THE NUMBERS

Interns hired: 121

Internship sites: 58

Total hours worked: 18,851

Total wages: $222,972.12

HIGHLIGHTS & ACCOMPLISHMENTS

NEW INTERNSHIP SITES

JMP diversified interns' work experiences this summer by adding multiple new sites, including the ABQ Museum, Katharsis Media, the Mayor's Office of Civic Engagement, and Council Services at City Hall.

ZOOM CLASSES

The JMP Team held zoom classes on Problem Solving, Resume Writing, Time Management and Interview Skills. We look forward to expanding this series next summer!

INTERN AND SUPERVISOR TESTIMONIALS

"It helped...because we were able to hand out food and hygiene supplies to those in need and put smiles on everyone's faces...I would recommend JMP to anyone who wants to get a pretty good job experience and a small boost into the future." – Alamosa Health and Social Services Intern

"I loved working with all of our JMP museum students and will miss them dearly!" – ABQ Museum Supervisor

"This was our first time hosting, and it was so wonderful to have Jo. She was amazing, and we really enjoyed having her." – Civic Engagement Supervisor

"This is a wonderful program that allows interns the freedom to grow in the workplace, develop new skills, yet also have patient and caring mentors to guide them in their journey. Please consider this program a priority as it really assists the youth in bridging the gap between secondary education and the workplace." – RGHS Agriculture/Nutrition Supervisor

"...my managers were very friendly and made the experience enjoyable." – South Valley Library Intern
