AGENDA

You've read about it in the newspaper and on the news for years now, and may not understand all of the details, so the NWPC will look into the topic; What is an APD Use of Force citation? What constitutes Use of Force, and what happens after the incident? Where does the Civilian Police Oversight agency come in? Are some members of APD leadership correct in stating that the requirements are too stringent and interfere with effective policing?

1. Call to Order
2. Approval of February Minutes

3. Approval of Tonight's Agenda
4. NW Crime Report, Lt. David Saladin

5. Presentation of Topic,
  - a. Commander Richard Evans; Albuquerque Police Department will be on to take us through a hypothetical Use of Force Case from the original incident all the way through the resolution possibilities
  - b. CPOA Interim Executive Director Diane McDermott will speak about the role of the City's CPOA, how they interface with APD during Use of Force cases, and the challenges involved with the Agency's mission.
