This commendation is on behalf of a citizen who informed me that Officer Kinzer (Valley command) had cited him for criminal trespass for being in a public park after hours. He felt that Officer Kinzer was courteous and professional. When approaching the citizen, even though investigating a criminal violation, Officer Kinzer treated the citizen with the utmost respect, including introducing himself and shaking the gentleman's hand before explaining the reason for his investigation. Rather than treating the individual like a "criminal," Officer Kinzer treated him as a person---as I assume he treats any person he interacts with. This is the type of respectful community policing that should be rewarded and recognized.

The Canine unit was the only unit I had contact with. They had just apprehended a suspect who had fled when pulled over from a traffic stop. When I arrived and began talking to neighbors who had been on the scene watching, it became evident that the officers had all acted with tremendous professionalism. Later, other neighbors reported the same thing. I really appreciate knowing that our officers are on top of things and watching out for the community.

Thank you! Yvonne

The following police staff read Dr. Seuss books to our students at _____ for
"Read Across America" day, in honor of Dr. Seuss's birthday:

- Detective Sarah Alvarez
- Detective Byron Samora
- Detective Marcus Moya
- Detective Amanda Meyer
- Sergeant Cecily Barker

The students loved asking questions about the officers' jobs, and being read to by important figures in our community. The officers were engaging and entertaining, and the students thoroughly enjoyed the experience. We appreciate the time they took out of their workday to serve as examples of community stewards in yet another capacity. We believe that the students value skills like reading even more when adults that they especially respect show that they value it as well. Thank you all for a job well done!

Statement

I am sending this email as a general comment for distribution as you see fit.

In my opinion as a property owner a citizen and long time resident of Albuquerque we are fortunate having great police officers and leadership.

I have tremendous respect for the APD officers.

I was driving on Eubank the other day when the monument for the fallen officer was being dedicated.

A feeling of sadness came over me and also a strong feeling of gratitude for APDs officers and the job that they perform 24/7 on our behalf.

I cant imagine how difficult it must be dealing with all the dynamics of the job.

Especially in todays volatile world.

Once again thank you and be safe.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Just want too recognize the officers again.

Statement

I had an incident of check fraud. The bank said I had to file a police report. I tried to do it online and it didn't qualify. I called 242 cops and a wonderful woman listened to my story and determined it was a federal crime, put me on hold and went to talk to a supervisor. When she returned, she said she would send an officer to my home. While this was a very BIG deal to me, with stolen mail and $3000 of lost savings, I knew it had to be at the very bottom of your priorities. I continued to make the million calls I had to do in order to close and open account, change direct deposits, figure out how to send bills if post office mailboxes are no longer safe, etc.

An officer arrived at 1:30. It was George Garcia, man#2742. He was polite, patient, and very professional. He walked me through the report process, and told me everything I needed to do. While it was completely unnecessary, he waited in his car while I worked on the paperwork. I suppose that was because I was home alone.

Again, I acknowledge that you all have more important things to do, this was more than extremely important to me and very helpful. I wish the rest of the process was going to work so smoothly. I hope that the information I had on the checks will help to find this person.

I have family in law enforcement and I have enormous respect for all you do. Thank you from the bottom of my heart. If you can identify the girl/women on the phone, please also pass along my thanks to her.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Thank the officer and dispatcher that helped me.

Statement

While at work on 4/17/16 at _____ the window of my car on the drivers side was broken out, and thieves attempted to steal my car. I was lucky, they were unable to get it started. After _____ Security looked over the scene they advised me to call APD to report as an attempted car theft - maybe APD could take fingerprints. The officers that responded were incredibly prompt, very polite, sympathetic, kind and helpful. Just want them thanked and recognized. Thank you.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

There are lots of us in the city who truly appreciate the men and women of The Albuquerque Police Department and recognize what an important and dangerous job they have. Please thank these officers for the work they do to keep the rest of us safe.
