

2013 Police Oversight Complaint and OIS Statistics

The below statistics were provided by the IRO and City Legal. They show the total number of complaint and OIS matters before the Police Oversight Commission in 2013. Under the current ordinance, the POC votes upon all public record letters. As shown below, that process placed 132 complaints before the POC in 2013. Of those 132 complaints, only fourteen involved allegations of use of force. The POC was also presented with a total of eight officer involved shooting investigations in 2013.

Total Complaints Received in 2013:	259
Complaints Received in 2013 that were inactivated:	127
Fully Investigated Complaints Received in 2013:	132
2013 Received Complaints which include an "Excessive Use of Force" Allegation:	14
OIS cases presented to the POC in 2013*:	8

 The IRO office reviewed and reported on one officer-involved shooting which occurred in 2010, two officer-involved shootings which occurred in 2011, and five officer-involved shootings which occurred in 2012.*
