Commander Lowe: We are working on a better process for recommendations submitted from CPCs, it has been an internal issue but we are trying to figure out an easier way. If the CPCs meet every month, they will have a response in their meetings, but it may not be the full response. Lt. Ferris has now been assigned to the Community Outreach department along with other officers. We have now assigned six area designees from compliance.

Q: What is AMICI's?

A: AMICI parties to the CASA.

Lt Ferris: I work under DC Armijo and someone else on our team is Lt. Legandre. What we are focusing right now is connecting with the youth. I will be working with our faith-based alliance to help with attendance in CPC meetings. If you have any suggestion or ideas, please contact me at fsimmons@cabq.gov, also I will be at the Old town substation.

A: Right now, we are working on getting more officers in the department. As far as extending hours, not a lot of places would be available.

Q: When is appropriate to contact someone is someone is being difficult and how can we educate the public more?

A: CIT does training, and seminars online to help educate. If you feel like you are in danger, call the cops or contact Crime Prevention Specialist: Laura Trujillo (ljtrujillo@cabq.gov).
