2-8-1 Purpose

This policy is intended to provide officers with instructions on when and how to use On-Body Recording Devices (OBRDs) so that officers may reliably record their contacts with the public.

This policy is intended to provide officers with clear guidelines for the use, management, storage, retrieval, and supervision regarding On-Body Recording Devices (OBRDs) so that officers may reliably record their contacts with the public.

2-8-2 Policy

The Department is committed to promoting constitutional policing while and making the best use of its resources to capture evidence by utilizing the evolving technology of On-Body Recording Devices (OBRD) in all appropriate circumstances. This commitment is designed to promote officer safety, strengthen community trust, and document events to assist with investigations and training. All recordings captured by Department-issued OBRDs are the exclusive property of the Department and subject to disclosure under the law.

This policy is intended to achieve a reasonable balance between the benefits of using OBRD devices and an individual’s reasonable expectation of privacy. Although this policy identifies those situations in which activation of the OBRD is mandatory, Department personnel have discretion to manually activate the device any time an officer believes it would be appropriate or valuable to document an incident. In exercising this discretion, personnel should be aware of, and sensitive to an individual's reasonable privacy expectations. The OBRD may only be activated for legitimate law enforcement purposes.

I. Wearing the OBRD

1. All uniformed Department personnel (except crossing guards) shall will wear Department-issued OBRDs while on duty or performing law enforcement activities. Department personnel performing routine administrative duties, such as working at a desk, attending meetings, or providing testimony are not required to wear an OBRD.

Investigations sworn personnel, Area Command Investigations Unit sworn personnel, and other non-uniformed Department personnel are not required to wear OBRDs during routine administrative duties, such as working at a desk, attending meetings, and providing testimony. However, while working in a law enforcement capacity, those non-uniformed personnel shall wear their OBRD and comply with this policy.

2. Certain undercover operations and/or investigations conducted by officers may be exempt from wearing an OBRD if doing so would jeopardize the safety of the officer. An exemption from wearing an OBRD shall only be made after written permission is granted from the involved officer's supervisor at the rank of lieutenant or above.

During these operations and investigations, if an officer takes an enforcement action, or engages in a mandatory recording incident, they will still be required to wear an OBRD to record the incident.

circumstance required by this policy, if the OBRD had no signs of functioning improperly prior to the incident.

2. Articulate on an OBRD recording or in writing their reasoning for not activating their OBRD before required incidents, for not recording the entire contact, or for interrupting the recording. Department personnel shall also document why a recording was not made, why a recording was interrupted, or was stopped.
3. Supervisors

In addition to the above responsibilities, supervisors will perform these duties:

- a. Test OBRDs monthly to ensure they are in proper working order and document this on the monthly inspection report.
- b. At least on a monthly basis, ensure personnel are using the systems appropriately and in accordance with policy, and identify areas in which additional training or guidance is needed.
- c. Review complete recordings of assigned personnel listed in any misconduct complaint made to field supervisory personnel or Area Command personnel "at the scene," or later by telephone, writing, voice mail, or other method, which would not normally be assigned to Internal Affairs.
- d. Review all recordings of assigned personnel involving injuries, uses of force, shows of force, or foot pursuits.
- e. Additionally review at least two videos per month of each officer under their direct supervision. Sergeants shall review each video in its entirety should spend approximately 7-10 minutes reviewing each video, and, and may advance or fast forward the video to target review of interactions that could be helpful in ongoing evaluation and supervision, as described below. Sergeants shall document the review, including what portions of a video were reviewed. Sergeants will use any feedback obtained from these reviews for the officers in their employee work plans. Sergeants shall target the following topics in the videos they review:
  - i. constitutional policing;
  - ii. officer conduct (showing respect toward and acting professionally in dealing with the public);
  - iii. domestic violence response;
  - iv. tactics, including officer safety;
  - v. recognizing signs of person in crisis and treating them with dignity;
  - vi. initial contacts with subject(s) during calls for service including the circumstances giving rise to the encounter and legal basis for the stop;
  - vii. for encounters that end in arrest, the entire encounter from initial contact to the subject being placed in a patrol vehicle;
  - viii. interaction with subject(s) during investigative detention or pat downs

- for weapons;
  - ix. interaction and communication with subject(s) in crisis;
  - x. interaction with occupants during vehicle stops; and
  - xi. interaction with offenders and victims during investigative phase of call for service.
- f. Report equipment problems and seek to have equipment immediately repaired or replaced as needed. Supervisors shall be issued additional equipment in order to temporarily replace defective OBRDs.
- g. Supervisors shall refer assigned personnel for investigation if they intentionally or repeatedly fail to activate their OBRDs during incidents required to be recorded. Intentional or otherwise unjustified failure to activate an OBRD when required by APD policy shall subject the Department personnel to discipline.

G. Redaction, Retention, and Release of Recordings

1. APD policies shall comply with all existing laws and regulations, including those governing evidence collection and retention, public disclosure of information, and consent. See SOP 2-16 – Records and Administrative Instruction 1-7.
2. Some or all of a recording may be redacted pursuant to applicable laws. Redaction should be narrowly tailored to the appropriate legal exemption from disclosure.
  - a. Only the redacted recording shall be produced to the requesting party.
  - b. There may be instances where the un-redacted recording shall be provided in criminal or civil proceedings.
  - c. IPRA Unit personnel will consult with the City Attorney's Office prior to redacting or exempting recordings from public inspection.
  - d. Redaction does not alter the original footage in the recording.
3. In the event Department personnel inadvertently record a non-recording incident identified above, the following redaction procedures may be followed:
  - a. Notify immediate supervisor of unintentional recording.
  - b. Review recording with the immediate supervisor to determine if it meets criteria detailed in Paragraph B(9) above.
  - c. Recordings in question shall be electronically shared by the immediate supervisor with their lieutenant or equivalent for review and approval.
  - d. If recording contains evidentiary content, only the portion that meets Paragraph B(9) shall be redacted of audio, video, or both by the lieutenant or equivalent. A detailed description stating the reason for 13. During tactical activations, tactical units may turn off their OBRDs during planning and decision-making.

Due to the extended duration of tactical activations and in order to conserve battery life, tactical units may turn off their OBRDs when not conducting directed action, based on the information available to the officer at that time. OBRDs shall be activated during directed action, which may elicit a response from the subject.

C. Training Requirements

All Department personnel who are authorized to use OBRDs must complete mandatory training to familiarize themselves with the devices and with Departmental procedures prior to using them. Department personnel shall receive periodic refresher training on updated technology, policies, and the benefits of the devices.

D. Viewing, Accessing, and Sharing OBRD Recordings

1. Department personnel will be assigned access to the digital storage application appropriate to their rank and duties.
2. Department personnel may review their own OBRD recordings to assist quality and accuracy in their reports and for investigatory interviews. For specific procedures involving an officer-involved shooting, see the guidelines in SOP 7-3 – Force Investigation Team \(FIT\).
3. Department personnel may view, download, redact, and share OBRD recordings only for legitimate law enforcement purposes and for authorized administrative review purposes.
4. Department personnel will not delete OBRD recordings unless deletion is consistent with this policy and SOP 2-73 - Submission of Evidence, Confiscated Property, and Found Items.
5. All recordings shall be shared digitally via the Department's digital storage application unless otherwise approved by the Department.

E. Management of OBRD Recordings

1. All Department personnel shall upload recordings to the Department's digital storage application prior to the end of the Department personnel's subsequent shift.

PROCEDURAL ORDERS

SOP 2-8

Effective: 6/2/17 Review Due: 6/2/18 Replaces: 4/28/16

2. In the event the uploading of recordings extends beyond the subsequent scheduled shift, immediate supervisors may authorize overtime or compensatory time and shall notify the watch commander of this via email.
3. Department personnel shall ensure that recordings are properly categorized and accessible. Recordings shall be classified according to (1) type of incident or event captured in the footage, (2) date, (3) time, and (4) Department personnel.
4. Department personnel, including both primary and back-up officers, shall submit all digital media recorded in accordance with this policy and defined as evidence, in the following manner:
  - a. Enter the case number in the following format:
For 'AP151234567,' enter as '15-1234567.'
  - b. Choose a category from the presented list.
  - c. Make an electronic tag into the designated evidence system.
  - d. Add the entry into the property section of the report.
5. Department personnel shall add the "120 Day Delete" category to non-evidentiary recordings that are uploaded or imported into the Department's digital storage application.
6. If the initial category chosen was a mistake or if additional information justifies re-categorizing a recording, Department personnel will re-categorize recordings as appropriate.
7. Evidentiary recording will be maintained by APD, based on the statute of limitations or until the case is resolved.

6-7

F. Duties of Personnel

1. Department personnel shall take these actions regarding OBRDs:
  - a. Ensure that OBRDs assigned to them are functioning properly at the beginning and end of each shift, according to the manufacturer instructions.
    - i. Department personnel shall report immediately any improperly functioning equipment to a supervisor.
    - ii. Department personnel shall not be responsible for verified equipment failure during an incident if the OBRD had no signs of functioning improperly prior to the incident.
  - b. Articulate on an OBRD recording or in writing their reasoning for not activating their OBRD before required incidents, for not recording the entire contact, or for interrupting the recording. Department personnel shall document why a recording was not made, was interrupted, or was stopped.

2. Supervisors

In addition to the above responsibilities, supervisors will perform these duties:

- a. Test OBRDs monthly to ensure they are in proper working order and document this on the monthly inspection report.
- b. At least on a monthly basis, ensure personnel are using the systems appropriately and in accordance with policy, and identify areas in which additional training or guidance is needed.
- c. Review complete recordings of assigned personnel listed in any misconduct complaint made to field supervisory personnel or Area Command personnel "at the scene," or later by telephone, writing, voice mail, or other method, which would not normally be assigned to Internal Affairs.
- d. Review recordings of assigned personnel involving injuries, uses of force, shows of force, or foot pursuits.
- e. Additionally review at least two videos per month of each officer under their direct supervision. Sergeants should spend approximately 7-10 minutes reviewing each video, and may advance or fast forward the video to target review of interactions that could be helpful in ongoing evaluation and supervision, as described below. Sergeants shall document the review, including what portions of a video were reviewed. Sergeants will use any feedback obtained from these reviews for the officers in their employee work plans. Sergeants shall target the follow topics in the videos they review:
  - i. constitutional policing;
  - ii. officer conduct (showing respect toward and acting professionally in dealing with the public);
  - iii. domestic violence response;
  - iv. tactics, including officer safety;
  - v. recognizing signs of person in crisis and treating them with dignity;
  - vi. initial contacts with subject(s) during calls for service including the circumstances giving rise to the encounter and legal basis for the stop;
  - vii. for encounters that end in arrest, the entire encounter from initial contact to the subject being placed in a patrol vehicle;
  - viii. interaction with subject(s) during investigative detention or pat downs for weapons;
  - ix. interaction and communication with subject(s) in crisis;
  - x. interaction with occupants during vehicle stops; and
  - xi. interaction with offenders and victims during investigative phase of call for service.
- f. Report equipment problems and seek to have equipment immediately repaired or replaced as needed. Supervisors shall be issued additional equipment in order to temporarily replace defective OBRDs.
- g. Supervisors shall refer assigned personnel for investigation if they intentionally or repeatedly fail to activate their OBRDs during incidents required to be recorded. Intentional or otherwise unjustified failure to activate an OBRD when required by APD policy shall subject the Department personnel to discipline.

G. Redaction, Retention, and Release of Recordings

1. APD policies shall comply with all existing laws and regulations, including those governing evidence collection and retention, public disclosure of information, and consent. See SOP 2-16 – Records and Administrative Instruction 1-7.
2. Some or all of a recording may be redacted pursuant to applicable laws. Redaction should be narrowly tailored to the appropriate legal exemption from disclosure.
  - a. Only the redacted recording shall be produced to the requesting party.
  - b. There may be instances where the un-redacted recording shall be provided in criminal or civil proceedings.
  - c. IPRA Unit personnel will consult with the City Attorney's Office prior to redacting or exempting recordings from public inspection.
  - d. Redaction does not alter the original footage in the recording.

3. In the event Department personnel inadvertently record a non-recording incident identified above, the following redaction procedures may be followed:
  - a. Notify immediate supervisor of unintentional recording.
  - b. Review recording with the immediate supervisor to determine if it meets criteria detailed in Paragraph B(9) above.
  - c. Recordings in question shall be electronically shared by the immediate supervisor with their lieutenant or equivalent for review and approval.
  - d. If recording contains evidentiary content, only the portion that meets Paragraph B(9) shall be redacted of audio, video, or both by the lieutenant or equivalent. A detailed description stating the reason for edit shall be noted in the system for each segment of the recording that is redacted. Redactions will automatically be reflected in the audit trail.
  - e. If it is determined by the lieutenant or equivalent that the recording does not contain evidentiary content, it may be placed in the "120 Day Delete" category. A detailed description stating the reason for category change shall be noted for each recording that is changed. Descriptions will automatically be reflected in the audit trail.
4. Viewing and downloading OBRD recordings is for criminal investigation and prosecution, administrative investigations, or authorized administrative purposes only.
5. The Department shall retain and preserve non-evidentiary recordings for 120 calendar days. Deleting non-evidentiary videos after 120 calendar days does not imply that the Department personnel did not record the incident, as it is reflected in the audit trail.
6. The Evidence Unit shall retain and preserve evidentiary recordings for at least one year and in accordance with state law and this policy.

Mandated Recordings

SOP 2-8-5(B8)

- a. All use of force encounters, including contacts leading up to the use of force, when Department personnel can reasonably foresee a use of force may occur.
- b. All encounters with individuals who are the subject of a stop based on reasonable and articulable suspicion or probable cause.
- c. Traffic stops and DWI Investigations.
- d. Arrests, including the contact leading up to the arrest, when Department personnel can reasonably foresee an arrest occurring.
- e. Vehicle searches, unless conducted at tow yards, APD facilities, or other law enforcement facilities.
- f. Search warrants of structures from the time of entry until the location has been secured.
- g. Emergency evaluations (i.e. pickup orders)
- h. Contacts with subjects who (1) are not complying with officers' commands; (2) appear to pose a current threat to themselves or others; or (3) are known to the officer to have a history of being a threat to themselves or others based on either personal knowledge or notification from an APD resource.
- i. Any other legitimate law enforcement contact where the Department personnel believe that a recording of an incident would be appropriate or valuable. In these contacts, the Department personnel shall balance the law enforcement objectives and need to record against the individual's expectation of privacy, particularly with respect to sensitive victims.

Non - Recordings

SOP 2-8-5(B9)

- a. Encounters with undercover Department personnel or confidential informants.
- b. Personal activities or private conversations of Department personnel that do not involve calls for service or contact with individuals.
- c. Conversations between Department personnel if parties are unaware that it will be recorded, except in undercover investigations of Department personnel involved in alleged criminal conduct.
- d. Conversations between Department personnel that involve case strategy or tactics.
- e. DWI checkpoints, unless a driver is confrontational with Department personnel, refuses to stop, refuses to roll down the window, and/or produces any type of information visually or verbally that indicates he or she will not willingly comply with Department personnel's lawful commands.
- f. Locations where recordings are prohibited by law, unless permission is obtained to record, such as in the FBI building or restricted areas in Department of Energy research facilities.
