

THE KELLER ADMINISTRATION

Progress Snapshot 2025

Our breakthroughs to build a safer city where everyone has opportunities to thrive.

We're pushing forward every day to make Albuquerque safer, stronger, and more inclusive. The work isn't always easy—but we don't back down from tough challenges. From tackling crime and helping people off the streets to investing in jobs, housing, and cleaner neighborhoods, we're taking action where it counts. This progress report offers a snapshot of what we've built together—and the momentum we're carrying into the future. Albuquerque is a city that shows up, steps up, and looks out for one another. That's how we move forward—together.
