Re: Officer Matthew Reeder

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am writing to express my gratitude to Officer Reeder for his professional handling of an automobile accident in which I was involved on August 8th. I was struck by an automobile that ran a red light.

When Officer Reeder arrived, he was able to guide me through the process with tact and skill. His help while waiting for the ambulance was much appreciated.

The City of Albuquerque and the Albuquerque Police Department should be very proud of this officer.

Sincerely,

From: webmaster=cabq.gov@mailgun.org on behalf of webmaster@cabq.gov

Statement

I would like to commend APD Officers C. Martinez and Trujillo who responded to a call at the parking lot of the Whole Hog BBQ on the evening of Friday, September 16, 2016. The call the officers responded to involved several young girls (including my 17-year-old daughter) who had been customers at the Sonic Drive-In located immediately adjacent to the Whole Hog BBQ parking lot who had their cars "booted" by an employee of a fly-by-night, wholly unprofessional company calling themselves "Rock Solid Parking Enforcement" who list a business address of P.O. Box 8100, Albuquerque, 87198.

There were a total of seven young girls - in five separate vehicles - who had gone to the Sonic Drive-In (arriving shortly before 10pm that evening) after attending homecoming events at their high school. Due to the parking spaces immediately surrounding the Sonic being full, the girls had parked their vehicles in the parking area closest to the Sonic and had walked up to the outside ordering area to purchase drinks and ice cream. During the approximately 30 minutes the girls were at the restaurant ordering and then consuming their treats, an employee from "Rock Solid" surreptitiously affixed "boots" to the wheels of each of their vehicles. When the girls went to their vehicles to leave, at just after 10pm, they discovered the boot devices on their vehicles and were confronted by this employee who informed them he was an "officer" and that they could not leave without paying him $75 each, in CASH. As you can imagine, the girls were shocked and terrified. Not the least of their concerns was that this purported "officer" was not in any type of uniform (not even so much as a shirt with a logo) or had any type of identification. His vehicle was likewise completely unmarked and he was unable to provide a business card or any other written indication of any authority to have seized their vehicles and threatened them. The girls immediately began calling their parents for advice and assistance (including me) and at least one of each of the girls' parents drove to the scene. As I live on the northern end of Rio Rancho, I did not arrive at the parking lot until nearly 11pm. The best advice I had given my daughter that evening - after she first called to explain what was going on at the parking lot - was to call the APD and request officers be sent to the scene.

Two APD units arrived at the parking lot just as I was pulling in. I was able to speak with both officers (later determined to be Officer C. Martinez and Officer Trujillo) and both were completely professional in both demeanor and appearance. The officers did a very good job of politely separating the parties (by now totaling approximately a dozen girls and their parents and nearly the same number of employees of this "Rock Solid Parking Enforcement" including a person claiming to be a supervisor, his wife, a couple of very young kids and drivers of two different unlicensed towing vehicles.) The officers went to work sorting out the details of what had happened as well as inspecting the scene. Officer C. Martinez began discussions with the "company" as to whether there might be an amicable resolution of the matter and kept the parents of the girls calmed down. Ultimately, Officer Martinez determined from the signage that was present at the scene that it appeared the parking area where the girls' vehicles had been located was within a portion of the parking lot that the signage indicated was open to customers for the Sonic Drive-In. After Officer Martinez repeatedly talked to the "owner" of the parking company by telephone, the decision was ultimately made to remove the boots from the girls vehicles and allow everyone to leave without paying any fees. This was accomplished due to both officers taking the time to really inspect the scene, to read the signage carefully and make reasonable determinations about what the "officer" from this parking outfit had done.

Both Officer Martinez and Officer Trujillo handled themselves like professionals, and were able to resolve this matter in a fair and equitable manner. They deserve to be commended for doing their jobs well.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

To express my appreciation to Officer C. Martinez and Officer Trujillo for a job well done.

Statement

My stolen truck was recovered this morning. It had been missing for almost two weeks. I just wanted to thank Officer Rubio-Gonzalez and Officer Hanes. Both officers were incredibly helpful, professional and sympathetic to the circumstances I was dealing with. Officer Rubio-Gonzales responded to my apartment at 6am and took the time to be thorough with his report and questions and made sure he answered any questions I had. Officer Hanes waited with my truck this morning for nearly 3 hours. He was enjoyable to talk with and share stories with and I really appreciated his attitude and professionalism, knowing full well that I was dealing with a less than ideal situation.

I just wanted to make sure I thanked these men and made it known that I had an extremely positive and enjoyable encounter with both of these officers. I know the scrutiny and microscope everyone is under right now and the issues in our country regarding law enforcement, so I just wanted to thank you all, especially these two men, for your service and share my appreciation for the job you do.

What Outcome are you Seeking?

I hope these two officers are told that they make a positive impact on our community and are thanked and appreciated.

I was pulled over trying to get my irrationally sobbing girlfriend home when the officer pulled me over. ~~He~~ He kindly informed me that my license status was revoked which I didn't know yet. The officer treated me like a person not a criminal and was very understanding of my situation. I feel like he had the demeanor and fair judgement that should be taught to and ^{typical} used by all humans to other humans.

What outcome are you seeking?

I want him to know he was awesome. And the way he treated me and the scenario should be the standard Goldstar

The information provided in this statement is true and factual to the best of my knowledge and will become public record once filed.

I understand I may be required to appear in the Civilian Police Oversight Agency office for an interview or to provide other investigative assistance, as necessary.
