INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY

ALBUQUERQUE, DE OCTOBER 8TH, 2018, AS:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TIMOTHY M. KELLER, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM, ORDER, AND DECLARE OCTOBER 8TH, 2018, AS "INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY" IN THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, TO HONOR THE HERITAGE, CONTRIBUTIONS, AND LEGACIES OF NATIVE AMERICANS.

WHERASES, The Commissioners of Indian Affairs was vested with the responsibility to promote the welfare of Native Americans and their lands; and

WHERASES, The City of Albuquerque has one of the largest urban Native American populations in the country; and

WHERASES, Today, Albuquerque has one of the top five urban Indian populations in the country; and

WHERASES, Albuquerque stands as a testament to the resilience of Indigenous cultures, as is known to the world, the site of the first contact between indigenous peoples and Europeans; and

WHERASES, Albuquerque has been a hub of trading for native materials such as turquoise, and exchanged for native materials such as chocolate and marine shells; and

WHERASES, Albuquerque celebrates the heritage of Native Americans, and the contributions they have made to our community; and

WHERASES, Albuquerque celebrates the diversity and cultural richness of the indigenous peoples of this nation; and WHERASES, Albuquerque celebrates the spirit of unity and cooperation among all peoples.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, TIMOTHY M. KELLER, MAYOR OF THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, DO HEREBY PROCLAIM OCTOBER 8TH, 2018, AS "INDIGENOUS PEOPLES DAY" IN THE CITY OF ALBUQUERQUE, TO HONOR THE HERITAGE, CONTRIBUTIONS, AND LEGACIES OF NATIVE AMERICANS.
