Guest Speakers: Pete Dinelli is a native of Albuquerque. He has been a licensed New Mexico attorney since 1978 with 27 years of municipal and state government service. Mr. Dinelli has been married to his wife Betty since January 1984, and they have two grown sons, Mark, an attorney in the solo practice of law (The Dinelli Law Firm) specializing in personal injury, and George, an emergency medical technician (EMT).

Dinelli is a 1974 graduate of Eastern New Mexico University with a bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a major in Finance. He is a 1977 graduate of St. Mary's School of Law, San Antonio, Texas.

Pete Dinelli began his legal career as an Assistant Attorney General and then became an Assistant District Attorney assigned to the Violent Crimes Division. Mr. Dinelli's experience includes 15 years in the private practice of law as a trial attorney, including his own firm practicing business law, representing small businesses, corporate clients, and contractors, and doing insurance defense work.

Pete was employed as a Workers' Compensation Judge for seven years with state-wide jurisdiction.

For eight years, Mr. Dinelli was employed with the City of Albuquerque as a Deputy City Attorney and as Chief Public Safety Officer overseeing the city departments of police, fire, 911 emergency call centers, and the city's emergency operations center. In addition, Mr. Dinelli was the founding Director of the City's Safety City Strike for eight years, taking civil court actions against nuisance properties that had become magnets for crime, including violent bars and motels along central. In November 2009, Pete retired from government service.

Pete Dinelli has also been an elected official, having served as an Albuquerque City Councilor for four years, from 1984 to 1989.
