Albuquerque - Making History 1706-2006

Member Montoya made a motion to consider the challenged votes, either way the CWA would certify as an exclusive representative. Board counsel Leigh Brunner pointed out that the City must allow for a 5 day objection period after the tally of votes. Counsel for the City Victoria Gammill stated that eh Board could certify the election now subject to the 5-day objection period. After further discussion, Chairman Baca suggested a motion to accept the tally. Member Montoya motioned to accept the tally, 18 votes for CWA, and certify CWA as a collective bargaining agent, pending the 5-day wait for objections. Chairman Baca seconded the motion.

VII. ADJOURNMENT.

Chairman Baca adjourned the meeting at 1:30PM.
