

Vickie Perea

Vickie Perea, a native New Mexican, wife, mother, and grandmother has a varied, life-long history of public service. As an employee/Administrator, she served for twenty-five years in City Government. After her retirement, she served four years as City Councilor, which included being Council President. Her public list of service is extensive. A few of the areas of service include Trinity International University Board of Regents; President of Trinity International University branch in Miami, Florida; Family Life Communication (Family Life Radio) Board of Directors; National Association of Regional Councils of Government representing Region XIII, Board of Directors (Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, Utah and Nevada), serving as Chairperson and as a member in the Development Task Force; National League of Cities in the following committees: Committee on New Localism, Committee on Finance, Administration and Intergovernmental Relation, Committee on Energy, Environment and Natural Resources, Committee on Women in Municipal Government; New Mexico First, Board of Directors and Chairperson of New Mexico First, Regional Trade Town Hall Task Force; Vice-Chairperson of the Unification Charter Commission for City of Albuquerque/Bernalillo County; New Mexico Municipal League, Board of Directors; Hispano Chamber of Commerce Board.