What happens after I submit my form?

- Upon submission of an annual, quarterly, or termination report, the City Clerk’s office will have 30 days to verify form for facial compliance.

- If the City Clerk’s office finds any apparent violations in the report, the registrant will be offered 14 days for voluntary compliance.

- If registrant does not comply with the offer of voluntary compliance, the City Clerk’s office will alert the City Attorney’s office of the apparent violation.
How Do I Register?

Registration lives on the City of Albuquerque’s Campaign Finance Website:

https://campaignfinance.cabq.gov/

To begin, register as a lobbyist in the system:
How Do I Register?

On the registration page, fill out all the required fields.

When you’ve completed the form, click the “Add to List” button.

You will be able to add an Alternate Contact to your profile if you’d like. Once you fill out their information, click “Add to List.”

Once all the contacts have been entered, click “Submit.”
How Do I Register?

Once you’ve submitted your registration in the Campaign Finance System, you will receive an email notification along with a login and password.

The Lobbyist Registration Form, both annual and quarterly, can be downloaded from the City Clerk’s website here: http://www.cabq.gov/clerk/registered-lobbyists

Please fill out the form electronically.

You can then upload the form into your Campaign Finance Home Page under “Document Images.”

If you have any questions about this process, please contact the City Clerk’s Office at cityclerk@cabq.gov
