PUBLIC NOTICE

October 3, 2025

Re: Mr. Kyle Tapaha (Diné), Outgoing Chair and Term Completion

The City of Albuquerque Commission on American Indian and Alaska Native Affairs recognizes the departure of Mr. Kyle Tapaha in his successful term completion which ended on 10/01/2025. In 2019, Mayor Tim Keller appointed Mr. Tapaha to be a Commission member and share his experience as a Navy Veteran and AIO representative. Mr. Tapaha has honorably served as Chair for the Commission for two years. The Commission members would like to acknowledge Mr. Tapaha's valuable work, professionalism, and positive contributions in the urban Native American community over the years and wish him well in his next endeavors ahead.

For more information regarding this public notice, please contact CABQ Office Native American Affairs Liaison, Brandi Ahmie at bahmie@cabq.gov with any questions or comments.

With Respect,

Commission Members:

Kimberly Gleason, Interm-Chair/Native American Performing Arts and Film Sub-Committee

Pauline Joe, Secretary/Workforce Sector

Thelma Antonio, Laguna Pueblo Representative/4H Park Sub-Committee

Ron Martinez-Looking Elk, Isleta Pueblo Representative

Nora Morris, To-Hajiilee Representative

Marissa Naranjo, Environment Sector
