4. Commander Richard Evans of IAFD

- IAFD investigates level two and three uses of force. There are three detectives on call. Who responds to on-scene investigations as officers use force in the field. They do those investigations to evaluate and analyze those cases ensuring they are in policy, CASA, and the law. Including there are no policy violations which IFAD also investigates.
- On July 16, the EFIT (External Force Investigation Team) began working with IAFD. EFIT members are former detectives and supervisors. They are shadowing and mentoring IAFD detectives throughout the investigation. The team watches the cases step by step to ensure accuracy and promptly moving forward. EFIT does not do its own investigation; however, it can take over an investigation. When they take over a case, they suspect misconduct, or the detective will not meet their timeline. To date, there have been no cases taken over, and its been in IAFD capacity to investigate.

- Weekly updates get sent to DOJ and the monitoring team. Currently in backlog from 2020 to 2021 due to low staffing. Six hundred sixty-six cases are in backlog.
- The mandate by the federal court order there has to be staffing at twenty-five investigators, per the stipulated order brought by EFIT. There are currently ten investigators in training, and out of the twenty-six investigators, five are civilians going through training.
