UPDATE: OSAB MANUAL

Alan Reed and Janet Saiers gave an update on the progress of the OSAB Manual. An Oath of Office and a draft of the proposed Open Space Advisory Board rules of procedure were handed out.
Mr. Reed suggested that a special meeting of the entire Board be held to discuss the OSAB Manual.

LAND ACQUISITION PROCESS

Alan Reed stated that the Advisory Board would need an evaluation matrix that meets City Council requirements, and which will also be a basis for what Real Property follows.

Barbara Taylor stated that she spoke with Councilman Benton regarding the matrix and that she would get this summarized in writing.

PRESENTATION OF PROPOSED LAND EXCHANGE ALONG MIDDLE BRANCH OF BOCA NEGRA ARROYO

A brief presentation was given to the Board from Mr. Kevin Patton, with Pulte Homes and Mr. Scott Schiabor with Scott Patrick Homes regarding a land exchange along the middle branch of Boca Negra arroyo.

Mr. Patton states that the total acreage dedicated to the City would be 14.6 acres.

After some discussion by the Board, it was determined that this item will be put on the May 24, 2016 agenda to be listed as an action item.

UPDATE; LETTER REQUESTING LAND AND WATER CONSERVATION FUNDS

Janet Saiers stated that the letter was written and sent to Councilor Benton to get the Mayor’s signature.

UPDATE: ATRISCO SIPHON BRIDGE CROSSING

James Lewis gave an update on the Atrisco Siphon Bridge Crossing. The Board determined it to be an extraordinary facility and that it should be heard by the EPC.

A motion was made by Chris Green to approve the recommendations proposed today of the new location of the bridge as opposed to the previous location. The motion was seconded by Michael Jensen. A vote was taken and the motion failed on a 4 to 2 vote.
