4. Discussion of Current State of the IPC

Results for America (RFA) facilitated a discussion assessing the current state of the Indicators Progress Commission (IPC), including strengths, challenges, and opportunities for improvement.

Key discussion points included:

- IPC's unique mandate for objective, nonpartisan, data-driven community progress monitoring
- Strength and expertise of commission membership
- Need for clearer governance, roles, timelines, and operational structure
- Challenges related to meeting cadence, staffing gaps, and report development
- Interest in asynchronous collaboration tools and potential consultant support for reporting
- Desire for improved visibility, usability, and rigor of the Indicators Progress Report

5. Public Comment

No public comment was received.

6. Next Steps and Action Items

- Results for America will synthesize feedback and draft proposed ordinance language for IPC consideration.
- IPC members will continue discussions on governance structure, reporting format, and operational improvements.
- Staff will coordinate with legal counsel regarding Open Meetings Act compliance and asynchronous work options.

7. Adjournment

With no further business, the meeting was adjourned.
