SO 22-62 Amendment to SOP 2-8 Use of On-Body Recording Devices; Audio Recordings

SO 23-42 Amendment to SOP 2-8 Use of On-Body Recording Devices; TFO Mandatory Recording Events

2-8-1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to enhance public trust and to promote constitutional policing and professionalism through the consistent use of on-body recording devices (OBRD).

P&P Draft 04/19/2023

2-8-2 Policy

It is the policy of the Albuquerque Police Department (Department) to establish and communicate clear guidelines regarding the appropriate use of OBRDs.

N/A 2-8-3 Definitions

A. Buffer Mode

A pre-recording mode in which the OBRD is powered on and has not been activated to record. The operation LED (light) will blink green. The OBRD captures video but no audio.

B. Certificate for Evaluation (CforE)

A document, completed by a qualified, licensed mental health professional which certifies that an individual person, as a result of a mental disorder, presents a likelihood of harming themselves or others, and that immediate detention is necessary to prevent such harm, which may include grave passive neglect. All Certificates for Evaluation expire seventy-two (72) hours after they are issued, unless explicitly stated otherwise.

C. Community Caretaking Function

The community caretaking function encompasses police duties that do not involve conduct related to crime solving or the enforcement of law, and which are motivated by the intention of providing aid. These functions include acting under the emergency aid doctrine, the impoundment and inventory doctrine, and the public servant doctrine.

D. Confidential Informant (CI)

An individual who furnishes information to a law enforcement officer about individuals suspected of committing crimes or criminal activity for consideration, either financial, prosecutorial, or judicial, under the direct supervision of a law enforcement officer, and who is provided with a reasonable expectation of confidentiality. For the purposes of this policy, Confidential Informants are not considered members of the public.

E. Constitutional Policing

At its most fundamental definition, constitutional policing is legal policing. Law enforcement agencies and officers are obligated to uphold the U.S. Constitution, state constitution, court decisions, and the law. Constitutional policing promotes a keen awareness of the civil liberties of society. It is the responsibility of the police to protect actively people's constitutional rights in every interaction and maintain the consent of the people. True constitutional policing goes above and beyond the letter of the law. By seeking to protect people's rights during every encounter, police can improve community relations, build public trust, and promote police legitimacy and procedural justice.

F. Contact

Any direct interaction with the public during a law enforcement encounter, including phone calls and direct personal interaction. Contact begins with the initial encounter and does not conclude until all intended interactions with the individual terminate. Contact continues through transports until custody is transferred to another entity.

G. Event Mode

A mode where the OBRD records audio and video.

H. Evidence.com

A cloud-based storage repository for OBRD recordings accessible by authorized personnel.

I. Guard Duty

Department personnel assigned to monitor an individual at a medical facility.

J. Law Enforcement Encounter

Any interaction by Department personnel with individuals who are the subject of stops, detentions, and/or pat-downs based on reasonable suspicion or probable cause; any action by Department personnel for the purposes of enforcing laws and/or maintaining order; and any time Department personnel are acting pursuant to the community caretaker doctrine.

K. On-Body Recording Device (OBRD)

A video and audio recording device issued by the Department.

L. Plainclothes Officer

An on-duty sworn officer not wearing their Department-issued uniform but carrying their Department-issued badge and firearm.

M. Prisoner Transport Duty

Department personnel assigned to the Prisoner Transport Unit (PTU) and who have the sole responsibility of transporting individuals, including Department personnel who work overtime with the assigned duties of transporting individuals at the direction of a PTU supervisor.

N. Sync Cable

A cable that allows data transfer and charging of an OBRD.

O. Undercover Officer

Pursuant to an approved undercover investigation, any officer or detective working in a covert manner who obtains information about individuals or organizations through the development of ongoing relationships with individuals or organizations.

P. Scheduled Shift

The pre-determined shift which personnel are assigned. This will most often coincide with the hours assigned on personnel's timesheet as normal work hours.

Q. Uniformed Personnel

Sworn personnel who wear a Department-authorized uniform.

6 2-8-4 Rules

- A. All uniformed and plainclothes sworn personnel, Police Service Aides (PSA), Crime Scene Specialists (CSS), PTU personnel, and all uniformed personnel shall wear a Department-issued OBRD while on-duty. Exceptions to wearing the OBRD include:
 - 1. Written approval by the Chief of Police, which will be limited to Department personnel who do not routinely interact with the public and only when those personnel are not engaging in law enforcement or investigative encounters with the public, including any mandatory recording events. Notwithstanding this exception, all Department personnel shall record mandatory recording events.
 - 2. During training, unless required to wear the OBRD for training purposes;
 - 3. Bomb Squad personnel, while actively working a scene with suspicious or hazardous items; and
 - 4. Any duty assignment where sworn personnel do not carry a Department-issued badge and firearm, including restricted duty, administrative assignment, or administrative leave.
 - B. The OBRD shall be worn forward facing at the beltline or above, or the middle of the torso, in a position intended to maximize the OBRDs ability to record.
 - C. While on-duty, the OBRD shall be in buffer mode, unless Department personnel are working in an administrative capacity. Department personnel working in an administrative capacity are still required to activate their OBRD for mandatory recording events.

- D. Department personnel shall ensure their OBRD is functioning properly at the beginning and end of each shift.
 - 1. Any malfunctions of the OBRD shall be immediately reported to a supervisor.
- E. Department personnel shall only use their Department-issued OBRDs.
- F. Timelines for Uploading OBRD Footage
 - 1. Incidents Involving a Use of Force
 - a. By the end of the employee's shift during which the use of force incident occurred, Department personnel shall upload OBRD footage capturing all use of force incidents in which they witnessed force, ordered force, used force, or were otherwise involved as directed by a supervisor.
 - i. If Department personnel are not physically capable of uploading their OBRD footage by the end of their shift during which the use of force incident occurred, the employee's immediate supervisor or their designee shall ensure that the OBRD footage from the affected employee's OBRD is uploaded by the end of the employee's shift during which the use of force incident occurred.
 - 2. Incidents That Do Not Involve a Use of Force
 - a. By the end of the employee's next scheduled shift, Department personnel shall upload OBRD footage created during a shift in which they were not involved in a use of force as described in Paragraph 1, above.
 - Department personnel who have planned days off beyond their normal duty weekends (i.e., vacation time, military leave, leave taken under the Federal Medical Leave Act (FMLA), etc.) shall upload OBRD footage prior to starting their time off from work.
 - 4. When returning from unplanned days off, Department personnel shall upload their OBRD footage upon returning to work.
 - a. Department personnel shall ensure their immediate supervisor or their designee has access to their OBRD in order for the OBRD footage to be uploaded.
 - 5. Department personnel who do not have daily-recorded footage shall dock their OBRDs at least once per workweek to charge the batteries and complete firmware updates.
 - 6. Department personnel shall upload their OBRD footage using a Departmentapproved upload method.

2-8-7 Discretionary Recording

- A. For non-mandatory recording events, unless prohibited from recording, Department personnel shall have the discretion to activate their OBRD when they reasonably believe it would be appropriate or valuable to document circumstances. In exercising this discretion, Department personnel should balance the need to record with legitimate privacy concerns.
- B. Discretionary recording is allowed when a scene is being processed by investigative units or the SED in which the scene is secured and absent of public contact.

6 2-8-8 Supervisor Responsibilities

- A. A supervisor shall:
 - 1. Verify the OBRD of Department personnel under their command is functioning properly by observing the OBRD in buffer mode during monthly line inspections. The operation LED (light) will blink green;
 - 2. Ensure any reported malfunctioning OBRDs are exchanged for a working OBRD upon discovery of the malfunction or that the OBRD is returned to proper working order by the SED. SED is available 24/7 to ensure personnel are equipped with a functioning OBRD;
 - 3. Review the OBRD recordings involving a Level 1 use of force, consistent with SOP Use of Force: Review and Investigation by Department Personnel (refer to SOP Use of Force: Review and Investigation by Department Personnel for sanction classifications and additional duties);
 - 4. Review relevant OBRD recording(s) of any duty-related injuries to sworn personnel or any sworn personnel involved in a foot pursuit not resulting in a use of force;
 - a. Shall ensure there is no use of force consistent with SOP Use of Force: Review and Investigation by Department Personnel (refer to SOP Use of Force: Review and Investigation by Department Personnel for sanction classifications and additional duties);
 - b.
