7. APD Forward Coalition ACLU: Elaine Maestas Police Accountability Strategist
 - Emphasize importance we should never forget of why we are here with because of the CASA. CASA came in after tragic loss of family members of citizens of Albuquerque. Definition of Homicide deliberate and unlawful killing of one person by another. Letter to the court asked what DOJ what they are going to do with the deliberating undermining of the reform efforts and APOA's being a intervener with the process. DOJ to move forward with sanctions against the APOA. Contrary to the APOA claims APD forward believe the reform efforts under the case will enhance APD ability to protect the people of Albuquerque from crime. If APD officers are not professional or committed enough to conduct proper investigations on use of force, chances are they are just as careless and incompetent when it comes to investigation of crimes, and reluctance to hold officers accountable for use of force stretches of use of policies.

8. Community Coalitions: Alfred Mathewson Represents the community of Coalition

- Group of organizations and activist that came together to participate in the process.
- When the city was negotiating the consent decree, CASA with DOJ, Coalition of activities included members of APD forward, and Community coalition and others Pressured DOJ to negotiate to investigate and when DOJ did investigate and negotiating with the city, a question how you get community input in the process, where he got involved to educate the community about places for community input into the reform process.

- How is use of force defined by APD?
- Are APD officers trained to hold the McClendon settlement accountable for the reason they're unable to make misdemeanor arrests?
- Should we be assessing police conduct and culture without also considering the role of the courts in law enforcement and the fact that there are many more laws on the books than can be enforced leading to a lot of discretion by police, district attorneys, etc.?

- IS a specific written document or plan that says here's the strategy to move from current culture to the culture describing tonight.
