- The 125th cadet class will begin soon.
  - The APD chief of police is anticipating seventy seated, and currently, there are forty.

4. Acting Deputy Chief Richard Evans Internal Affairs Force Division

- Investigates level 2 and level 3
- The higher levels of use of force go through preliminary interviews and complete investigations with photographs.
- Identify the policy violations, and fill out the form to request for investigations.
- On average, the investigators are doing eight to twelve cases a week and three officers on call.
- The EFIT goes out on calls with them. They are not a force multiplier and don't conduct their investigations. The EFIT is more of a mentor relationship and shadowing the investigators. They check on the status of the cases weekly for them to complete promptly. They are making sure that the contents are complete and in compliance.

- In the stipulated order, IFAD needs to be staffed at twenty; currently, they got staffed at twenty-six. Which consists of five civilians investigators going through a ninety-day training and go live this week.
- Acting Deputy Commander works with EFIT in collaborating with their administration personal on cases working side by side. If EFIT feels a case will not be completed on time, especially when it involves police misconduct, they take over the investigation. Their goal is to turn in cases in sixty days and get in CASA compliant.
