1.4 Use of Meeting Spaces

The Museum is a public institution carrying out educational and aesthetic programs in the fields of art and history. The building contains designated spaces which may be used for programs and meetings by organized groups on a space available basis. (3/22/94)

Designated spaces and Availability for Scheduling

The spaces normally designated for non-Museum meetings and programs are a special events room, a small auditorium and two inter-acting classrooms. The classrooms are so arranged that they can be combined into one room. Scheduling for their use during weekday work hours will be limited. Their principal availability will be after public hours. Audio-visual equipment is not provided free of charge by the Museum; however, a projection wall is available in the auditorium and the special events room. In addition, the entire Museum and/or the amphitheater and/or the enclosed sculpture garden may be rented. (1/7/08)

- e) A limit of 12 functions per year will be observed for any one organization. No space shall be scheduled prior to nine months before any event.
- f) Any merchandise for sale to the public must be sold by arrangement with the Museum store. Such arrangements must be made in advance with the store managers and the Museum director, or their designees. (10/12/04)
- g) The participating group is required to observe posted regulations concerning smoking, eating, drinking and clean-up of meeting spaces.

All insurance must name the City of Albuquerque as additional insured. (10/12/04)

The Albuquerque Museum of Art and History has a New Mexico Liquor License which is leased to Slate at the Museum, the operator of the café inside the Museum. This allows Slate at the Museum to provide alcohol for all catered events that are held at the Albuquerque Museum of Art and History and in the café at the Museum. If you would like to offer alcohol beverages at your event, you will need to contract beverage service through Slate at the Museum.

Slate at the Museum provides certified bartenders for all events. All our bartenders have been issued with a New Mexico Alcohol & Gaming Division certificate. Liquor Laws and Policies require that all persons consuming alcoholic beverages on the event premises must be 21 years of age or over. Slate Street Cafe reserves the right to terminate liquor service at a function if minors attending consume, or intend to consume alcoholic beverages, or persons of legal age are intoxicated. The serving bartender reserves the right to refuse service to any guest if he or she feels they are intoxicated or unfit to consume alcohol. The New Mexico State Alcohol & Gaming Division regulates the sales and service of alcoholic beverages. Slate Street Café, as a licensee, is responsible for the administration of these regulations and therefore, alcoholic beverages cannot be brought to the event from outside sources nor may any alcoholic beverage leave the licensed premises during an event.

Slate at the Museum is also the preferred vendor for all catered food service at the Albuquerque Museum of Art and History. They currently operate the café in the Museum which makes them best suited to offer a full selection of hot and cold food for all events.
