STATEMENT OF FACTS: The applicant, Jennifer Weakland, requests a conditional use to allow proposed massage therapy as a home occupation. The applicant, Jennifer Weakland, testified that she would like to perform massage therapy as a home occupation. Her proposed days and hours of operation are Monday thru Saturday, from 10:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. She will see a maximum of 4 clients per day, one at a time, by appointment only. Ms. Weakland indicated that she has sufficient off-street parking for her patrons and there will be no signage on this property advertising her business. Ms. Weakland testified that she has been licensed by the State of New Mexico as a massage therapist for 10 years. She stated that there will be no retail sales at this location and that only 15% of the residence will be used for this home occupation. She has no employees and testified that this proposed use will not be injurious to the neighborhood, adjacent property, or the community. There is one letter of support noted in the file. The yellow sign was posted. There was no opposition to this request at the hearing, nor is there any opposition noted in the file.

Based on all of the testimony and a review of the entire file, it is determined there is substantial evidence to make the following findings and conclusions:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS: I find that this request complies with Section 14.16.4.2.(C). 1., for the granting of a conditional use upon a finding that the proposed use will not cause injury to the neighborhood, adjacent property or the community, nor will it be damaged by surrounding structures. For reasons stated above, this request is approved.

DECISION: Approved.

To receive this approval, the applicant agrees in writing to return the building permit or occupation tax number.

Successful applicants are reminded that other regulations of the City must be complied with, even after approval of a special exception is secured. This decision does not constitute approval of plans for a building permit. If your application is approved, bring this decision with you when you apply for any related building permit or occupation tax number. Approval of a conditional use or a variance application is void after one year from date of approval if the rights and privileges are granted, thereby have not been executed or utilized.
