1. Call to Order

Chairperson Annie Onderdonk called the meeting to order at 6:34 PM.

2. Approval of Agenda

Darlene Couchman moved to approve the agenda. Dwight Drake seconded. The motion passed by voice vote.

3. Approval of October 13, 2015 Meeting Minutes

Annie Onderdonk read the minutes of the October 13, 2015 meeting. Darlene Couchman moved to approve the meeting minutes as read. Dwight Drake seconded. The motion passed by voice vote.

Annie Onderdonk introduced three individuals in attendance at the meeting: City Councilor Brad Winter; Ed Perea, a former APD officer and an attorney; and Ed Harness, the new Executive Director of the Albuquerque Civilian Police Oversight Agency.

4. APD and CABQ Updates

Detective Christian Baker shared crime statistics for October and November to date. Sharanne Press brought crime prevention seminar materials for meeting participants and shared information about what is available on the website, www.northeastareacommand.com. Meeting participants discussed thefts of mail and packages.

A meeting participant asked about CPC recommendations. Celina Espinoza said that the CPC recommendation response process has been finalized.

A meeting participant asked how to report new graffiti. Commander Randy Remiker said that emergencies required 911, non-emergency police calls could use 242-COPS, and if the caller is not sure if it's a police call or not, they can call 311. He also recommended the ABQ 311 app.

Meeting participants discussed a number of issues including the need to address recent shootings, the need for more information/data for residents, the need for changes in the judicial system, recent media coverage about rape kit testing, and the upcoming legislative session.

Celina Espinoza shared information about the upcoming legislative session and the current bills that are supported by the police chief. City Councilor Brad Winter also said that the city council is trying to develop policy to support the police, and anyone with ideas should contact him at 489-0327 or bwinter@cabq.gov.

Commander Randy Remiker suggested some ways to prevent crime while shopping during the holiday season.

5. CPC Recommendations to APD and CABQ

There were no new recommendations at this time.

6. Other Public Questions and Comments

Public questions and comments were welcomed throughout the meeting.

7. Adjourn

The meeting adjourned at 8:40 PM.
