Statement

I want to commend those police officers who participated in clearing traffic for the passage of the funeral caravan for retired FBI Agent Paul D. Sjodal on 31 Dec 16. The planning and execution of the route, checkpoints, etc. was outstanding and the officers themselves did their job magnificently. The route from Mortuary to Grave site was cleared as if a potentate was being transported. I believe I speak for all mourners concerned that those police officers involved are to be commended. Their actions reflect great credit upon themselves and the Albuquerque, New Mexico, Police Department!

Additionally, I want to thank the Officers for their service to the community. It has been my privilege to meet several and I have always been impressed with their positive attitudes. I served in three wars and in war there is always action and lull; however, on a day to day basis, the job of a police Officer is always and ever extremely dangerous. May you all have a Happy, Healthy and Safe New Year!

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Commendation for the Officers concerned!

Officer Bellgardt responded to my call regarding an inappropriate text message sent to a work colleague that I presume was sent by an ex-fiance that I have an active Order of Protection against. Even though he knew he could not do much more than file a report because the burden of proof was not there, he took his time talking to myself and my colleague, and was very comforting and reassuring. Officer Bellgardt is obviously very good with victims of domestic violence, and his patience and professionalism were supreme.

JWD 21-17

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Please commend Officer Bellgardt for his response. APD is lucky to have him on the force, and the community in Albuquerque should feel good that such great men and women wear their badges every day.

Dear Chief Eden

I would like to take a moment and offer a thank you and commendation to PSA Arruti. On 12/31/16 my daughter was involved in a crash (Report # ; at the corner of Wyoming and Commanche by a driver who ran a red light. I arrived on the scene approximately five minutes after the incident where I found PSA Arruti just beginning his investigation. Due to the large number of un-insured drivers in Albuquerque I was insistent that PSA Arruti verify the other parties insurance status. I fully admit and apologize as I didn't ask I demanded. PSA Arruti told me he was beginning his investigation and would contact me later. I then moved over to my daughter and wrecked truck where OFC J.Grady had arrived. Officer Grady spoke with myself and daughter as well as going across the street to view security footage from the 7-11 which showed the incident on video. PSA Arruit made his way to our side of the scene approximately 150 yds away to collect my daughter's info as well as registration and insurance info. When I asked if the other party was insured he relayed they had stated they were but couldn't produce proof. To say this elevated my blood pressure is an understatement but PSA Arruti remained calm and professional and continued on with his duties. Officer Grady was also present and stepped in to diffuse the situation to avoid a more negative outcome to the situation than what we were already in. Upon picking up the Crash Report on the 9th of January I was pleasantly surprised with the effort PSA Arruti had put into completing the report and my insurance agent also commented that this was one of the most complete and through reports they had seen.

I would like to take this commend PSA Arruti as well as OFC J.Grady for their actions on this day and the professionalism they displayed when faced with a difficult situation. I hope you will take the opportunity to add your thanks to mine and recognize these officers.

Sincerely

Commendation for
PSA Damian Arruti

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Statement

My car was broken into on Saturday 12/18/16. Officer Elisa Valdez handled that complaint and she was great but I really want to commend Officer Ryan Holets. He called me on Christmas Eve to let me know that some of the items stolen from the car (almost all of the items were Christmas presents for my mother which I had been planning to mail that day) had been retrieved. He met me that day to give me the gifts back and talked for a while. He was so intelligent and warm and I really felt I got to know a police officer as a person rather than a symbol. My mom's birthday is 1/13 so I sent the gifts to her for her birthday.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Please pass on my commendation to Officer Holets

My children and I were at the Dion's on Paseo del Norte , Friday the 13th, where Officer Charles was working an over time shift. We sat in the booth next to him and my 3 year old daughter, Elektra, started asking me questions about police officer's. She being an outgoing little girl struck up her own conversation with Charles. I really appreciated his willingness to talk to my kids and to me. He was really friendly, kind and made us feel safe. It helped my kids realize that police officers are regular people and that they have a special job to help protect all of us. He shook our hands, gave a warm smile and wished us well.

Please let Officer Charles to keep up the excellent work and that his kindness was noticed and appreciated!

Please commend dispatcher Theresa for her kindness and understanding when I called to get assistance when my sister and I found my mother dead on her bedroom floor. This situation, after all, is not an everyday experience for me. Theresa asked that I stay on the line with her until the police officers arrived. I mentioned to her that I needed to contact my son, an APD Officer, on duty in the SE are of the city. She immediately contacted his sergeant and had him call me. His sergeant graciously relieved him of duty and allowed him to come home to assist me. Theresa was patient, kind and sympathetic and it was a blessing to have a calming voice on the other end of the line. I expect the dispatchers don't always get the recognition they deserve. I imagine that the job is grueling and, at time, heartbreaking, as much as it is for the police officers. Please thank them all for me, and especially Theresa. I am also grateful to all the officers that were at my mother's house for a good 4 hours to help my sister and I through the process. May God bless and protect them all.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

Recognition for Teresa and the Officers that were called for service at my mother's house.

I would like to personally thank Officer Jonathan Mares for all of his assistance in locating a missing family member last week. Officer Mares was extremely professional and empathetic during a very difficult time. Fortunately the outcome was a good one in that our family member was located alive but during the ordeal, Officer Mares took our issue very seriously and made us feel like he was totally focused on us as we spoke to him even though I'm sure he had a million other things going on that day! His overall demeanor was outstanding - please pass along our thanks for all of his help!

It is important to provide as much information as possible describing the incident in full detail including:

If names are not known, please include a detailed description of the officer(s) involved.

Friday, 12/30/16 between 1-3:30 pm on the 6th floor of the parking garage next to Century 14, my car was almost stolen. The hood was up, passenger's back window broken, ignition cover & ignition ruined, garage door opener broken, glove compartment ransacked. They did not take my papers. They left 2 tools in passenger seat so guess they were interrupted.

Officer Eric Smith # 3920, was our assigned officer. He was calm, gentle, friendly, professional, & extremely helpful. He allowed us to sit in the back of his car as it was cold & dark. The crime unit Brian, was efficient, the tow driver Sierra, was amazing. A tow truck can't go in a stored garage. He was able to jiggle my ignition to where the steering wheel would not lock up, put the car in neutral, & coast down 6th floor to 1st street where he gave us a ride home. Officer Smith stayed with us til almost 8 pm. My friend & I were grateful Officer Smith come to our rescue. He is an asset to APD and should be honored.

What outcome are you seeking?

A thank you recommendation for Officer Eric Smith #3920
