vi. Other updates
1. Albuquerque Business First highlighted my work with OCR in early October.
2. City Council will issue a proclamation for Domestic Violence Awareness month at the Oct. 18th City Council meeting.
3. The new Domestic Violence Coordinator will be starting next week. One of her first tasks will be to determine if the City wants to do a board or commission, and if it will be City run, community run or a combination of both.
4. The new OCR Assistant City Attorney will be starting in November.
5. Ms. Jacobus was recognized at the State Bar Annual meeting for her Pro Bono work. She also presented with Justice Bacon on equity and justice and their presentation was well received.
6. Ms. Jacobus was also recognized by DVRC for her work on the Domestic Violence Task Force.

vii. Request for a special meeting regarding matter 21-004.
1. Ms. Jacobus requested the Board hold a special meeting to discuss matter 21-004, or place it on their next regular agenda. The Board agreed to hear the investigation at the November meeting.

a. Office of Equity & Inclusion (OEI)
i. OEI updates:
1. Dawn Begay the Triable Liaison was invited to give a talk to tribes in Alaska on working with City government.
2. African American Affairs has held several meet and greets with leaders in the black community. These events are very well attended. A server released by the African American Affairs has received 468 responses. Nichole Rogers has also been working with other community members to host a series of block parties. These block parties will be held over the next 3 months every Saturday except during holidays.
3. Immigrant Refugee Affairs (IRA) is providing technical assistance to all city departments with language access. The Mayor signed an executive order requiring all city departments adopt and fund a language access plan. IRA is also working with Afghans who are settling here or passing through.
4. Andrea Calderon, OEI’s Race and Equity Data Analyst was chosen for an international data development program. The program will be over a six-month period. She will be working with Harvard school nine other individuals throughout the world.

5. OEI will have a new public information officer starting in November. They will be working on a marketing campaign. This can be used as an opportunity for the Board to bring awareness to themselves.

ii. Trainings

1. OEI teamed up with the Transgender Resource Center to provide Transgender 101 training to 49 Family & Community Service.

2. OEI staff attended a training on how to make their trainings more accessible to individuals with disabilities. OEI is hoping to train other City departments on the same thing.

iii. City updates

1. City Council has adopted a strong resolution honoring the burial site at 4H Park as a sacred site. City Council also committed to working with Native American community stakeholders on recommendations.

iv. Events

1. OEI held a very well attended Indigenous Peoples Day event.

2. November is Native American Heritage month.

VII. New Board Business

a. The Board discussed how they as members could invite more people from the community to present at Board meetings. The Board can carve out twenty minutes for two to three community members to present what they do.

b. The Board would also like to plan events in the future. Ms. Melendez can assist with funds for food but needs help creating invitations organizing & getting the word out.

c. OCR & OEI could mention the Board during presentations just to bring awareness to the Board and what the Board does.

VIII. Brainstorm on Equity & Inclusion Campaign with OEI

a. The Board can do head shots and short bios just to let the community know who is on the Board. A member can be featured each week to expend the social media posts and awareness.

IX. Board Updates/Announcements

a. The Board discussed the importance of attendance. The Resolution will be discussed at the next meeting. This will include dates and time of next year’s meeting.

X. Adjournment

a. Chair Lawyer adjourned the meeting at 6:15 pm.
