5. APD and CABQ Updates

Commander Randy Remiker provided an overview of crime in the Northeast Heights, and stated that there are currently issues with auto burglaries and auto thefts, many of which occur in unlocked vehicles. He encouraged people to trust their instincts and call the police if they see anything unusual in their neighborhood. Meeting participants also discussed incidents of shoplifting at various locations.

Officers responded with information about how they could have responded and the different tools available for addressing this sort of behavior.

Officers responded to questions from the public about various crime issues. Discussion included the use of 911 vs. 242-COPS, the prevalence of various types of crimes in the Northeast Heights, and issues with the court system.
