

UNM – Museum of Southwestern Biology

Directions

The MSB is on the University of New Mexico campus in the CERIA building (building 83). To locate CERIA on foot, orient from the intersection of Central Avenue and Yale Boulevard. From here, continue north onto campus along Yale, cross Redondo South Drive, and continue along the promenade until you reach the fountain. CERIA is the building NE of you. The main door to CERIA is facing the fountain.

Parking

- Inexpensive all-day parking can be found in a number of lots south of campus along Yale Blvd.
- Metered parking is available on Redondo Dr. and along Central Ave.
- An hourly parking lot and structure is located just north of the intersection of Central Ave and Stanford Ave accessed via the lot on SE corner of Johnson Gym.
