Committee Reports/ Updates

Staff Reports

• DMD Engineering

Buena Vista has been proposed as a bike route and a bike boulevard (per Molly from CNM). DMD will work with APS charter school to determine bus traffic and volumes. REI will provide Balloon Fiesta parking for those taking the North Diversion Channel Trail on the first and second weekends in October. Parks and Recreation is handling. REI is supportive. Directional signage won't be ready in time. Dan asked if the City can put out press release about avoiding El Pueblo and recommending the best routes to the event. Ed, Rose, and Dan will get together to put together map and notice to send out

- APD absent
- Parks and Recreation absent
- Council Services absent
- Planning

Metropolitan Redevelopment agency has a project called the Rail Trail from Central Lomas (and to Sawmill in future) with rail crossing at Marquette. The total cost is $4 million; federally funded in the TIP for $1 million. Terra Reed finalized Vision Zero web page: cabq.gov/vision zero; She is preparing a Vision Zero Action Plan so Albuquerque can become a Vision Zero city. Next week, Carrie and Josef will be attending the FHWA peer exchange; 13 cities will be represented at the meeting.

• Bernalillo County

El Camino Real Trail Planning Study RFP is out; South Valley bike routes signage on La Vega and Foothill roads are being installed.

• NMDOT District 3– absent

• MRCOG

The 2040 MTP update includes an on-line interactive map to mark gaps; MRCOG will release a draft in early November to share with the committee. The Active Transportation committee is working on the long-range bike map to share. Ed is attending.

• Discussion/ Action:

Dan asked about GABAC and GARTC holding a joint meeting to discuss reorganizing. Complete Streets/Vision Zero needs an active transportation committee. Ed outlined reasons for keeping two separate committees but expanding the roles of GABAC. No evening works for everyone to meet. The meeting doesn't require a quorum. Members agreed for a joint meeting on a Wednesday at 4:30 pm.

Adjournment

Dan motioned, Lanny seconded to adjourn at 5:30 PM. It was unanimous.
