlawfully entering parked vehicles at an apartment complex. Air support acquired a visual of the offenders entering a vehicle and driving off the property. With the guidance of air support, officers conducted a felony traffic stop and took all three offenders into custody.
- On October 17, Officers Avila and Martinez were dispatched to a residential burglary in progress. The caller reported two male subjects were removing several items from a garage and loading them onto a dolly. The two subjects made entry after they cut through a chain link fence and pried open the garage door. As officers attempted contact, the two male subjects fled on foot. Officer Avila apprehended one male subject. A search incident to arrest revealed narcotics and drug paraphernalia in the pockets of the subject. The subject was also found to have a felony warrant. The stolen items were returned to the homeowner.
- On October 18, Team 10 officers were dispatched on a shots fired call. When they arrived, they located a female who had been shot in the shoulder. She reported that she was a passenger of a vehicle when an unknown vehicle pulled up and began shooting into the car. She reported that she exited the vehicle but the driver, who had been shot in the face, continued to drive. Officers gathered information and relayed it to the Bernalillo County Sheriff's Office (BCSO). A few minutes later, BCSO located the vehicle. The male refused to speak to officers, but was treated for the head injury.

Southwest Area Command...

- On October 11, Officer M. Reeder noticed a motorcycle traveling at a high rate of speed. Officer Reeder caught up to the motorcycle and noticed it did not have a license plate. The motorcycle stopped at a residence and the driver walked into the house. Officer Reeder made contact with the driver and noticed the ignition to the motorcycle was damaged. Officer Reeder ran the vehicle identification (VIN) number and concluded the motorcycle was stolen. He placed the driver under arrest for receiving/transferring a stolen motor vehicle.
- On October 14, Officer Bailey was dispatched to a local hospital regarding domestic violence. The victim advised the offender had her cell phone and car and was afraid he would seriously injure or kill her. Officer Bailey worked with the victim to locate the offender through cell phone text messages and conversations. The victim convinced the offender to pick her up at the hospital. The offender responded to the area and, with the assistance of Northwest Area Command officers, was taken into custody. The victim's vehicle and property were returned to her.
- On October 14, Officer Garcia was on patrol when he spotted a stolen vehicle in the front yard of a residence. The stolen vehicle had been involved in other residential burglaries and the offenders may have been armed. A perimeter was established and three subjects were taken into custody. One of them had felony warrants and was involved in other violent crimes. The other two were wanted for homicide. Five stolen handguns and other stolen property were recovered in the vehicle and in the residence.
- In October, Officers Madrid and Bisagna were selected by the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund as recipients of its Officer of the Month Award after talking a suicidal male subject off an I-40 overpass earlier in the year. They will be honored during National Police Week at a special awards ceremony in Washington, D.C. in May 2017.
- On October 24, Officer A. Michaud was dispatched to a local store where a shoplifter stabbed a customer who was trying to stop him from fleeing. Officer Michaud calmed the victim and obtained his statement before he was transported to the hospital. Through investigation, Officer Michaud identified the offender and forwarded the case to Southwest Impact detectives.

- On October 31, officers were concluding a dispatched call when they observed a suspicious truck which had been involved in a stolen vehicle incident. The license plate was run through Motor Vehicle Department (MVD) records and it showed the owner was wanted for an outstanding warrant. Officers initiated a traffic stop and two females were arrested. A firearm and a stolen United States Postal key were found in the vehicle. The females had extraditable warrants from Texas.

Northwest Area Command...

- On October 13, officers were dispatched to a local retail outlet regarding a possible drunk driver. A witness observed a female get out of a vehicle and stumble into the store. Officers were also advised that the vehicle was listed as stolen in the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) database. As officers arrived, a female sitting in the driver's seat attempted to run, but was detained after a short foot pursuit. The driver and other occupants in the vehicle were arrested for warrants or transferring/receiving a stolen vehicle.
- On October 18, officers were dispatched on a domestic violence call. A mother called police after her daughter had been beaten by her boyfriend. The incident took place earlier in the day at the boyfriend's apartment. The boyfriend had struck the daughter several times and strangled her until she was unconscious. The daughter managed to escape and went to the mother's residence. Several red swollen areas on the daughter's face and arms were observed and paramedics were summoned to examine her. Officers proceeded to the boyfriend's apartment where he was placed under arrest and transported to the Metropolitan Detention Center.
- On October 20, Northwest Impact detectives conducted a follow-up investigation on a residential burglary and auto theft. The offenders were identified as being associated with an Albuquerque gang. Through investigation and assistance from the Gang Unit, arrest warrants were issued for both offenders. Northwest Impact Detectives arrested both offenders.

The offenders were related to several cases throughout Albuquerque and Bernalillo County.

- On October 26, Northwest Impact detectives were working a long term investigation on several commercial burglaries at Albuquerque retailers and restaurants. The offender would break into the business and either steal money from the safe or steal the safe itself. Working in conjunction with the Investigative Services Unit, the identity of the offender was obtained. Detectives conducted surveillance on the offender and he was caught in the act of committing a commercial burglary and auto theft. Detectives apprehended the offender. After searching his residence, a significant amount of stolen property was recovered and 21 cases of commercial burglary were tied to the offender.
- On October 31, officers were dispatched to a disturbance at a treatment center. Dispatch advised that multiple residents of the treatment center were violent and out of control. When officers arrived, all of the male subjects were controlled and inside their designated rooms. The lead nurse stated the residents became upset when they were advised they had to go to bed. The males ran through the hallway and punched the walls. Two of the males physically threatened the nurse and pulled personal property from her pockets. Two other residents caused damage to an entertainment center and desk in excess of $1,000. The residents calmed down after they were informed police were on their way. The two residents involved in the threat were arrested and transported to the Juvenile Detention Center. The full report was forwarded to Juvenile Probation and Parole for further review and prosecution.

- On October 15, the K-9 Unit conducted a K-9 demonstration for the APD Hero's Academy.
- In October, SWAT conducted three tactical operations and assisted the New Mexico State Police with two tactical operations.
- On October 3, the SWAT team responded to a domestic violence call involving shots fired. A neighbor reported observing a male and female in a physical fight outside their apartment. As they entered the apartment, the neighbor could still hear an argument and what sounded to be a physical struggle inside. The neighbor reported hearing a single loud pop that sounded like a gun shot. After the noise, the sounds of fighting ceased. Field officers could not make contact with the subjects in the apartment and requested SWAT. Through an escalation of tactics, SWAT was able to have the female and male exit the apartment. The male subject was taken into custody for numerous violent felony warrants. The residence was cleared of all other occupants and detectives took responsibility of the apartment for a search warrant.
- On October 5, the SWAT team assisted the New Mexico State Police SWAT team with a high risk search warrant. The search warrant involved a male subject who had an extensive violent criminal history and was wanted for felony warrants involving human trafficking. The subject was the target of a SWAT call-out about a year ago as well. Both teams conducted the operation and took the subject into custody without incident. The apartment was secured for detectives to conduct a search warrant.

- On October 12, the SWAT team responded to a male subject on the roof of a commercial building. Field Services officers negotiated with the subject for several hours, however the subject refused to come down from the roof. While on the roof, the subject threatened officers while armed with a screw driver. He also dismantled and destroyed various structural items and property on the roof. Both SWAT and a crisis negotiation team responded. Through a combination of patience, resources, tactics and negotiations, the subject eventually came down from the roof top and surrendered to police.
- On October 19, the SWAT team assisted the VICE Unit with a high risk search warrant involving numerous individuals dealing heroin while armed. During the operation, one male subject was taken into custody and the residence was cleared for detectives to conduct a search. During the search, detectives located 27 grams of heroin, a stolen handgun, a sawed-off shotgun and a stolen motorcycle.
- On October 19, the SWAT team assisted the New Mexico State Police (NMSP) SWAT team with a barricaded subject wanted for a violent felony warrant. The subject fled from NMSP in a vehicle and then on foot and was tracked to his residence in Belen. At some point, the subject ran out the back door. Officers gave chase and he eventually surrendered and was taken into custody.
- In October, the Bomb Squad responded to 16 call-outs and assisted SWAT with three activations in providing robot, rook, and explosive breaching support.

Monthly Comparison

3-Month Comparison

% change is based upon the 2016 time-frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time-frame. The green represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). The yellow represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). This data was prepared by the Crime Analysis Unit of the Real Time Crime Center. Contact: Sarah Masek at 768-4652 or smasek@rcct.gov for further information or questions.
