

General

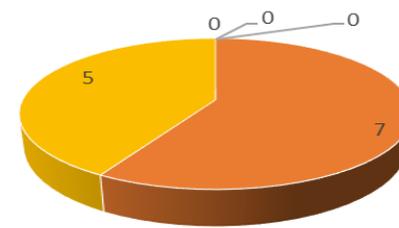

2b. Beyond the types of signs that are currently allowed in Old Town, the following types of signs should also be allowed:
Certifications such as ParkTool

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

General

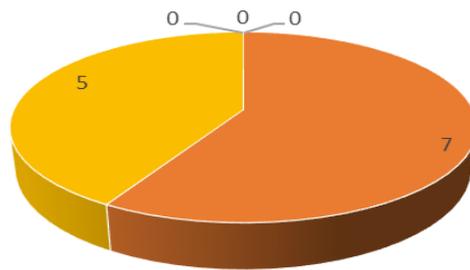

2c. Beyond the types of signs that are currently allowed in Old Town, the following types of signs should also be allowed:
Stickers showing forms of payment accepted

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

General

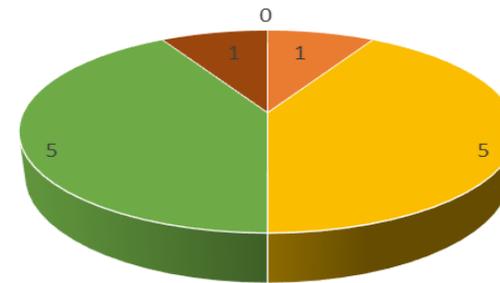

2d. Beyond the types of signs that are currently allowed in Old Town, the following types of signs should also be allowed:
Menus

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

General

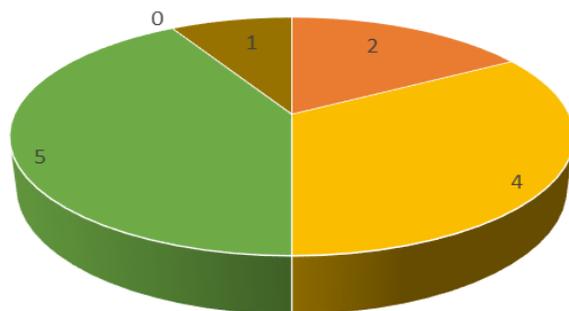

3. Signs that are permitted under the Old Town sign regulations be representative of Old Town.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

General

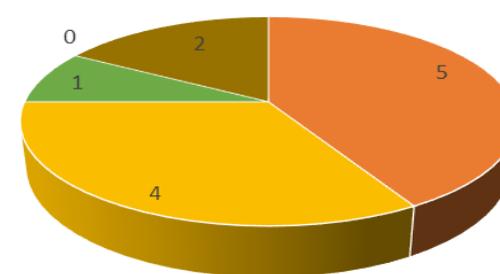

4. Sign regulations for downstairs and upstairs businesses should be separate.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

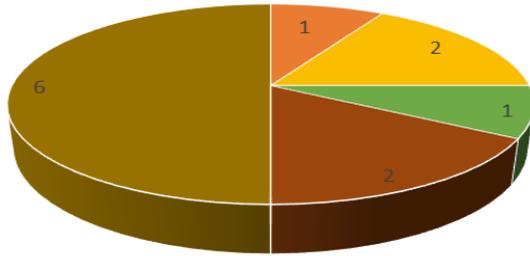

5a. Signs that are lit should be allowed in Old Town.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

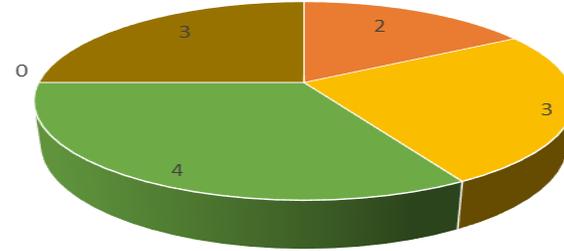

5b. Signs that flash should also be allowed.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

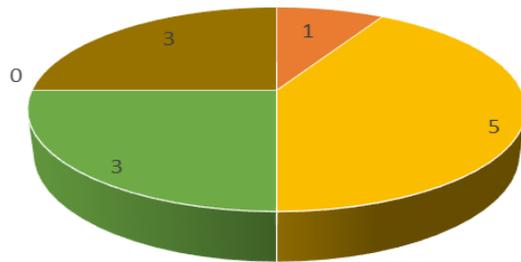

6a. If you agree that signs that are lit and/or flash should be allowed, the following limitations should apply: Max number of 2

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

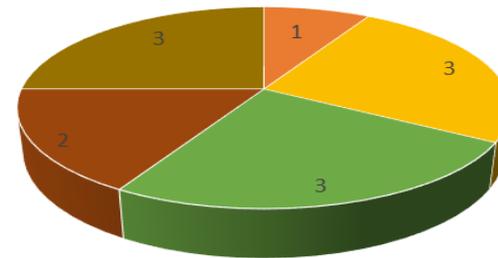

6b. If you agree that signs that are lit and/or flash should be allowed, the following limitations should apply: Max size of standard "Open" Sign (29x19)

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

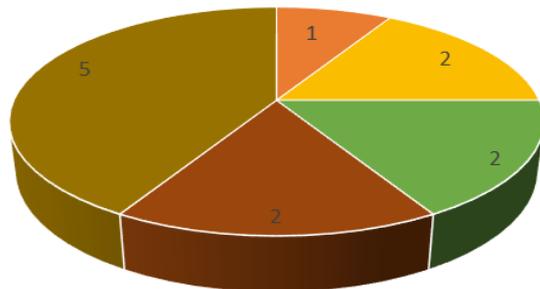

6c. If you agree that signs that are lit and/or flash should be allowed, the following limitations should apply: Consistent with the permissive size of other signs

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

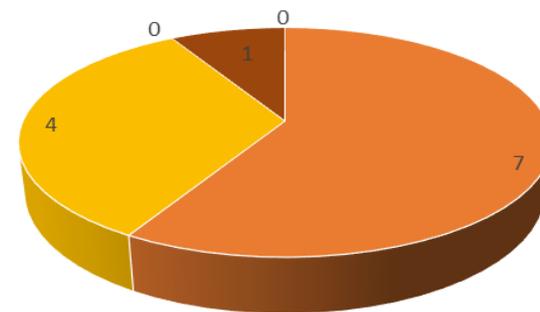

6d. If you agree that signs that are lit and/or flash should be allowed, the following limitations should apply: 1 per 500 square feet of business floor area

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

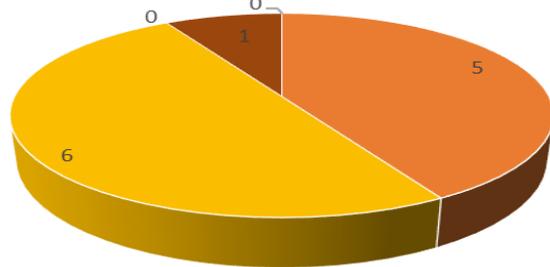

7a. Portable sandwich boards should be allowed in Old Town under the following conditions: Boards are not blocking sidewalks and walkways

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

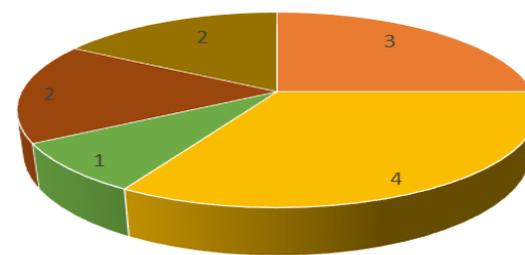

7b. Portable sandwich boards should be allowed in Old Town under the following conditions: Boards are only to be used during business hours

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

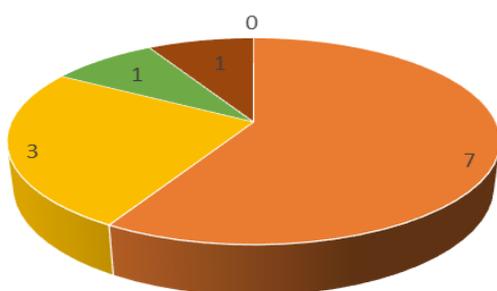

7c. Portable sandwich boards should be allowed in Old Town under the following conditions: Boards are only for businesses that are not on main streets or on the plaza.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

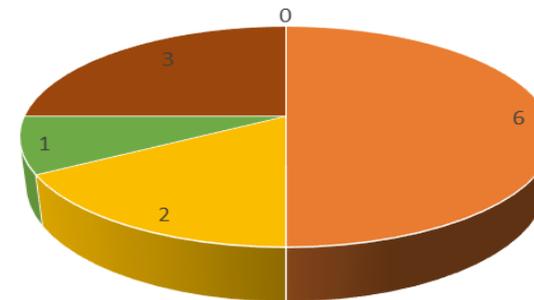

7d. Portable sandwich boards should be allowed in Old Town under the following conditions: Extra boards for patios that have limited views and accessibility

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

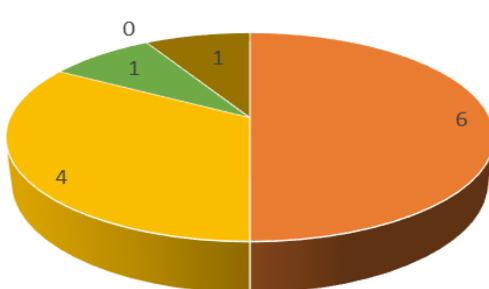

8a. Two portable sandwich boards should be permitted for each business that is: Upstairs

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

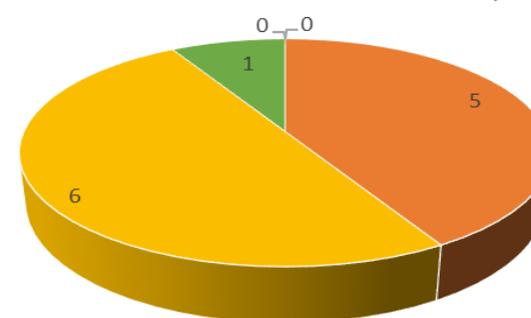

8b. Two portable sandwich boards should be permitted for each business that is: Set more than 5 ft back from the street

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

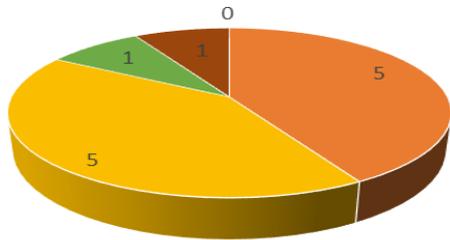

8c. Two portable sandwich boards should be permitted for each business that is: Down an alley

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

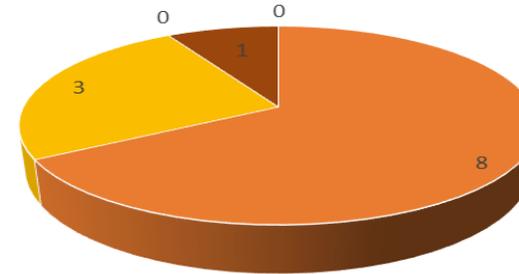

8d. Two portable sandwich boards should be permitted for each business that is: Down a side street

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

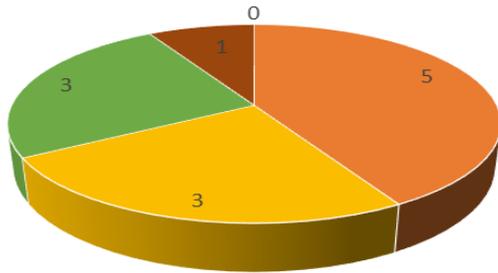

8e. Two portable sandwich boards should be permitted for each business that is: Located within an interior courtyard

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

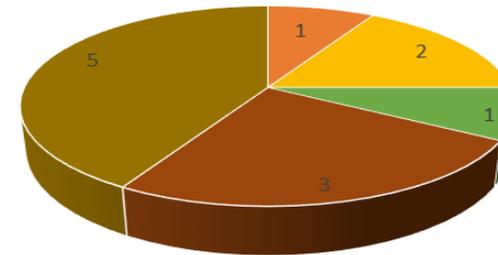

8f. Two portable sandwich boards should be permitted for each business that is: Businesses that have larger parking lots and gates (that are often mistaken to be homes)

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

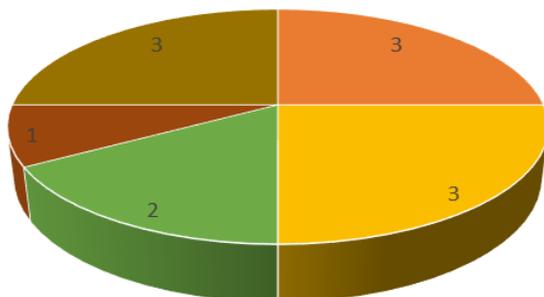

9. Signs should only be made of wood, tile, or metal

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

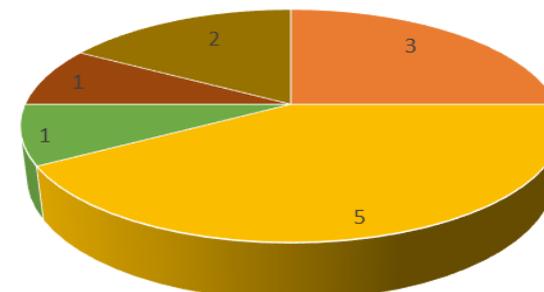

10a. Signs that are made of the following materials should also be allowed: Foam core board

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

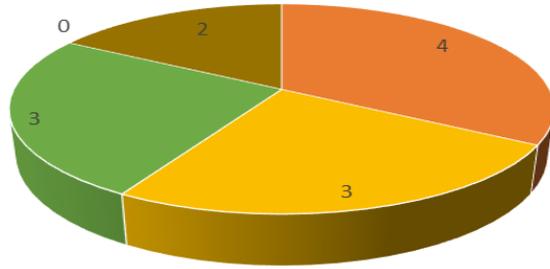

10b. Signs that are made of the following materials should also be allowed: Chalkboards

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

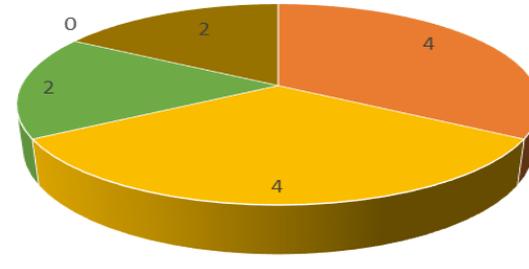

10c. Signs that are made of the following materials should also be allowed: Plastic

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Prohibited Signs

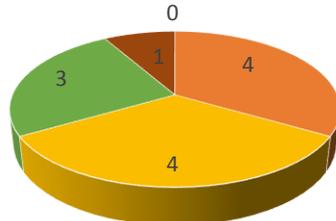

10d. Signs that are made of the following materials should also be allowed: Vinyl

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Off-Premises Signs

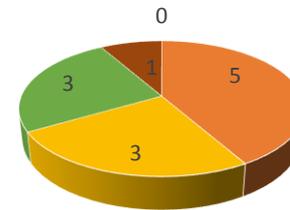

11a. Off-premises signs can be located more than 20 ft from the intersection point of the public right-of-way lines of 2 streets or alleys or the intersection of a public right-of-way and a parking lot with over 20 parking spaces under t

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Off-Premises Signs

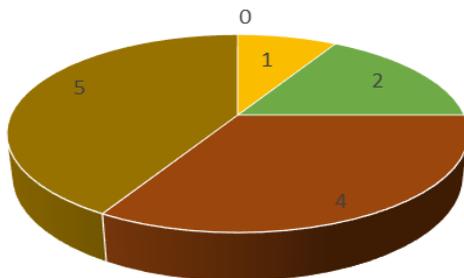

11b. Off-premises signs can be located more than 20 ft from the intersection point of the public right-of-way lines of 2 streets or alleys or the intersection of a public right-of-way and a parking lot with over 20 parking spaces under t

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Off-Premises Signs

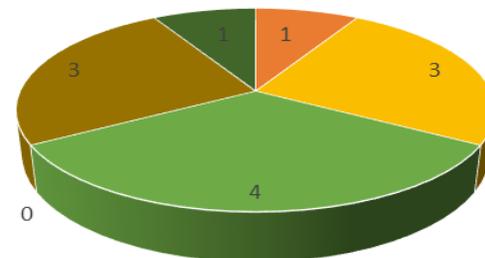

12a. Allowing 1/2 square foot of sign area for off-premises signs relating to any 1 business is sufficient.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Off-Premises Signs

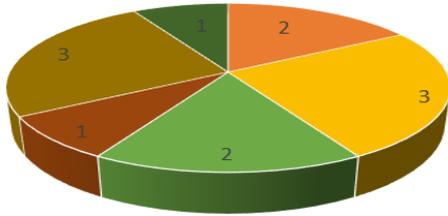

12b. If not, which of the following sizes is sufficient: 2 square feet

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree Blank

Off-Premises Signs

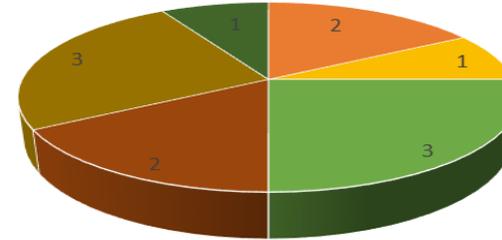

12c. If not, which of the following sizes is sufficient: 3 square feet

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree Blank

Off-Premises Signs

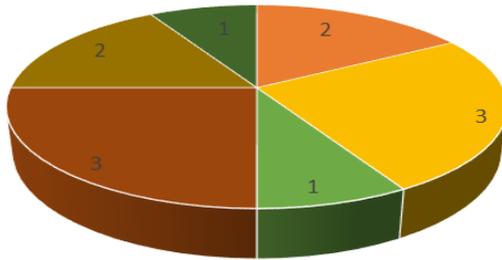

12d. If not, which of the following sizes is sufficient: 10 square feet

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree Blank

Off-Premises Signs

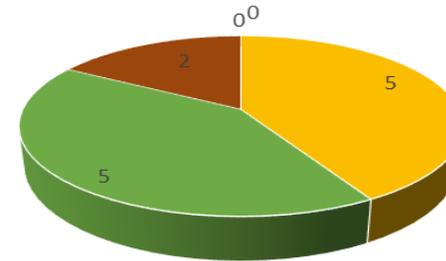

12e. If not, which of the following sizes is sufficient: Larger than 10 square feet (for upstairs businesses)

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree Blank

Off-Premises Signs

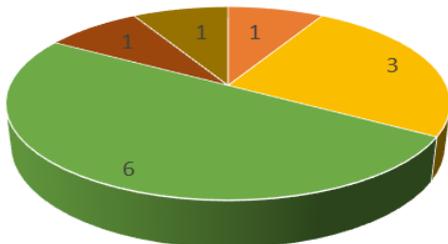

13a. The maximum mounting height of 10 feet is sufficient for off-premises signs.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Off-Premises Signs

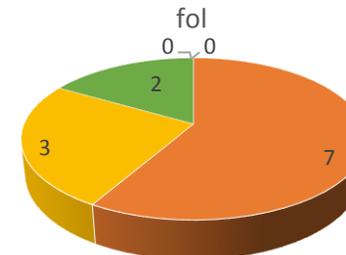

13b. If not, the maximum height should be: Raised no more than 5 feet from the wall height on which it is mounted

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

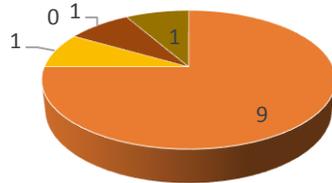

14a. Beyond wall or canopy signs that are attached to a structure fronting on Old Town Plaza or within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be allowed include the

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

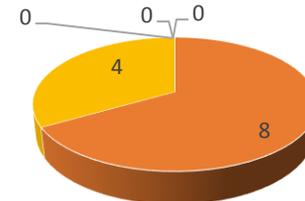

14b. Beyond wall or canopy signs that are attached to a structure fronting on Old Town Plaza or within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be allowed include the fol

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

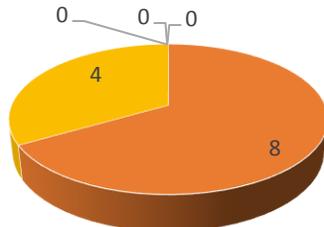

14c. Beyond wall or canopy signs that are attached to a structure fronting on Old Town Plaza or within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be allowed include the fol

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

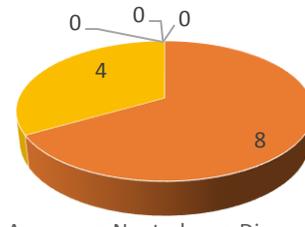

14d. Beyond wall or canopy signs that are attached to a structure fronting on Old Town Plaza or within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be allowed include the fol

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

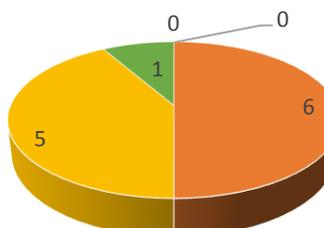

15a. Beyond freestanding and projecting signs being used by businesses that are not fronting on Old Town Plaza and not within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

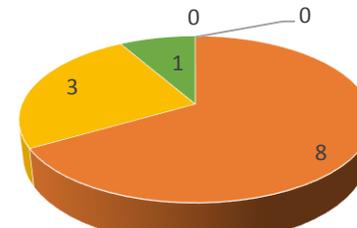

15b. Beyond freestanding and projecting signs being used by businesses that are not fronting on Old Town Plaza and not within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

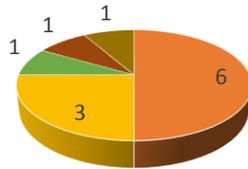

15c. Beyond freestanding and projecting signs being used by businesses that are not fronting on Old Town Plaza and not within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

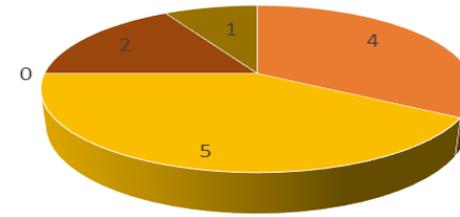

15d. Beyond freestanding and projecting signs being used by businesses that are not fronting on Old Town Plaza and not within a 150 foot radius of the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park, other types of on-premises signs that should be

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

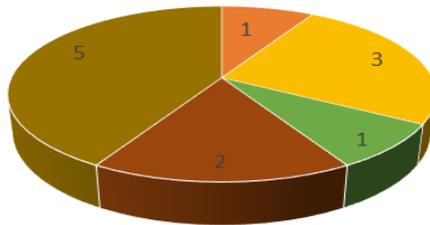

16a. Depending on whether or not an establishment has frontage on 2 or more streets, the appropriate number of signs that should be allowed for any one business should be: 4 signs

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

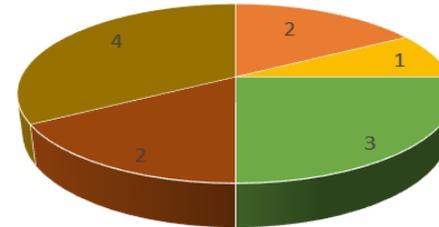

16b. Depending on whether or not an establishment has frontage on 2 or more streets, the appropriate number of signs that should be allowed for any one business should be: 3 signs

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

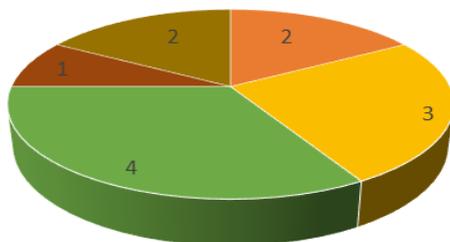

16c. Depending on whether or not an establishment has frontage on 2 or more streets, the appropriate number of signs that should be allowed for any one business should be: 3 per entranceway

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

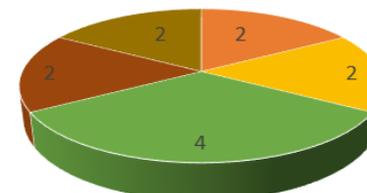

16d. Depending on whether or not an establishment has frontage on 2 or more streets, the appropriate number of signs that should be allowed for any one business should be: 2 with a third added if the business is upstairs

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

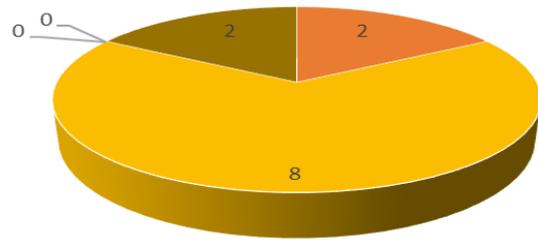

16e. Depending on whether or not an establishment has frontage on 2 or more streets, the appropriate number of signs that should be allowed for any one business should be: Minimum of 2 signs for each business and any premises that exceeds

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

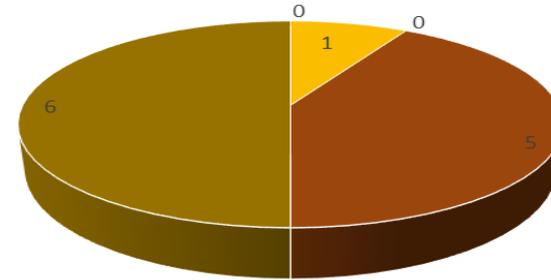

17. Code Enforcement should quantify a composite group of small signs as one sign if they do not collectively amount to larger than the allowed square footage.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

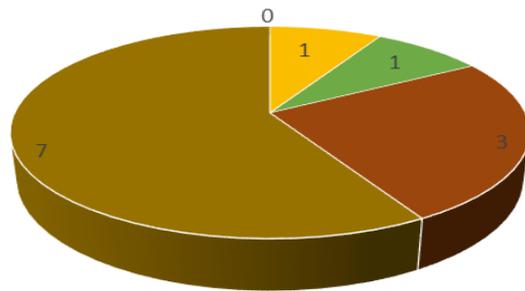

18. Window and door signs should count towards your total number of on-premises signs allowed.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

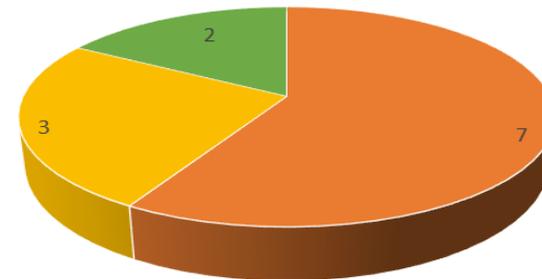

19. Window and door signs should count towards an upstairs business' total number of on-premises signs allowed.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

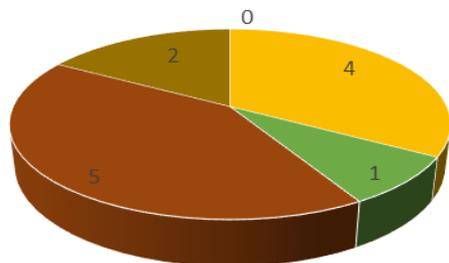

20. 8 square feet of wall sign area should be allowed for on-premises signs (choose one option)

Larger Smaller Larger for upstairs businesses than downstairs businesses

On-Premises Signs

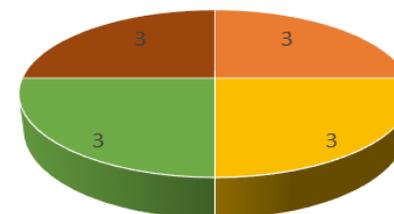

21a. 16 square feet of wall sign area should be allowed for on-premises signs that are on a facade abutting an arterial or collector street or on a front facade that is wholly visible from an arterial street.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

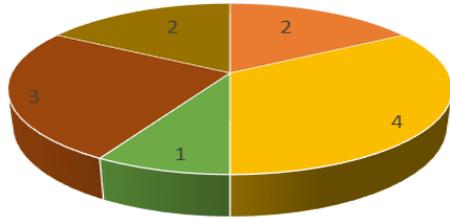

21b. If you disagree, the allowable square footage should be (choose one): Larger, smaller, Larger for upstairs businesses than downstairs businesses

Larger Smaller Larger for upstairs businesses than downstairs businesses Blank

On-Premises Signs

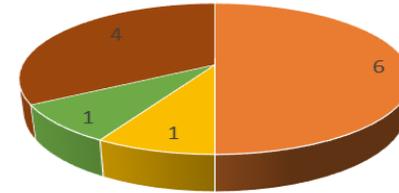

22a. 3 square feet of non-wall sign's area should be allowed on each of 1 or 2 sides.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

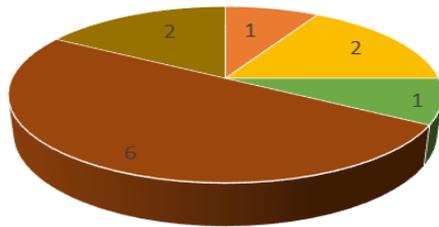

22b. If you disagree, the allowable square footage should be (choose one): Larger, smaller, larger for upstairs businesses than downstairs businesses

Larger Smaller Larger for upstairs businesses than downstairs businesses Blank

On-Premises Signs

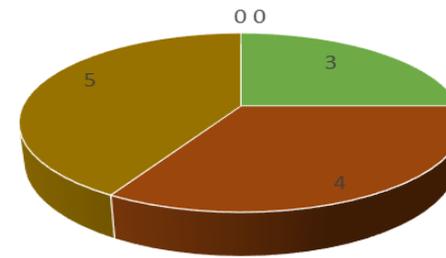

23. Signs should be able to exceed the height of a facade, eaves, or fire wall of a building, whichever is lower.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

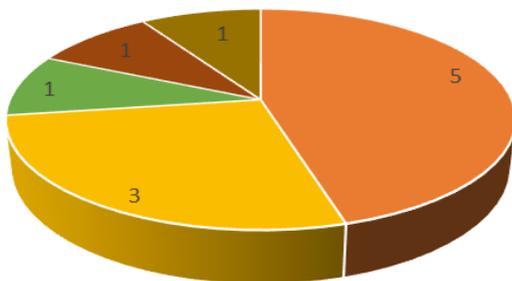

24a. The combined total of 1.5 square feet in area is sufficient for signs that are posted in windows or doors.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

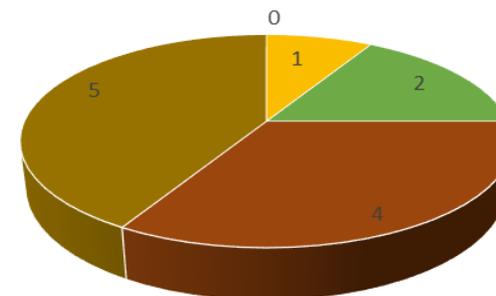

24b. If you do not feel it is sufficient, what size would be (choose one):

Bigger for upstairs and businesses not on main street or plaza
 3 square feet
 4 square feet
 An average "Open Sign"
 Blank

On-Premises Signs

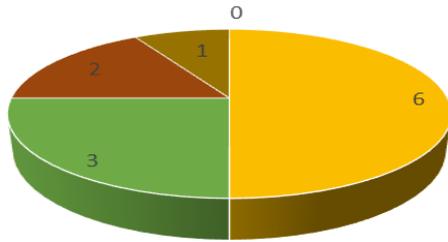

25. 16 square inches for any individual window or sign is sufficient for signs that are posted in windows or doors.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

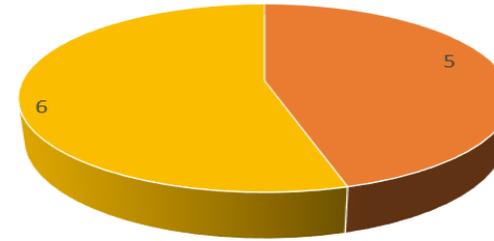

26a. The maximum sign mounting height of 10 feet above grade is sufficient.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

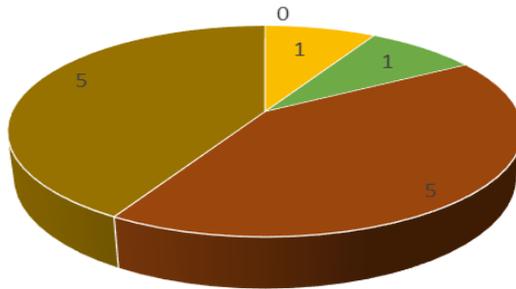

26b. If you do not feel it is sufficient, what height would be (choose one)

Higher depending on the height of the buildings Blanks

On-Premises Signs

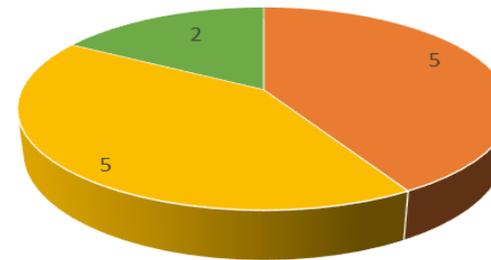

27a. 1/2 square feet of sign area for establishments located on the premises is sufficient.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

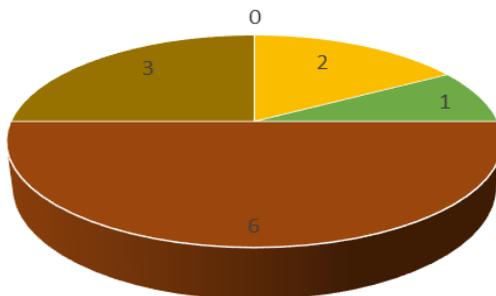

27b. If you do not feel it is sufficient, what sign area would be (choose one):

Larger for upstairs businesses than downstairs businesses 2 square feet Blanks

On-Premises Signs

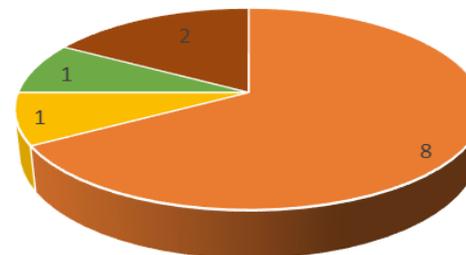

28a. 20 square feet of total sign area is sufficient.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

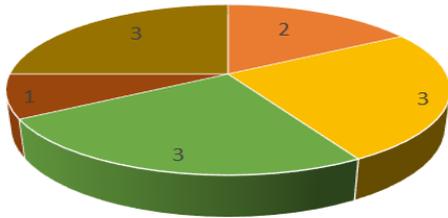

28b. If you do not feel it is sufficient, what total sign area would be (choose one)

Size is not what matters - distance, angle, and lettering
25 square feet
30 square feet
Blanks

On-Premises Signs

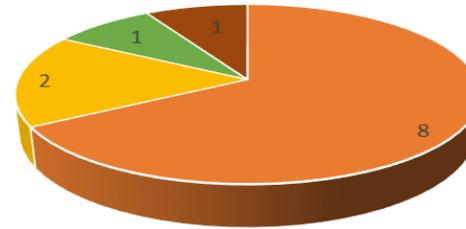

29a. Freestanding signs should be able to be located closer than 150 feet from the exterior boundaries of the Plaza Park.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

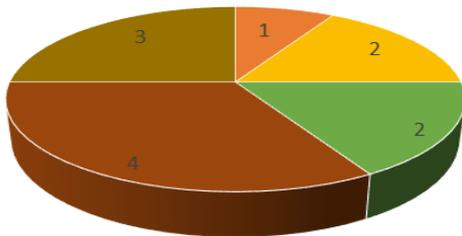

29b. Freestanding signs should be able to be located (choose one):

- In proximity to businesses that are a significant distance from Plaza Park and are tucked away in a side street/patio area
- Anywhere except in the immediate area around the plaza (the sidewalks across the street from the plaza)
- Only on private property

On-Premises Signs

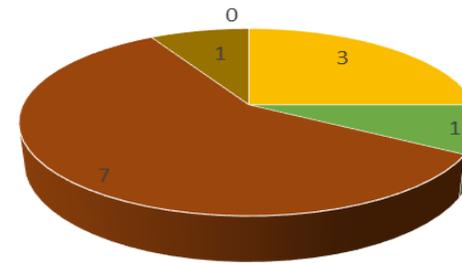

30. Premises with more than 1 entry from the public right-of-way or adjacent property should be required to acquire approval from the Landmarks Commission in order to add an additional sign.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

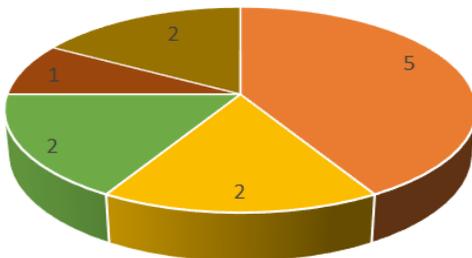

31a. An additional wall sign area of 6 square feet is sufficient for restaurants serving food prepared on premises for consumption on or off premises .

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

On-Premises Signs

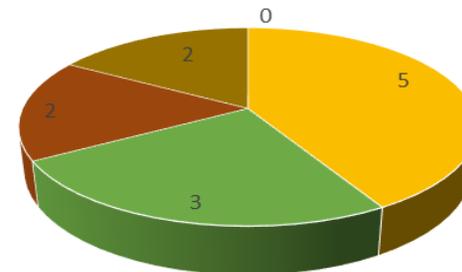

31b. If you disagree, what would be sufficient (choose one):

- More than 6 square feet
- A small freestanding sign to show the menu/specials should be sufficient
- 2 square feet is sufficient for businesses on the plaza but not for those in other parts of Old Town

On-Premises Signs

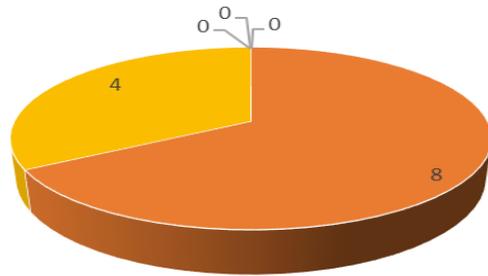

32. Besides the prohibition on electronic signs in HPO-5, other general sign regulations are relevant/important when enforcing upon signs in Old Town.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Directories

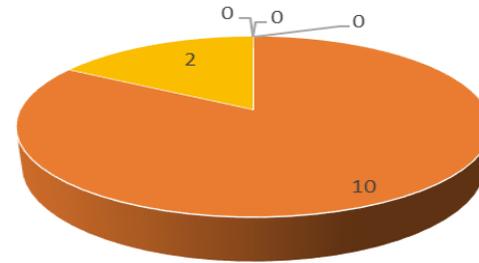

33. The City should work with private businesses to provide more wayfinding signs on public property.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Directories

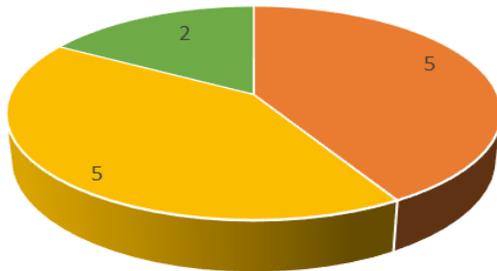

34. Should the City provide a directory on public property (that support all businesses in Old Town).

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Enforcement

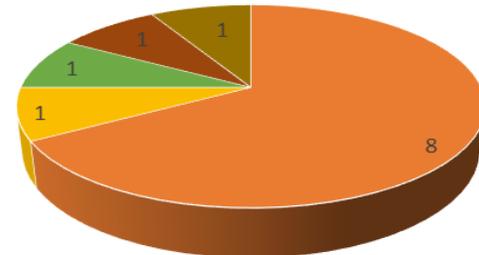

35. Code Enforcement needs to focus on addressing the following challenges for business owners:

Sign enforcement sweeps
Unfair disadvantages to upstairs businesses
Permitting fees

Enforcement

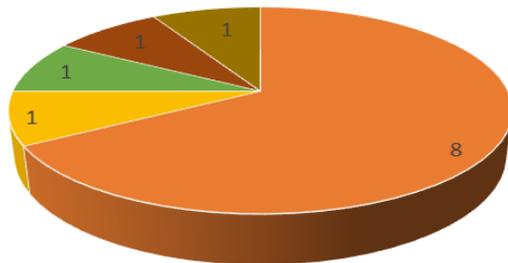

36. Code Enforcement should develop a handout/handbook outlining all of the sign regulations that are particular to Old Town as a result of the virtual task force.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Enforcement

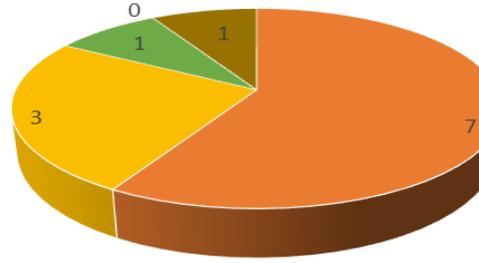

37. This handout/handbook should be given out when a business permit is purchased.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

Enforcement

38. When issuing a citation, Code Enforcement should be more specific about the way in which a particular sign is not in compliance.

Strongly Agree Agree Neutral Disagree Strongly Disagree

