Proposed modern streetcar stops should support retail areas and pedestrian orientation through design.

The modern streetcar could be an integral component of high density Transit Oriented Development nodes.

Figure 21: Transit