Date of Decision: 10-28-11

STATEMENT OF FACTS: The applicant, Michelle Davis, requests a conditional use to allow a proposed accessory living quarters. Ms. Davis testified, at the hearing, that she has owned this property for approximately two years. If approved, the existing garage will be converted to an accessory living quarters in order to give the applicant and her son more living space. She stated that there would be no second kitchen, no separate meters and it will not be used for rental purposes. There are several letters of support from neighbors. The yellow sign was posted. There was no opposition to this request at the hearing, nor is there any opposition noted in the file.

Based on all of the testimony and a review of the entire file, it is determined there is substantial evidence to make the following findings and conclusions:

FINDINGS AND CONCLUSIONS: I find that this request complies with Section 14.16.4.2.(C).1., for the granting of a conditional use upon a finding that the proposed use will not cause injury to the neighborhood, adjacent property or the community, nor will it be damaged by surrounding structures. For reasons stated above, this request is approved.

DECISION: Approved with conditions.

CONDITIONS:

- a. The applicant may not, now or in the future, offer this accessory structure as a rental unit. Occupants may only be family members. No exceptions.
- b. Should the property become marketable, this accessory structure may not be advertised as a potential rental unit.
- c. This accessory structure may only be used as a guesthouse without a second kitchen and without a meter for separate utilities.

- d. This approval will be immediately vacated if the applicant does not comply with these conditions.

The approval is subject to the submitted site plan, as required. Any substantial changes to the site plan, as determined by the Zoning Enforcement Division, shall require the scheduling of an additional Public Hearing.

You will receive notice if any other person files an appeal. If there is no appeal, you can receive building permits any time after the appeal deadline quoted above, provided all conditions imposed at the time of approval have been met. However, the Zoning Hearing Examiner may allow issuance of building permits if the public hearing produces no objection of any kind to the approval of an application. To receive this approval, the applicant agrees in writing to return the building permit or occupation tax number.

Successful applicants are reminded that other regulations of the City must be complied with, even after approval of a special exception is secured. This decision does not constitute approval of plans for a building permit. If your application is approved, bring this decision with you when you apply for any related building permit or occupation tax number. Approval of a conditional use or a variance application is void after one year from date of approval if the rights and privileges are granted, thereby have not been executed or utilized.
