November 21, 2013

Attention: Grade Level Chairperson

As part of the Older Americans' Month celebration during May, the City of Albuquerque Department of Senior Affairs and Albuquerque Public Schools are conducting the Thirty Second Annual Essay Contest for first through fifth grade students in the APS school district boundaries only. The topic of the essay is "A Senior I Know."

The "A Senior I Know" Essay Contest supports Language Arts standards in Strand III for grades 1 – 5 in Writing Strategies, Conventions and Applications.

The purpose of this contest is to promote positive relationships between elementary school students and seniors. Each student who enters the contest will receive a Certificate of Participation and a coupon from McDonald's Restaurants. We hope you will encourage your teachers and students to participate in this intergenerational activity. (Please copy and distribute this information to teachers at your grade level.)

Contest Rules and Entry Forms are available on the City of Albuquerque Department of Senior Affairs' website <http://www.cabq.gov/seniors/> and the Albuquerque Public School's website.

Listed below are the rules, selection process and judging criteria for the contest.

RULES: All rules must be followed or essays will be DISQUALIFIED!

1. Essays must be submitted through the child's school; APS Elementary Schools, Parochial, Private, Charter or Home School within the Albuquerque Public School district boundaries. No on-line entries will be accepted.
2. All essays must be the original work of the student.
3. Essays may be up to 300 words in length.
4. Essays written in a foreign language must also submit a translated English copy.
5. Essays must be typed or hand written on the Official Entry Form. The information box on the entry form must list the child's:

A note must accompany the entries stating the total number of students who wrote essays for the contest. Based on the numbers submitted, the appropriate number of Certificates of Participation and McDonald's coupons will be forwarded to each school by May 2013.

5. A panel of judges will select the 30 city winners.
6. Selected winning essays will be on display throughout the city and will also be published in a booklet.

JUDGING CRITERIA:

1. The message about the senior should be clear.
2. The impact of the message should be appealing.
3. The contest rules must be followed.
4. The essay should demonstrate skills appropriate for the grade level.

Thirty city winners will be chosen from APS, private schools, and home schooled students in Albuquerque. The winners and their families will be invited to an awards reception on May 1, 2014 at 4:30 p.m. at the Manzano Mesa Multigenerational Center. Each winner will receive a gift from Wells Fargo Bank, a pass to Cliff's Amusement Park, and a Certificate of Award from Mayor Berry and Superintendent Brooks. Teachers and principals of the winning students will also be recognized on that date.
