IV. Public Comment

- a. Members of the public shared their concerns regarding tear gas, rubber bullets and riot gear used by Albuquerque Police Department (APD) during protests. They also shared their desire to defund and/or de-militarize APD. Many members of the public stated it was illegal to use tear gas in war fare and felt it should not be used during protests. Many members of the public additionally shared their experiences during protests involving APD. They also shared links in the chat as well as the Q&A section of the webinar. Those documents are attached for review.

V. Discussion of George Floyd/Black Lives Matter Protest in Albuquerque

- a. Members of the board discussed how they felt after hearing the public comment. Chair Necochea inquired if the board would like to work with other organizations including the Office of Equity and Inclusion and the Office of the Civil Rights to hold a public forum. The public forum could be held to give the public a space to come forward with possible recommendations for the board in regard to the George Floyd/Black Lives Matter protest. The Education and Outreach subcommittee could work on the details if the board wishes to move forward on a public forum. Several board members support the idea to hold a public forum.

VI. Decide next steps/plan of action

- a. Member Assed moved for the Human Rights Board to further investigate APD's actions, responses, and human relations in regards to the incidents that occurred with the Black Lives Matter/George Floyd protests that happened in the city of Albuquerque, between 5/28/20 and Monday. The motion was seconded by Vice Chair Lawyer. The motion was approved by a unanimous vote.

The motion was seconded by Member Assed. The motion was approved by a unanimous vote. A date for the special meeting will be held within the next two weeks.
- c. Member Jefferson moved to allow the Investigation and Research sub-committee to review procedures and provide a plan at the July board meeting. Motion was seconded by Vice-Chair Lawyer. Members discussed the difference between the sub-committee holding a meeting and the board holding a special meeting. Members also expressed their feeling of urgency and wanting all board members to participate in the process. This motion was not voted on.
- d. Member Jefferson moved to hold a special meeting on June 4, 2020. Motion was seconded by Member Assed. Chair Necochea informed the board due to Open Meetings Act they could not hold a special meeting the following day. Under the Open Meetings Act notice of all board meetings must have a three-day notice therefore, this motion is moot.

01:14:12 Karen B: I am so deeply concerned about APD and law enforcement tactics that are targeting the leaders of the movement for Black lives. Police are targeting families and individuals who are powerful leaders in the movement - with violence, detaining and arrests. It is obvious and specific harassment and does NOT align with the OEI, Civil Rights Office or the work of this Board. What can be done?

01:14:52 Zoey Craft - Fight for Our Lives: I second Karen's concerns.

01:15:20 Adrien Lawyer he/him: Jasmyn I'm sorry but I don't think we can estimate how long public comment will take to this time.

01:15:41 Micah: I also second Karen's concerns. I have been contacting the governor, and my senators, in the hopes that I can do something

01:17:39 Loren S Kelly: Thank you for your words and great questions Anita, this is Loren Kelly

01:18:14 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Anita, we appreciate it.

01:18:23 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: Yes Rev. Amstutz, we need to reconsider APD's budget

01:18:41 Anita Amstutz: I spoke with someone who was checking on this. She was on the police oversight committee until recently

01:18:57 Adrien Lawyer he/him: The city's budget is publicly available. Let me know if it provides the info you are looking for: <https://www.cabq.gov/dfa/budget>

01:19:12 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: The oversight committee is completely ineffective

01:19:26 Micah: Next Oversight Committee Meeting: 6/11/2020 at 5pm

01:19:28 Anita Amstutz: I've heard is ineffective. How do we make it have teeth?

01:19:36 Brian S. Colon, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: <https://www.cabq.gov/cpoa>

01:21:51 Edward Harness: Thank you Brian Colon for your assistance

01:22:06 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: Hear, hear!

01:22:58 Edward Harness: The meeting will be broadcast on GovTV You are welcome to submit public comment. Normally are meetings are open to the public.

01:22:59 Andrea Rutan (she/her): Thank you for your voice

01:23:52 Edward Harness: The information will be available on the posted agenda.

01:24:10 Mr. Robinson: Absolutely! PDs around the country, including APD, utilize trainings that promote a "warrior" or "kill or be killed" mindset that only pits them against the community.

01:24:12 Riley H. (they/them): Thank you so deeply for your voice Ms. Lovie.

01:24:43 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Lovie! Powerful and moving words we needed. Thank you.

01:25:10 Micah: Thank you Ms. Lovie! I will fight with you, for you and your family.

01:25:26 Francine Pacheco: Thank you Ms. Lovie for your moving words. Powerful, moving, and fierce.

01:25:34 Catherine: Amen! It is hard being scared every time our black children go anywhere or do anything I. Thank you Lovey!

01:25:44 Edward Harness: <http://www.cabq.gov/cpoa/documents/cpoa-board-agenda-april-9-2020.pdf>
This is a past agenda. The information is similar 01:27:35 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Kendra, yes thank you for your info in your letter and those additional resources.

01:28:11 Riley H. (they/them): Thank you so much Kendra.

01:29:34 TrishLopez: Good information to know, Vera. Thank you.

01:29:35 Micah: Thank you Vera.

01:29:48 Sradha Patel: Thank you Vera

01:29:50 DLPhone: I would like to create a ritual of atonement and reconciliation to honor the life of George Floyd and other individuals who have been senselessly miles. 1) Fly all flags in the state flown at half-mast from June 4th-June 9th 2)On Friday June 5th at noon a. play Taps on an Alto/Tenor Sax to honor George Floyd's life. b) salute the life of George Floyd with a 50-gun salute and c) have all of the police officers wear dress blues and honor the life of George Floyd by having them take a knee for 8 min 46 seconds. I think all of these actions would honor George Floyd and show NM's solidarity and commitment to ending police brutality and ensuring that all lives matter.

01:29:53 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Vera for participating in this meeting. We value you.
01:30:10 Riley H. (they/them): Thank you for that information Vera and for showing solidarity with the section of our community who struggle with mental illness.
01:30:14 Mahpiya Black Elk: <https://8cantwait.org>
01:32:53 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Regina.
01:32:58 Micah: Couldn't agree more ReGina.
01:33:12 Sradha Patel: Thank you ReGina
01:33:29 Maria Brazil- audio only: Thank you for your participation tonight. The Human Rights Board will work to answer your question this evening. In the case that we run out of time please email your question to civilrights@cabq.gov
01:34:53 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Bev
01:35:39 DLPhone: thank you Bev! we really need to overwhelm the polls this year and change the nation's direction!
01:36:46 Micah: Thank you Bev. We owe it to oppressed communities to make sure we fight for change in the polls as well as in personal interactions
01:37:06 ilsebiel: It was striking that Mayor Keller spoke at the Centre for Peace and Justice vigil on Sunday and stated how much he believes that black lives matter and yet did not address/acknowledge what had happened on Thursday. As a previous speaker stated: it remains lip service until there is some follow through. The International District bears the brunt of undue heavy policing. Numerous cars surrounding one person is a regular sight. Such escalation tactics bring about as much effective outcomes as chasing people who live on the street from one site to the next.
01:37:39 Monique S.: Fyi, altho the Geneva Protocol banned the use of chemical weapons. Mustard and Sarin were used in the Occupation Iraq.
01:37:55 s p: Will this meeting be recorded and available to view after it is over?
01:37:56 Rosemary Blanchard: We need a youth-led program to get out the vote. Even youth who are not yet of voting age can help their older family members or neighbors or people who need help with English-language materials. This was done by Indigenous youth in North Dakota and they were able to overcome hostile legislation to limit the votes by their communities.
01:38:01 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Courtney
01:38:13 Sradha Patel: Thank you Courtney, and thank you for highlighting Selinda and her work
01:38:23 Micah: Thank you Courtney
01:39:31 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Cheryl for your question and participation in this meeting.
01:40:58 Enrique Cardiel: I'm a resident of the International District. People often ask me if I'm afraid while walking in the International District. I can honestly say, and have said that the only time I have been harassed while walking has been from someone in a uniform.

I have seen police harass youth and elders. While I know there are neighbors who appreciate more officers, I think that more officers has often equated with more police violence. Officers need to have force as a final option, not first.

01:41:06 DLPhone: hello Cheryl! thank you for your question. I am currently reading a book called My Grandmother's Hands which is about how to work through racial trauma for whites, people of color and the police. I wonder if the city and state could use this book with officers so that they don't pass their trauma on to the community!
01:42:38 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: Holy cow, Joseph, thank you for doing that work
01:42:40 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Hi Joseph - Thank you for your comments. Also thank you for your work you do for the community
01:42:44 Sradha Patel: Thank you Joseph
01:42:49 Enrique Cardiel: Yes, I have a family member with schizoaffective disorder. I have seen them harassed even after an officer asked if there was a mental health issue. Thank you Joseph!
01:43:02 DLPhone: it is such a blessing that everyone is taking time and showing up to make our community and country better! thank you all!
01:44:54 Riley H. (they/them): Yes, thank you Jim. Call them out for encouraging vigilante justice.
01:45:22 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: Regarding the 169...

01:45:34 AveryF: Thank you Jim you have done amazing things in our community and I appreciate all the work you do!

01:45:43 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: Further back...regarding the 169...

01:45:49 Janette McClelland: The International District has the highest % of Native and Black residents in the city. High unemployment. High % of homelessness. Blacks have the highest dropout and lowest graduation rate at APS. Plus the area has a high recidivism rate as a result of this. Food desert. Terrible bus service South of Central. City keeps choosing to kick it down the can and ignoring us and our needs. How about stores instead of a new police station? And more affordable housing? Instead we get ignored and harassed by APD and Trump supporters driving down San Mateo, Louisiana and Gibson.

01:45:50 Micah: Thank you Jim. I live on UNM campus and allowing armed people on campus terrifies me

01:45:52 Riley H. (they/them): Can a panelist specify to Jim in regards to what he was talking about relating to "169"?

01:46:27 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: Thank you, Mr. Harvey.

01:46:31 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Jim, thank you for your comments and participation in tonight's meeting.

01:46:48 Janette McClelland: Most of us have no trust in APD. This is why.

01:46:54 Sradha Patel: Thank you Jim

01:47:03 Janette McClelland: Thank you Jim.

01:47:15 Micah: Thank you Mr. Harvey

01:47:37 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: Thank you, Jim, this is why I say the CPOB should be dissolved and reformed.

01:47:41 Carissa Fonseca: what was the 29 # related to? I missed it

01:47:46 Riley H. (they/them): 169 unreported cases of excessive force, 29 officer-involved shootings.

01:47:51 Janette McClelland: I posted video of APD talking to the militia on my social media. Unacceptable.

01:47:56 Carissa Fonseca:

01:48:33 Mr. Robinson: UNM is a gun-free campus, so regardless of open carry laws, it's alarming that police did not ask these agitators to leave.

01:49:07 Edward Harness: Mr Harvey please call me at 924-3774 to discuss those numbers you sited

01:49:19 Janette McClelland: The ID has a large black population, yes. Which area has the largest %?

01:50:13 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Hi Kelly - thank you for your comments

01:50:30 Micah: Not protecting constitutional rights goes against the New Mexican Oath of Office as outlined by the New Mexico Secretary of State

01:50:40 Janette McClelland: Disband APD. The sheriff is just as disheartening towards people of color.

01:50:53 Liota Weinbaum: I have to say as a UNM student, alum, and employee that I feel much more UNSafe with civilians being allowed to carry guns on our gun-free campus. Civilians with guns that are not on campus should be treated equally. It is unacceptable that some armed people get a warm welcome (based on their race and/or perceived politics), compared to others who are quickly targets of police force if they have even a non-weapon that could be mistaken as a gun, during a protest.

01:52:27 Enrique Cardiel: I have to leave. Thank you all for your hard work!

01:52:33 Maria Brazil- audio only: Thank you for your participation tonight. The Human Rights Board will work to answer your question this evening. In the case that we run out of time please email your question to civilrights@cabq.gov

01:53:35 Enrique Cardiel: Thank you. And again, thank you all for the hard work you do

01:54:04 Sradha Patel: Thank you Tonya

01:54:36 Quela: Come thru Tonya! Love you and your work!!

01:54:45 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Tonya for all your work for this community!!!

01:56:07 Liota Weinbaum: I also support the recommendations/requests for live ASL interpretation. Thank you ckanan for volunteering.

01:57:52 Lawrence Roybal: I am grateful to each of you for your dedicated leadership and the commitment you have demonstrated to embrace inclusivity by providing an opportunity for our community to engage in this important dialogue. I look forward to our collaborative endeavors to overcome challenges together in unity.

01:57:53 Riley H. (they/them): Liota, there is a link where Closed Captions are available for those who need.

However, if possible in the future, I strongly request the Board to bring in an interpreters for future meetings as it makes these meetings vastly more accessible for Deaf and HoH siblings.

01:58:00 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Neema!

01:59:51 Natasha: Thank you for hosting this meeting. Can there be a follow up meeting next month or at some point to follow up on concerns that are being raised here? There cannot be any change to this situation without demilitarizing and defunding the police. Money that is being used to recruit police should be used to fund community programs that alleviate poverty. Reforming measures have never been successful because they only strengthen police power. That is what they are designed to do. At the next meeting Mayor Keller should respond to these concerns and if necessary state representatives up to the Governor should be able to respond to the concerns here. Without making this a regular agenda item there will be no follow up and this will be a great start to an important conversation. I also like the idea that someone else mentioned about working with others across the country. Thank you again!

02:00:41 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Rosemary

02:00:47 Sradha Patel: Thank you Rosemary

02:00:52 Karen B: Resmaa Menakem, author of "My Grandmother's Hands", is a professional consultant and trainer for law enforcement teams around the U.S. We need him here!

02:01:46 Alexis Laube-Manigault: Tim Wise is a white anti-racist educator that does anti-racism training with police departments

02:01:51 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: As Cathy McGill said this morning in our conversation, "Enough is enough in saying their isn't enough when it comes to resources to serve the African American community."

02:02:20 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: *there (typo)

02:02:39 Maria Brazil- audio only: Thank you for your participation tonight. The Human Rights Board will work to answer your question this evening. In the case that we run out of time please email your question to civilrights@cabq.gov

02:05:54 Vicki Plevin she/her New Mexico: What happens after a grievance is filed?

02:08:38 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Grace

02:08:51 ckaban@unm.edu: Grace- post numbers please <3

02:09:13 Edward Harness: add 3 zeros to those budget numbers

02:09:31 DLPhone: thank you Lawrence! I also share your views and appreciate this forum and chance to share concerns!

02:10:34 Rosemary Blanchard: What is the budget for the HR Board? Does it include professional staff, access to clerical support, supplies, etc. ? It should.

02:12:18 David: to clarify, those budget numbers are in millions rather than thousands

02:14:25 Vicki Plevin she/her New Mexico: APD has arrested an organizer of the peaceful protests on trumped up charges as retaliation for exercising his constitutional rights. He is now in a situation where he is exposed to Covid-19 and his parole has been revoked in a stark example of the incarceration of masses of black and brown people.

02:15:24 Adrastos Da Silva: I believe that all of the board is not on, Vicki. I recommend reposting that when they're all on the call

02:17:53 Maria Brazil- audio only: Thank you for your participation tonight. The Human Rights Board will work to answer your question this evening. In the case that we run out of time please email your question to civilrights@cabq.gov

02:19:23 David: is it still possible to sign up to comment?

02:19:32 Adrastos Da Silva: me as well

02:21:34 Vicki Plevin she/her New Mexico: APD has arrested an organizer of the peaceful protests on trumped up charges as retaliation for exercising his constitutional rights. One of the speakers asked what could be done to gain his release, but that question was unanswered. He is a father and now in a place where he is threatened by the spread of Covid-19 for no reason but APD's retaliatory arrest. This is a stark example of the mass incarceration inflicted on black and brown people every day in the nation and here in Albuquerque.

02:25:08 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Hi Devont'e Thank you

02:26:34 Maria Brazil- audio only: civilrights@cabq.gov- tenants rights questions

02:27:22 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Can you repeat what you just said please

02:29:12 Mr. Robinson: Pop that in the chat

02:29:18 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: From Patrick: <https://nmaces.org/>:

02:29:47 Francine Pacheco: Patrick: can you please post the first resource you mentioned in the chat? Thanks!

02:29:57 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Patrick in your comment and resources.

02:30:13 Lois Fuller: I just tried to go to a meeting of the SW Area Command - a Police Community outreach. I saw that there was a meeting today at 6:00 p.m. When I got there, no one was around. Does anyone know about these community/police connections?

02:31:41 Sradha Patel: Thank you so much for being here Selinda

02:31:46 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: From Patrick...The coalition link should be here: <https://www.nmblc.org/>

02:31:48 Edward Harness: The community policing councils are not meeting during the health emergency

02:31:50 Jennifer Lim: Thank you, Selinda! We stand with you!!!

02:32:23 Robert Nelson: thank you Selinda!!!

02:33:15 Zoey Craft - Fight for Our Lives: Thank you Selinda!!

02:35:01 Diane: Thank you, Selinda! We stand with you!!!

02:35:18 Francine Pacheco: My heart goes out to you, Selinda and to those youth who experienced this horrendous treatment. We stand with you!

02:35:29 Sarah Quevedo: Y'all need to do something NOW

02:35:30 Sarah Quevedo: NOW

02:35:31 Sarah Quevedo: NOW

02:35:32 Sarah Quevedo: NOW

02:36:41 DLPhone: I'm so sorry that that happened to you and your family!

02:37:14 Alexis Laube-Manigault: Just throw the whole department out the window. this is disgusting

02:37:22 Zoey Craft - Fight for Our Lives: I would like to repeat the demand to release Clifton White, one of the BLM organizers of a PEACEFUL PROTEST. This is an obvious retaliation. His arrest puts him in danger of exposure to Covid-19 and is completely outrageous.

The APD response has been overkill by bringing in swat, tear gas, snipers, and busses ready for mass arrest. Black Lives Matter organizers are being directly targeted by APD.

02:37:41 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Salinda for sharing your story with us. Thank you. I'm so sorry for your experience.

02:37:43 Maria Brazil- audio only: Thank you for your participation tonight. The Human Rights Board will work to answer your question this evening. In the case that we run out of time please email your question to civilrights@cabq.gov

02:37:48 Sarah Quevedo: FREE CLIFTON WHITE

02:38:01 Mr. Robinson: I also repeat the demand to release Clifton White.

02:38:13 ckaban@unm.edu: SELINDA I WANT A WRITTEN STATEMENT FOR MY LIST OF GRIEVANCES FOR APD TO ADDRESS
CKABAN@UNM.EDU 505 366 7844
i intend on presenting a list of grievances publicly for APD to respond to 02:38:42 Julie Bettencourt: We need to be holding police accountable and releasing all individuals involved in the BLM protests to be released.

02:38:50 ckaban@unm.edu: If you are comfortable. Thank you for sharing. Sending you love. We are fighting with you for accountability.

02:38:50 Brian S. Colón, Esq., CFE NM State Auditor: Please engage those children in the "official" process. It can be empowering for them as individuals, and importantly all of these incidents need to be officially recorded.

02:38:57 DLPhone: You have my sympathies. Arnica is a great homeopathic remedy. Boiron makes an arnica helps that you could get at most stores. you could apply it to your leg for the pain and bruising. please take good care!

02:39:03 Julie Bettencourt: Police are the criminals here, not our protesters

02:39:13 Julie Bettencourt: not our community

02:39:44 DLPhone: boiron makes an arnica gel — that may be useful if applied to that injury.

02:40:02 Sarah Quevedo: Abolish the Police

02:40:26 Robert Nelson: Free Clifton Now

02:40:26 Edward Harness: Selinda you can also submit your information to cabq.gov/cpoa

02:40:32 Rosemary Blanchard: Remember that "rubber bullets" are actually rubber covered metal bullets.

They are VERY dangerous. They can kill people.

02:40:38 Lois Fuller: Excellent article on police in USA. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9CviMUPUFLw&mc\_cid=b4d0ef067b&mc\_eid=ae1b237a0f

02:42:40 Sarah Quevedo: Assault on our communities ASSAULT

02:44:05 Julie Bettencourt: We need to defund APD, we need to hold these officers accountable

02:44:05 Sarah Quevedo: As non black POC we must LISTEN to our Black relatives and not cut them off

02:44:22 Maria Brazil- audio only: Thank you for your participation tonight. The Human Rights Board will work to answer your question this evening. In the case that we run out of time please email your questions and comments to civilrights@cabq.gov

02:51:25 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: Thank you Adrastos for recording on Friday and speaking today

02:51:35 Daniel Albino Lujan: Zero reason for ANY police department to have this military gear.

02:52:55 Mr. Robinson: Mayor Keller should be in the meeting to answer to our city.

02:53:18 Sarah Quevedo: ^YES

02:53:34 mallory hemerlein: They are militarized departments. NOT police departments.

02:53:47 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Hello Monique. Thank you for participating

02:54:06 NMFCIJ TEAM (Ella): The Mayor should be here.

02:54:31 Andrea Rutan (she/her): Thank you Monique for you voice. Good to hear you.

02:56:11 Monique S.: Thank you Michelle for answering the question

02:58:02 mallory hemerlein: Place Social Workers and Mental Health practitioners as "responders" in the de-funding of the militarized police force.

02:58:43 Alexis Laube-Manigault: great suggestions

03:00:38 Edward Harness: The standard for the CPOA Board is NOT a history of filing complaints. The standard is a history of unsubstantiated complaints. <http://www.cabq.gov/cpoa/documents/pob-applications-2017-press-release.pdf>

03:00:44 ave: I want to see actual policy reform in physical writing that addresses the role of police and their obsession with violence.

03:01:12 mallory hemerlein: I second all of Denise's requests.

03:01:12 Sarah Quevedo: Kneeling by police does nothing, turn in your badge and join the fight

03:01:18 ave: Honor GEORGE FLOYD!

03:01:20 Diane: Great ideas!

03:01:34 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: @Edward Harness If you have 169 complaints that aren't investigated, how can complaints be substantiated?

03:01:49 Mr. Robinson: The police that have been kneeling have been assaulting protestors not an hour after doing so. It's a performative PR stunt.

03:01:55 Alexis Laube-Manigault: the "good cops" need to march with the protesters

03:01:59 Sarah Quevedo: ^YES

03:02:10 Sarah Quevedo: No good cops

03:03:26 Maurreen Skowran: This is a site with research about effective systemic changes: <https://www.joincampaignzero.org/>.

03:03:41 Sarah Quevedo: Yes we are talking about Black Lives not brown not white, as a non Black POC I lift up the BLM movement

03:03:56 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Sean

03:04:01 Sradha Patel: Thank you Sean

03:04:16 Winifred Whiteman-Jennings: So glad you spoke tonight, Sean. Thank you.

03:04:17 mallory hemerlein: Powerful words Sean. Thank you. DC transplant in NM, here.

03:04:34 ave: I want to see physical policy reform that specifically addresses systematic police violence here in albuquerque. No staged PR Photo Shoots

03:04:58 Sarah Quevedo: I agree David

03:05:05 ave: What action will the police department take everyday to do better

03:05:07 Alexis Laube-Manigault: yes David

03:05:19 Rachel Goldman: felt the same way about the vigil

03:05:25 Daniel Albino Lujan: Need more than performative gestures my APD
03:05:39 Sarah Quevedo: Wow
03:06:03 ave: The police were never about accountability and responsibility

03:06:46 Sradha Patel: Thank you David!
03:06:46 Alexis Laube-Manigault: I saw a video of a cop spraying tear gas right into the face of a little white girl at a protest
03:08:21 Edward Harness:@Winifred Whiteman-Jennings the numbers you cite are not accurate

03:14:06 Maureen Skowran: I think nothing is meeting in person these days.
03:14:37 ave: WE LOVE READING
03:15:08 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Lois!

03:16:46 ave: There is one on Saturday morning at 10AM
03:17:46 Sradha Patel: There is no organized protest tonight. Be mindful of who organizes what and please take lead from Black leadership.
03:17:53 Maureen Skowran: There will be a protest Thursday at noon at UNM north campus.
03:18:01 Sarah Quevedo: Yes thank you Sradha
03:18:34 Maureen Skowran: Friday sometime there is supposed to be a march starting from downtown plaza.
03:18:40 Julie Bettencourt: Maureen, who are the organizers and is it tomorrow or next week?

03:19:07 Julie Bettencourt: same with the Friday one
03:19:32 Sarah Quevedo: Black Lives Matter we must follow Black leadership
03:19:35 Maurreen Skowran: These events are this week. Thursday is by White Coats for Black and Indigenous lives.
03:19:39 Adrastos Da Silva: One of the major things that needs to be highlighted is that police shot and tear gassed unarmed members of the press of the Daily Lobo on Friday.
03:19:52 Mr. Robinson: ^^^
03:19:54 Adrastos Da Silva: after they identified themselves
03:19:59 Maurreen Skowran: Native Americans actually get killed by police at higher rates.

03:20:39 ave: So stand with us against police brutality, Black liberation is liberation for all!
03:20:39 Angela Steward: Lois, I am sad to inform you that I opened the link you posted, and YouTube put a disclaimer under it that said the poster of the video is funded in whole or part by the Russian government.
03:20:52 Mr. Robinson: I've seen people in other cities producing "super cuts" of all the police violence happening where they are. Something like that might be useful.
03:21:02 Joan Yazze-Gallegos: Thank you Rodney for your comment and suggestion
03:21:46 Xandi Que:Rodney, there are filmmakers all over the city. We should ask NETFLIX to step up and compile the footage.
03:22:07 Sarah Quevedo: We will not have liberation until Black liberation comes into fruition
03:22:16 Adrastos Da Silva:
03:24:24 Lois Fuller: Angela Steward, I have been to that site several times and never saw that disclaimer. Very interesting.

03:34:17 Esteban Aguilar Jr: Thank you all for sharing your experiences and voicing your concerns today.

There are several ways for the community to get information from APD, as well as to provide this important feedback to the City of Albuquerque and the Albuquerque Police Department. To find APD's policies, go to: <https://www.cabq.gov/police/standard-operating-procedures/standard-operating-procedures-manual>. You can find the policies on First Amendment Assemblies and the Emergency Response Team. You can see what policies will be reviewed by APD at: <https://www.cabq.gov/police/standard-operating-procedures/draft-policies-to-be-reviewed-by-the-office-of-policy-analysis> You can comment on those policies by using the form at: <https://www.cabq.gov/police/standard-operating-procedures>. You can attend Community Policing Councils to ask for information about tactics, policies, and equipment. <https://www.cabq.gov/police/community-policing-council> You can make a complaint to the Civilian Police Oversight Agency. [website]

In additi

03:35:59 Esteban Aguilar Jr: My apologies, I am not sure what happened to the link. You can make a complaint to the Civilian Police Oversight Agency. <https://www.cabq.gov/cpoa>.

In addition, all uses of force by APD should be reported and will be investigated by APD. The United States Department of Justice and the Independent Monitor will have the opportunity to review those uses of force. If you have a complaint about a use of force, please submit it to the Civilian Police Oversight Agency.

04:23:52 Vera Berger: And Mr. Jefferson, we hear you

04:23:54 Sarah Quevedo: Black Lives Matter, George Floyd presente

	I was present during the entire Thursday action. I had been asked by the organisers to help with keeping protesters safe. This involved some complicated traffic control. I was amazed at how cooperative the protesters were. It was completely peaceful. Except for the yahoo that Zoey has already described. The utter overploicing at Mesilla and Central was astonishing. It was pretty clear the cops felt they had to still get in a last hoorah before retreating and that was when they chucked the gas canisters at the protesters. Seriously? How childish. How dangerous. Even after all these years of sitting under a consent decree, why are there still no deescalation experts working during actions like this? I am not talking about CIT/CIU. Deescalation. Officers who can communicate with the community. Not just intimidate protesters in their full riot gear. Riot gear when there was no riot. And then tear gas on a small residential street along with the futuristic overkill extremely expensive helicopter making a racket.	ilsebiel	ilsebiel@icloud.com	Thank you for your participation tonight. 23	The Office of Equity &amp; Inclusion (OEI) was created by Mayor Keller to advocate, educate and amplify issues related to BIPOC communities, as well as engage on the structure of White Supremacy &amp; Patriarchy. The success of OEI (which is mostly BIPOC individuals) is inextricably linked to the success of the mayor. Has the mayor personally attended any of the trainings held by OEI for city employees (of which he is a city employee)? If not, why? Additionally, how does the Human Rights Commission plan to hold Mayor Keller (a white-bodied leader) accountable to "stepping into the work" of examining his white fragility/patriarchy and stop supporting the continued suppression/oppression of BIPOC communities, by excusing the violence of the polic department.	Monique S.	monique@veteransforpeace.org	Thank you for your participation tonight. 	An organizer of the peaceful protests, Clifton White, was arrested clearly for no other reason but retaliation for organizing peaceful protests. APD literally kidnapped him and terrorized his family. His wife also organized the Black Lives Matter and she has been harrassed and put under police surveillance. When I called the Mayor's office to ask that Mr. White be released and his parole restored, I was told the Mayor was aware of the situation but there was nothing he could do. Tim Keller needs to follow the lead of other mayors who vow to protect citizens from police violence. His claim that APD did not use excessive force against peaceful protestors is clearly contradicted by the testimony here tonight. He needs to use his influence to release Mr. White who was arrested under totally false pretences because he was exercising his constitutional rights. The mayor owes us more than his hands off attitude.	Vicki Plevin she/her New Mexico	vicplvn@gmail.com		Thank you for your participation tonight. The privilege that produces our police officers, military personel, and medical providers results in a system that keeps POC and poor white people out of positions of power and worsens discrimination against POC in all areas of life.
