Emissions Status Check

SUMMARY

MyMvd Summary

Purpose

This request allows you to view your vehicle's emission status online to verify if your emissions test are valid, invalid, or if you need to have an emissions test performed on your vehicle.

Any individual who lives in or commutes over 60 days per calendar year in Bernalillo County must have an emissions test taken for their vehicle in order to receive a valid registration. In order to receive a valid registration, you will need to have an emissions test taken and have that verified at an MVD office.

Eligibility

You must have a registered New Mexico vehicle with a valid registration.
