PART TWO – “Active Shooters” – just a few years ago these two words were not a part of our every day conversations. Sadly, they now speak of deaths, drills and fear. Schools, malls, churches, and concert halls are finding themselves among the many planning for the person with weapons and intent to kill. Mass school shootings are one of the most horrifying law-enforcement problems today. What causes students, ex-students or even strangers to bring weapons to a school to take multiple innocent young lives? How do we prepare for the worst while hoping for the best? Join us August 17th.
