bar graphs for the charts showing appropriations by goal; including definitions for descriptors like "affordable housing", and making each indicator clickable and comparable over time. Andrea shared sites from other cities as examples of making the dashboard more visually appealing including

<https://equity.nyc.gov/>, <https://csctulsa.org/tulsaei/>, and <https://chatt2.org/data/>

The Commission would like to do a UX/UI review and provide feedback to Jesse as the product owner.

Next steps and closing at 1:00 pm:

The FY24 budget book will be shared with the Commission when it is complete.

The Commission would like to better align the one-year objectives with the indicators before the next budget process.
