Negotiations to renew or extend the contract shall be completed three months prior to the contract expiring. Should the contract not be renewed or extended, the IRO may continue to serve in the same capacity until a new IRO is selected and approved by the City Council. If the IRO or the Mayor chooses not to renew or extend the contract, the POC shall be immediately notified. The POC will then immediately begin a candidate search, as described in §9-4-1-7 (B)(1). If for some unforeseen reason there is a period of time during which there is no IRO, the Mayor may appoint a temporary IRO, with the consent and approval of the City Council. A temporary IRO shall only serve in that capacity for a period not to exceed 6 months.

§ 9-4-1-8 CITIZEN COMPLAINT PROCEDURES.

(A) Any person claiming to be aggrieved by actions of the Police may file a written complaint against the department or any of its officers. The POC shall submit rules and regulations governing citizen complaint procedures to the Mayor and City Council for approval, including rules and regulations relative to time limits, notice and other measures to insure impartial review of citizens’ complaints against members of the police department.

(B) The Mayor shall designate civilian city staff to receive written citizen complaints at various locations throughout the city. The Police Department may also receive written complaints. Such complaints shall be filed with the civilian city staff no later than 90 days after the action complained of. The party who receives the complaint shall transmit all citizen complaints for further investigation to the IRO. If a citizen complaint is determined to not merit further investigation, the complainant shall be notified of that determination by certified mail.

(C) After the investigation is completed, the IRO and the Chief, or his designee, shall consider the investigation and all other relevant and material evidence offered by the person investigated. The IRO and Chief may confer and discuss the investigation and findings. The IRO shall then submit his findings and public record letter to the POC for review and approval. The public record letter to the citizen will only be sent after approval by the POC.

(D) If the Chief, or his designee, and the IRO disagree on the IRO’s findings, the POC will receive the complaint to review at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The POC will treat the complaint as a Non-Consent Issue and after conducting a hearing can keep, modify, or change the original findings and/or recommendations of the IRO. If the POC/IRO and Chief do not agree on the findings of any citizen complaint, the Chief Administrative Officer will review the investigation and render a final decision, acting with the same authority and power as described in §9-4-1-9(B).

(E) When the Chief, or his designee, and the IRO agree on the findings of the POC, these findings will be considered final and cannot be changed by the Chief, or his designee, or the IRO at any time without first notifying the POC, the IRO, the complainant, and the individual(s) against whom the complaint was filed, by certified mail. Upon such notification the POC will place the matter on its agenda for a regularly scheduled meeting and decide whether the findings should be changed because (1) of newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been known at the time of the original finding, or (2) the original finding was based on fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct.

(F) The findings of the POC/IRO shall be placed with the Chief’s findings on the Internal Affairs Unit Disciplinary Status Sheet. The form will be filed in the CPC complaint file and the officer's Retention File.

(G) The Chief shall take whatever action is necessary, including disciplinary action, to complete the disposition of the complaint.

Written notice, by certified mail, of such disposition shall be given to the complainant and to the individual against whom the complaint was filed.

§ 9-4-1-9 APPEALS.

(A) A summary and findings of the investigation conducted pursuant to the direction of the IRO shall be forwarded to the complainant and to the POC.
A copy of the IRO’s public record letter shall also be forwarded to the complainant and to the POC. Any person who has filed a citizen complaint and who is dissatisfied with the findings of the IRO may appeal that decision to the POC within ten business days of receipt of the public record letter. The POC may upon appeal modify or change the findings and/or recommendations of the IRO and may make further recommendations to the Chief regarding the findings and/or recommendations and any discipline imposed by the Chief or proposed by the Chief. Within 20 days of receipt of the appellate decision of the POC, the Chief shall notify the POC and the original citizen complainant of his decision in this matter in writing, by certified mail.

(B) If any person who has filed a citizen complaint under §§ 9-4-1-1 to 9-4-1-14 is not satisfied with the final decision of the Chief of Police on any matter relating to his complaint, he may request that the Chief Administrative Officer review the complaint, the findings of the IRO and POC and the action of the Chief of Police by requesting such review in writing within ten business days of receipt of the Chief’s letter pursuant to § 9-4-1-9 (A). Upon completion of his review, the Chief Administrative Officer shall take any action necessary, including overriding the decision of the Chief of Police regarding disciplinary action, to complete the disposition of the complaint.
The Chief Administrative Officer shall notify in writing, by certified mail, the complainant, the individual against whom the complaint was filed, the Chief of Police and the IRO of the results of his review and any action he has taken.

§ 9-4-1-10 REPORTS.

15  problems, policy suggestions, and studies as required by Section 9-4-1-5 of 18  Contingent upon funding, in the first six months of 2005 and at least every 20  Council shall issue a Request for Proposal for an independent consultant to 21  undertake a complete evaluation and analysis of the entire Police Oversight 22  Process, and recommend any necessary changes or amendments that would 23  appropriately improve the process.
