

The Council of the City of Albuquerque

March 17, 2014

WHEREAS, Cyber Hero is a program developed by students from La Cueva High School to demonstrate how students, teachers, and the community can become more aware of cyber-security and the imminent threats cyber-attacks pose; and

WHEREAS, Cyber-attacks are an increasingly large threat to the security of the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, the New Mexico Cyber Security Expo is a two-day educational hands-on workshop developed by students and led by professionals that is designed to engage students in learning cyber-security skills; and

WHEREAS, the New Mexico Cyber Security Expo will also include a day of real-time cyber scenario team challenges that will involve cleaning and securing three separate computer operating systems ranging from Windows to Linux; and

WHEREAS, these systems will be monitored in real time with an integrated student-built scoring system; and

WHEREAS, teams will have six hours to clean and secure as much of these systems as possible.

BE IT PROCLAIMED THAT THE COUNCIL, THE GOVERNING BODY OF THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, HEREBY RECOGNIZES
