- 1. Call to order 6:00 PM
- 2. Approval of agenda No quorum
- 3. Approval of minutes No quorum
- 4. Code of conduct
- 5. Albuquerque Police Department Chief of Police Harold Medina Bi-Annual Presentation
 - Crime—Every crime category is down this year. Last year, there were 65 homicides; YTD, there have been 50 homicides. Productivity is up. Felony arrests are up double digits, and felony warrants are being cleared by double digits.
 - Recruiting—There are currently 901 officers, with 35 in training, which would increase to about 935-936. An additional forty starting in about a month would bring them to about 980 officers. APD is funded for 1,000 officers. They have over fifty PSAs.
 - DOJ Dismissed, and significant accomplishments to get in compliance with the DOJ consent decree.
 - Community engagement more public viewing, dashboards for the community. Homicides' clearing rate.

6. NW Crime Prevention Specialist Ron Kemp

- Residential robbery 14
- Auto burglary 21
- Auto theft -20
- These are crimes of opportunity.
- Spike in auto burglary in summer. Officers spoke with neighbors and did a canvas. The cases went to the burglary detectives. One specific detective did the investigation. The detective conducted a thorough investigation, getting video from neighbors, even though they were not connected with the auto burglary. The detective identified a juvenile associated with that group and connected with another juvenile.
- Shift resources high active patrols and field briefings in that area.
- 7. Next meeting is October 1, 2025, at Unser and central
- 8. Meeting adjourned 7:27 PM
