

Susan E. Jones, AICP

Susan Jones currently works for Bernalillo County Public Works and sits on the County Development Review Authority, the staff board responsible for County subdivision approvals. She has a Masters in Regional Planning from Cornell (1984) and a BS from NMSU (1981). She also worked for the City as a planner for 13 years and then for the Bernalillo County Manager's office as a special projects coordinator beginning in 1997. Among the special projects handled were staff support to a charter "exploratory" task force and two Charter Commissions. In addition, she worked at the Legislature as the Committee Secretary to the House Health and Government Affairs Committee in 2007. She also enjoys studying New Mexico history and politics.
