

CPC 230-13 – A citizen complained that two officers who came to her apartment were not helpful. Citizen also complained about an issue which occurred in October 1992. Citizen alleged that she made a police report about the 1992 incident in January 2013, but that the unknown officers did not permit her to file a police report. The cases were inactivated after a preliminary investigation for no violations of Standard Operating Procedures.

CPC 220-13 – A citizen alleged that she called in on the non-emergency line to report that a man was banging on the window of the school where she works, and then later called 911 Dispatch to notify the police that her car alarm was going off. Citizen alleged that it took too long for APD to respond. The case was inactivated for no violations of Standard Operating Procedures.

CPC 237-13 – A citizen alleged that she was unable to retrieve an accident report which involved her vehicle. The case was inactivated after a successful informal resolution.

CPC 239-13 – A citizen alleged that he was involved in a traffic accident and was unable to get a copy of the accident report. The case was inactivated after the citizen requested his complaint be withdrawn.

CPC 240-13 – A citizen alleged that an officer was speeding through a school zone with his lights on but no siren. After a preliminary investigation, the case was inactivated for a successful informal resolution.

CPC 241-13 – A citizen complained about many APD patrol cars having dark tinted windows. The case was inactivated for no violations of Standard Operating Procedures.

CPC 244-13 – A citizen complained about the misconduct of APD in an incident which occurred on November 2, 2012. The case was inactivated for being over the 90 days in which to investigate.

Commissioner Shine moved to approve the consent agenda. Passed

For: 7 – Cameron, Siegel, Barela, Barker, Foster, Peterson, Shine

CPC 139-12 – A citizen alleged that when she called APD to take a report about her intoxicated son the officer's used excessive force, yelled at complainant, failed to get her injured son medical attention and wrote an inaccurate report. The allegation of use of force was exonerated against Officer's S. and C. The allegation of failing to request rescue was unfounded against Officer's S. and C. The allegation of failing to write an accurate report was unfounded against Officer's S. and C. Chair Cameron moved to approve the findings of the IRO. Passed

For: 5 – Cameron, Siegel, Barker, Foster, Peterson
Against: 2 – Barlea, Shine

CPC 189-12 – A citizen alleged that he was not formally arrested but detained and forced to surrender his underwear and a swab of his penis which was a violation of his rights. The allegation of search and seizure was exonerated against Detective M. and Officer P. The allegation of misconduct was exonerated against Detective M. and Officer P. Chair Cameron moved to approve the findings of the IRO. Passed

For: 5 – Cameron, Barker, Foster, Peterson, Shine
Against: 2 – Siegel, Barela

CPC 174-13 – A citizen alleged while at Metropolitan Court, an APD officer racially profiled him, the officer had his hand on his gun, and was unprofessional. The allegation of being biased was unfounded against Officer L. The allegation of misconduct was not sustained against Officer L. The allegation of failing to record the incident was sustained against Officer L. Chair Cameron moved to approve the findings of the IRO. Passed

For: 7 – Cameron, Siegel, Barela, Barker, Foster, Peterson, Shine

CPC 188-13 – A citizen alleged that an APD officer pulled her over, and after the citizen stopped, another APD officer arrived and that the two officers improperly searched her car without providing any explanation. The case was inactivated after a preliminary investigation because no APD officer could be identified. Chair Cameron moved to approve the findings of the IRO. Passed

For: 6 – Cameron, Barela, Barker, Foster, Peterson, Shine
Against: 1 – Siegel

CPC 213-13 – A citizen alleged that she was pulled over by two APD officers in an unsafe neighborhood and after about 30 minutes given two citations. The case was inactivated after a preliminary investigation, and the citizen withdrew her complaint. Chair Cameron moved to approve the findings of the IRO. Passed

For: 7 – Cameron, Siegel, Barela, Barker, Foster, Peterson, Shine

CPC 235-13 – A citizen complained about the bad driving behavior of an APD officer. After a preliminary investigation, the case was inactivated for a successful informal resolution. Chair Cameron moved to approve the findings of the IRO. Passed

For: 7 – Cameron, Siegel, Barela, Barker, Foster, Peterson, Shine