Field Services Bureau - East Southeast Area Command...

- In October, the Southeast Area Command had 11,846 calls for service, wrote 2,147 reports, and issued 580 citations. There were 240 felony arrests, 268 misdemeanor arrests, and 33 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Sixteen community meetings were attended.
- On October 15, Officers D. Anzo and B. Aragon responded to a call of a female threatening an individual and her children with a knife. Upon arrival, they separated the parties and conducted interviews. The investigation revealed that the offender was high on crack cocaine and had been causing problems all night, including attempting to light the house on fire. At one point, the offender burst into the victim's room where her daughter and grandchildren were located armed with two knives. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and child abuse charges.
- On October 16, Officer B. Aragon observed a vehicle being driven recklessly. He attempted to stop the car but the vehicle fled. Officer Aragon did not engage in a pursuit. A short time later Officer Aragon was flagged down at a local bowling alley in response to an accident. When he pulled up, he observed that the wrecked car was the one that failed to stop for him. Witnesses told officers that the driver fled into the bowling alley and provided a description. Officers entered the bowling alley and were directed to the ladies' bathroom where they located the offender and took him into custody. The offender was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) for transferring/receiving a stolen vehicle.
- On October 27, Officers M. Benavidez, J. Franco, K. Ramos and R. Gonzalez responded to a shooting. The caller reported he had been shot in the legs. Upon arrival, they found the victim with possible multiple wounds to his legs. Witnesses reported seeing a vehicle speed away and provided the officers with the description. Several casings were recovered at the scene. The victim was transported to the University of New Mexico Hospital by the Albuquerque Fire Department and was reported in stable condition. Day shift Officers M. Fisher and M. McBrayer located the vehicle matching the description provided by witnesses a few blocks away. The officers observed several subjects run from the vehicle. They were quickly detained and witnesses identified them as being involved but could not identify the shooter. Southeast Impact Detectives Burt and Hotle conducted interviews with the suspects and obtained a confession from the offender.
- On October 8, Officer J. Franco was patrolling when a vehicle passed him traveling at a high rate of speed and ran a red light. Officer Franco attempted a traffic stop but the vehicle failed to stop and drove into a nearby neighborhood. Officer Franco and other Southeast officers saturated the area and located the vehicle. The vehicle pulled into a parking lot of an apartment complex. The driver exited the vehicle and attempted to elude on foot, but Officer Franco took him into custody before he could get away. The vehicle had an incorrect plate on it and after running the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN), it was found to be stolen. The driver was arrested and booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC).
- On October 21, officers received a call from a female indicating she was being chased by another vehicle. The caller was driving the vehicle that was being followed. The caller reported she had no idea why the other car was chasing her. The driver drove by the Southeast Area Command honking her horn. Officer Durham observed both of the vehicles and he engaged his emergency equipment and tried to stop both cars. They both refused to yield to his lights and continued to drive recklessly. Dispatch advised the caller several times to pull over but she refused. Instead, she began to drive in excess of 70 miles per hour with the vehicle still following her. Several marked units were behind them with their equipment engaged. Both cars failed to yield and ran several red lights at 70 miles per hour. Finally, the caller pulled over and the chasing vehicle stopped behind it. The driver of the chasing vehicle exited and despite multiple police commands began advancing towards the occupants of the vehicle yelling at them. The officers placed all parties in custody until they could determine what happened. The investigation revealed that the offender had mental health issues. She observed the driver of the vehicle and her passenger and believed they were having an affair with her husband. She approached them and scared them. The victim left in her car and the offender followed, trying to run them off the road. The offender was booked for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and aggravated fleeing from law enforcement.

- On October 25, Officers N. Martinez and J. Trebitowski were dispatched to a local convenience store to assist with a male subject who hooked himself to a propane tank. The male subject had a stick and was demanding that the media show up. The officers de-escalated the situation and the male subject was taken into custody without incident.

Northeast Area Command...

- In October, the Northeast Area Command had 10,096 calls for service, wrote 2,040 reports, and issued 1,010 citations. There were 142 felony arrests, 348 misdemeanor arrests, 38 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests, and 71 warrants issued. Sixteen community meetings were attended.
- In October, Team 7 officers conducted individual traffic tactical plans focusing mostly along Montgomery Boulevard and San Mateo. As a result, seven driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests were made and 33 citations were issued.
- On October 20, Officers Munoz and Martinez were dispatched to a disturbance. The caller stated an ex-boyfriend was trying to break into the apartment. As the caller was on the telephone with 911, the ex-boyfriend broke the sliding glass door. The suspect entered the apartment with a table leg. Officers arrived and placed the suspect under arrest for breaking and entering, assault with a deadly weapon, and criminal damage to property.
- On October 22, Officer E. Burchell responded to a domestic violence call. Upon arrival, he made contact with the victim and her daughter. They explained the extreme state of mind of the husband. He was hallucinating and cutting electrical lines and taping newspapers on the wall and yelling at them. The subject believed his daughter and wife put a voodoo curse on him. Due to his state of mind and being a danger to himself and possibly others, Officer Burchell had the subject transported to a mental health facility and assisted in obtaining a temporary restraining order (TRO) for the family.
- On October 14, Officer E. Beckstrom was dispatched to a robbery call at a store. The offender had given a note to a cashier implying he was armed and demanded money from the register. The subject got the money and fled on foot. Officer Beckstrom, Sergeant L. Deyapp, and Detective R. Marquez all arrived on scene. Officer Beckstrom located the offender in the area and he continued to flee on foot. The officers caught the subject and arrested him. They recovered over $500 in cash that was stolen.

- On October 13, officers responded to a domestic violence call. The offender was inside the residence making threats of suicide, refusing to come out, and not complying with officers. After establishing a perimeter around the residence and making public address (PA) announcements along with Sgt. Deyap maintaining contact over the telephone, the offender exited the residence and was taken into custody. He was arrested on a felony warrant, felon in possession of a firearm and domestic violence.
- On October 2, Detective Roach investigated an auto burglary. He observed and identified the offender that was caught on surveillance video entering at least 12 different vehicles. During the course of the investigation, the suspect was found to be in possession of a reported stolen vehicle. During her interview, she admitted to dozens of other auto burglaries, of which nine could be proven by property recovered in the stolen vehicle she was arrested in. After two search warrants, an arrest warrant and an ex parte order she was arrested.
- On October 27, officers were dispatched to assist a code enforcement inspector. The residence was found to be in violation of City Code in reference to multiple calls for service at the home. In recent days, the Northeast Area Command received complaints from the surrounding property owners. The complaints were that transient and/or vagrants were occupying the vacant abandoned building and/or structure. The vagrants had gained access through the front door of the structure. The property was covered with trash and weeds. Detective Benavidez, Officers V. Valera and F. Tillman cleared the property and rendered it safe for the code enforcement inspector to enter. The residence was found to be a nuisance due to life safety issues. The interior of the property was so badly maintained to the extent that it endangered the life, limb, health, property, safety or welfare of the public or any occupants. The property was placed on a periodic watch through dispatch.

- In October, Detective Neil arrested two subjects at an apartment complex for auto burglary. These arrests cleared five additional burglary cases.
- On October 14, Officer K. Newbill was conducting a shoplifting investigation at a local mall when it was determined that the offender in custody had accomplices. The subjects fled on foot but were quickly captured by other Team 5 members. Additional investigation revealed that these subjects were in possession of a stolen motor vehicle, among other charges.
- On October 4, Team 5 officers made contact with sixteen subjects at an address that had generated many calls for service. Officers recovered an embezzled vehicle and arrested the offender. Four other individuals were arrested on various other charges.

Foothills Area Command...

- In October, the Foothills Area Command had 6,060 calls for service, wrote 591 reports, and issued 756 citations. There were 87 felony arrests, 147 misdemeanor arrests, nine driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests, and nine warrants issued. Seventeen community meetings were attended.
- On October 26, Officers M. Miranda and M. Verbeck were dispatched to a priority one domestic violence call. A boyfriend had punched and choked his girlfriend and locked himself inside a bedroom in the apartment. During the investigation, it was discovered that the boyfriend called the girlfriend to come home because he was upset with her. When she arrived, the boyfriend spit in her face and pushed her causing her to fall to the couch. He then got on top of her and began choking her not allowing her to get up. Once she was able to get up, she called for police. The boyfriend was booked into the Metropolitan Detention Center for domestic violence, aggravated battery on a household member, and false imprisonment.
- On October 26, Officer R. White and Recruit Officer C. Willsey were on random patrol and observed a male and female inside a parked vehicle. The male and female immediately exited the vehicle and started to walk towards a nearby store, when dispatch advised the officers the plate they ran was from a stolen vehicle. The officers immediately took the male and female into custody before they reached the entrance to the store. The vehicle was confirmed stolen. Inventory of items inside the vehicle revealed several unopened pieces of mail belonging to other individuals, business checks and drug paraphernalia. The male and female were both arrested and transported to the Metropolitan Detention Center without further incident.

- October 25, officers were dispatched to a local store in response to a male subject armed with a large knife threatening suicide and wanting police to shoot him. A perimeter was established to contain the subject due to the heavy volume of foot traffic. A crisis negotiator spoke with the subject for over an hour in an effort to guide the subject into putting the knife down and surrendering in a peaceful manner. The subject eventually complied and was safely taken into custody.
- In October, Officer Lund worked a recently created auto/residential tactical plan. In a week, Officer Lund cleared seven felony warrants on three individuals.
- On October 12, Team 1 officers were dispatched to a reported aggravated assault with a deadly weapon at a fast food restaurant. It was reported that a male was sent to the business to murder a female. As officers were in route, it was reported that the female had been kidnapped or abducted. There was a description given of the male offender's vehicle along with the license plate number. The officers obtained the address of the vehicle's registered owner. A foot chase ensued and eventually the subject complied with the commands given by officers during the chase. The subject was taken into custody without further incident or injury.
- On October 25, officers were dispatched to a local business in response to a male subject walking through the parking lot wearing no shirt and swinging a knife wildly. Officers located the subject who refused to put the knife down as directed, and instead began walking away from them. Additional units were requested. Upon the officers' arrival, the subject jumped up on the hood of a small pickup and began yelling loudly. As a perimeter was being established and less lethal options were being deployed, Officer M. Aragon arrived on scene and attempted to establish communications with the subject. The subject grew increasingly more aggressive throughout the incident and began stabbing the hood of the vehicle he was on. Officer Aragon remained calm and diligently stuck to speaking with the individual until he was able to establish a rapport. The incident, which began at 1256 hours lasted until 1400 hours when the subject dropped the knife, came down off the hood of the vehicle, followed all commands given by officers, and was taken safely into custody.

- On October 22, Mothers Against Drunk Drivers (MADD) awarded Brian Johnson a “hero” award for his diligent work in arresting driving while intoxicated (DWI) offenders.

Field Services Bureau - West Valley Area Command...

- In October, the Valley Area Command had 6,730 calls for service, wrote 1,158 reports and issued 784 citations. There were 76 felony arrests, 84 misdemeanor arrests, and 16 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests. Thirteen community meetings were attended.
- On October 27, Officer Laws was dispatched to a group home for individuals with mental illness in response to an aggravated assault. The offender of the assault suffered from a severe traumatic brain injury caused by childhood encephalitis. After determining the subject was going to be arrested and booked for the assault, Officer B. Melendrez and Sergeant T. Apodaca were called to assist. Officer Melendrez followed up with the psychologists at the Metropolitan Detention Center (MDC) to ensure the subject would get mental health care while incarcerated. Officer B. Melendrez also contacted R. Martinez from the Crisis Outreach and Support Team (COAST) to provide assistance to the family once the subject was released from custody.
- On October 11, Officers M. Jones and D. White were dispatched to a male subject screaming outside of an apartment and waving a large stick. Officer Jones arrived and obtained a visual of the apartment. As Officer Jones was giving information to Officer White, the male exited the apartment holding a large kitchen knife in his hand. It appeared as if he was hearing voices and responding to them. There were neighbors outside of the apartments which caused a dangerous situation. Because of this, Officer Jones made contact with the male and attempted to calm the subject down and get him to drop the knife. After talking to the subject for some time, Officer Jones convinced the subject they were there to help. The male dropped the knife and was taken into custody. It was determined the male was schizophrenic, off his medication, and intoxicated. He believed there were people in his home attempting to attack him.
- On October 18, Officers S. Molina and J. Wolffbrandt responded to a domestic violence call. The reporting party believed her arm was broken by her ex-boyfriend who had fled the scene. Officer Molina used his computer skills he learned while working at the Real Time Crime Center (RTCC) to obtain information on the subject. The suspect was located and arrested without incident. The victim did have a broken arm and was transported to the hospital for medical treatment.

- On October 18, Sergeant Wheeler and Officer D. Heshley responded to a call to assist Officer J. Brown who was in a foot pursuit. Sergeant Wheeler and Officer Heshley arrived and two individuals were taken into custody. The investigation revealed that the male and female had stolen a tip jar from a nearby business. The female was found to be in possession of methamphetamine and had several misdemeanor warrants for her arrest. The male had a loaded handgun in his waistband and found to have multiple felony convictions. Sergeant Wheeler spoke with the Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms (ATF) task force who ultimately took over the case and the male subject was charged federally.
- On October 4, Sergeant Patterson conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle driving the wrong way. Sergeant Patterson noticed signs of intoxication on the driver and also noticed that his two-year-old daughter was sitting in the back seat. The driver was arrested for driving while intoxicated (DWI) and charged with felony child abuse.
- On October 19, Team 1 officers responded to an armed robbery at a local credit union. A perimeter was established consisting of Team 1 Impact and Team 3 members. The offender was located on foot and taken into custody by Sergeant Valdez. After a positive identification was completed, the Federal Bureau of Investigations (FBI) took over the case.
- On October 22, officers responded to a disturbance call of a male subject yelling and screaming while blocking an occupied vehicle from leaving a designated parking spot. Officers arrived and were informed the male was a resident of the complex and had likely returned to his residence. As officers approached his apartment, he rounded a structure and began yelling and cursing at officers. When officers attempted to put him in handcuffs, the subject resisted by laying on his stomach with his arms pinned under him. As officers were in the process of gaining control of his arms and placing them behind his back, the suspect bit an officer in the forearm. He was ultimately arrested for battery on a peace officer and false imprisonment.

- On October 8, Valley Impact detectives arrested a male subject for stabbing an employee in the torso at a local business. The subject was attempting to steal a lawn mower from the business when he was stopped and detained by the employee. The subject then pulled out a knife and stabbed the employee. Detectives arrived on scene and took the suspect into custody. The employee was transported to the University of New Mexico Hospital. The subject later admitted to the stabbing and was transported and booked at the Prisoner Transport Center.
- October 26, Auto Theft detectives caught an offender in a stolen vehicle. Detectives interviewed him and he confessed to several crimes. He was booked on the auto theft and an arrest warrant was received for the additional charges of attempted murder, aggravated battery, intent to commit a violent felony, conspiracy and tampering with evidence and felon in possession of a firearm.

Southwest Area Command...

- In October, the Southwest Area Command had 6,497 calls for service, wrote 1,148 reports, and issued 563 citations. There were 81 felony arrests, 114 misdemeanor arrests, 11 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests and 75 warrants issued. Fourteen community meetings were attended.
- In October, Officer G. Abbatantuono was dispatched to a down and out call where a female was passed out in a vehicle. He contacted her and determined she had an outstanding warrant. While having her exit the vehicle, a glass pipe fell from her lap. A search of her purse yielded numerous prescription pills, which were classified as controlled substances, and paraphernalia which indicated she was in possession of the pills with intent to distribute. The female was arrested for her warrant, eight counts of possession of a controlled substance, and possession with intent to distribute.
- On October 27, Officer Gomez along with other officers located a vehicle which matched the description of a vehicle involved in a robbery at a pizza restaurant. After making contact with the driver of the vehicle, a passenger from the vehicle fled on foot. Additional units were called to the area in an attempt to locate the male that fled. The driver was removed from the vehicle and the vehicle identification number (VIN) was checked. The search indicated that the vehicle had been recently stolen. The driver had a felony warrant for her arrest. She was booked for the felony warrant and receiving/transferring of a stolen motor vehicle.

- On October 1, Officer Michaud was dispatched to a down and out call. When he arrived, the individual told Officer Michaud that he was very hungry and looking for assistance. Officer Michaud contacted St. Martins Rescue Mission and Project Outreach who provided him with assistance.
- On October 19, Officers Chavez and Hinson were dispatched to the Southwest substation in response to a child that had run away and was threatening suicide. Officers Chavez and Hinson followed up on all leads given to them from the reporting party. They located the endangered child who had been using narcotics and was in desperate need of medical attention and a mental health evaluation.
- On October 20, Officer B. Sanchez was dispatched to an assault with a deadly weapon at a grocery store. While she was in route, dispatch clarified that the offender fled and was armed with a gun. She located vehicle and followed it until other units arrived and conducted a high risk felony stop.
- On October 25, Officer T. Nadas was dispatched to a disturbance call where a male subject threatened the caller with a gun. Officer Nadas conducted his investigation and determined the incident occurred over a debt for mechanic work. The offender threatened the caller with a gun and then placed it in his vehicle. The offender was arrested for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and an outstanding warrant. The vehicle was sealed pending a search warrant. Numerous stolen property was located in the vehicle.
- On October 21, Officer H. Landavazo and Sergeant D. Baca heard a call-out indicating detectives were following a suspect vehicle from a shooting the day before on Interstate 40 which resulted in the death of a four-year-old girl. Officers proceeded to the area and as the detective unit pointed out the vehicle's location, Officer Landavazo initiated his emergency equipment to stop the vehicle. The driver pulled into a vacant lot and felony stop procedures were initiated. The driver was taken into custody without incident. He later confessed to the shooting.

- On October 10, Officers Place and Sanchez were dispatched to a local store in response to a forgery. When the officers arrived, they observed the vehicle involved leaving the area. A traffic stop was initiated and the officers took the male and female occupants into custody. They were positively identified as the pair attempting to cash a forged check by the store personnel. An inventory search of the vehicle revealed multiple driver's licenses and social security cards belonging to many different citizens living in Sandoval County. Methamphetamine was also located in the vehicle. The pair was booked for multiple felonies including forgery, possession, and conspiracy with further charges to be determined.
- On October 15, Officers Bartlett, Martinez and Tafoya were dispatched to a warrant call. Officers were advised by a confidential informant that a female with a warrant for homicide was in the area and in contact with the informant. It was learned the female may be going to a nearby gas station. The officers conducted surveillance on the gas station and the female arrived, but then entered a vehicle in an attempt to escape. Officers stopped the vehicle and the female was booked.

Northwest Area Command...

- In October, the Northwest Area Command had 5,642 calls for service, wrote 1,144 reports, and issued 840 citations. There were 61 felony arrests, 72 misdemeanor arrests, 24 driving while intoxicated (DWI) arrests; and 32 warrants issued. Forty-one community meetings were attended.
- On October 22, Officer M. Landavazo was dispatched to a domestic violence call. The comments on the call indicated the situation was violent and a female was in danger. When officers arrive, it was learned that the offender had left the scene. Officer Landavazo tracked down the offender and arrested him for domestic violence battery on a household member.
- On October 1, Officers Cerros, Aragon and Franklin were dispatched to priority one aggravated battery call. The caller was chasing the suspect in their vehicle, relaying information to dispatch. The caller advised that the suspect vehicle they were chasing had fired a gun at them during a road rage incident on I-40. While trying to flee, the suspect crashed his vehicle and it caught fire and was engulfed in flames. The suspect then took the firearm which was used in the commission of the crime and hid it. Officers arrived on scene and secured the situation. This allowed the Albuquerque Fire Department to respond and extinguish the fire. Officers found the weapon that was hidden and the suspect was arrested on felony charges.

- On October 8, Officers Franklin and Aragon were dispatched to a priority one aggravated battery call. The caller advised he had been in a physical altercation with his brother. During the altercation, one brother repeatedly struck the brother with his fist in the facial area. Before fleeing the scene, the suspect shoved a loaded handgun into his brother's mouth. The suspect then fled in a vehicle, but crashed about a mile away from the scene. The suspect was located hiding a short distance away from the crash. He was arrested for aggravated battery with a deadly weapon, aggravated assault with a deadly weapon and tampering with evidence.
- On October 11, Officers Crook and Garcia were dispatched to a pedestrian crash. Upon arrival, officers located a male lying on the ground and bleeding from the head. The male and his wife had gone to an apartment to look at a couch. A dispute started between the residents of the apartment and the husband and wife. When the husband and wife left, the wife intentionally broke out the window of one of the resident's vehicle. The husband and wife got into their truck and started to drive off. The residents of the apartment went to the street and started to throw rocks at the truck. The husband (driving) circled the neighborhood and returned to the scene. The husband exited the vehicle and confronted one of the residents. The resident pushed the male and he fell to the pavement and did not get up. At the same time, the wife drove into the vehicle which she had broken out the window. As she backed up the truck, she ran over her husband's head. The wife pulled forward and ran over her husband for a second time. The wife did not know her husband was lying on the ground. All parties were intoxicated. Officers were notified by the hospital that the husband did not have critical injuries. The wife was arrested for felony criminal damage.
- On October 19, Sergeant J. Sanchez responded to a residential burglary call. Sergeant Sanchez located a female at a nearby park matching the description of an individual involved in the burglary. The female was positively identified as the offender and she later provided information to detectives, which resulted in the recovery of stolen property at a hotel and at a nearby backyard. The female was also found to have a felony warrant.

- On October 21, Recruit Officer Martinez and Officer K. Lewandowski responded to a local mall in response to a juvenile being detained by security for being armed with a BB gun and possessing marijuana. Officers arrived and found the juvenile to be in possession of drug paraphernalia and marijuana. The juvenile was arrested for a probation violation warrant and possession of drug paraphernalia and marijuana.
- On October 3, Officer C. Poccia was waved down in response to a disturbance at a gas station. The subject made statements that he was being followed and was going to be killed by ten unknown people. Officer Poccia determined the complainant was under the influence of some type of illegal drug and that his allegations had been fabricated. Officer Poccia also determined the subject was lying about his true identity. Officer Poccia identified the subject and it was found that he had an active felony warrant for criminal sexual penetration. The subject was arrested and booked on the warrant.

Special Services Bureau

Open Space...

- On October 22, Officers S. Candelaria, Smith, Banuelos, and Harvey volunteered to go to Los Altos Park and assist homeless people. The officers worked with the Crisis Outreach and Support Team (Coast) and St. Martins to locate several people in need of help. The officers passed out pamphlets and assisted homeless people with obtaining services that would help them get out of the cold air. They also assisted St. Martins by passing out snacks and water bottles.
- On October 28, Open Space officers were called to assist in a search for a missing male on the east side of the Sandia Mountains. Officers searched assigned areas in the Sandia Mountains. The subject was safely located.

The body was in a cistern located approximately eighteen feet below ground level. The specialized recovery consisted of a SCUBA operation in confined space containing hazardous materials and waste. High angle rope technicians were needed to lower, raise, and recover the divers and victim. The remaining Open Space Search & Rescue team responded to conduct the high angle work for the dive operation. The Santa Fe Fire Department provided a Hazardous Materials Decontamination team to sanitize the divers and rope technicians upon resurfacing from the dangerous environment. The recovery operation was conducted safely and successfully.
- On October 12, the Bernalillo County Sheriff's officer (BCSO) contacted APD's Open Space about a teenager who had been lost while riding dirt bikes in the Rio Puerco. The father had gotten separated from his 16-year-old son and he had been unable to find him for some time. The father reported that his son didn't have food, water, or a light on his dirt bike. Open Space responded and utilized their 4x4 vehicles to travel several miles down into the Rio Puerco valley to search the trails. After searching in the dark, an abandoned dirt bike and helmet were located. The bike had run out of gas. Officers located footprints leaving the area. Open Space officers followed the tracks and eventually located the boy wandering in the desert. He was tired and dehydrated, but otherwise healthy and in good spirits. He was given water, food, and escorted back to the vehicles. While walking back to the vehicles, two additional lost truckloads of people were located. All parties were taken out of the Rio Puerco valley. The teen was returned to a very grateful father.
- On October 17, Officers C. Melvin and M.

Schmidt conducted a Search and Rescue in the Sandia Mountains. The rescue involved a subject that fell while rock climbing near the shield on the west side of the mountain. The climber was extracted and suffered a possible broken leg.

Property Crimes Division...

- In October, the Auto/NITe Unit conducted several Community-Oriented Policing Vehicle Identification Number (VIN) etching events with over 120 vehicles etched.
- On October 1, Auto/NITe detectives arrested a prolific auto theft offender in a stolen vehicle. He was well known to all detectives and works for a drug cartel providing additional income through the sale of VIN switched stolen cars and trucks.
- On October 26, Auto/NITe detectives conducted an auto theft tactical plan in the Northeast Area Command. While patrolling the area, Detective T. Economidy located a stolen vehicle in a parking lot at an apartment complex. With the assistance of additional Auto/NITe detectives, the offender was taken into custody after a short foot chase. The offender was identified and interviewed by detectives. He eventually confessed to being the person who stole the truck. Detective R. Marquez recognized this individual to be a person of interest involving a shooting which occurred in the Valley Area Command in September. Detective Marquez contacted Valley Impact Detective G. Gabaldon, who conducted further interviews with the offender. He eventually admitted to being the shooter.
- On October 28, Detectives R. Marquez and A. Lovato conducted a Child Safety Awareness Community Oriented Policing program at St. Mary's School. Detectives took McGruff the Crime Dog and talked to 40 kindergartners about stranger danger, seat belts, trick or treat safety and school safety. APD coloring books, crayons and stickers were given to the children.
- On October 14, Burglary Detective E. Jojola, assisted officers from the Northwest Area Command with a residential burglary in progress. Field Service officers detained a suspect for the burglary. Detective Jojola conducted follow-up interviews and the investigation led to the apprehension of an additional subject involved in the burglary. As a result of the break-in and burglary over $1,000 worth of stolen property was recovered and returned to the victim.

- On October 23, Burglary Unit Detective M. Glynn received a case where tools stolen from a commercial burglary were located on Craigslist. Detectives conducted an undercover buy for the property and recovered the stolen tools. The seller provided a license plate number and description of the person who sold him the stolen tools. Detective Glynn presented a photo array to the seller of the tools and he identified the suspect. Detectives located the subject at his parent's house and he provided additional information which lead to an accomplice. Detectives went to the accomplice's house and arrested him. After he was transported to the main police station, he subsequently confessed to committing the burglary with the initial suspect. Charges were also pursued against the person who sold the drill to detectives as he was aware that he was purchasing and selling stolen property.
- In October, a police officer's home was burglarized by unknown offenders. The officer's checkbook was stolen during the burglary. His checks were forged and cashed at a local credit union. This lead resulted in the surveillance and arrest of a male and female offender on October 23rd. The offenders were in possession of a vehicle which they purchased using fake identities. The vehicle, worth $45,000 was returned to the car dealership. Both offenders were in possession of stolen property and identities belonging to numerous victims. Both offenders had felony warrants from other white collar and auto theft cases. The Narcotics K-9 Unit and Pawn Detail assisted in the investigation and arrests.
- On October 26, detectives with the Organized Crime and Burglary Units, with the assistance of the Special Investigations Division (SID) Narcotics K-9 Unit conducted surveillance and a search warrant at a residence. The house was being used as a fencing location for dozens of burglaries throughout Albuquerque. As a result of the investigation and search warrant, six subjects were arrested for a variety of charges and approximately $180,000 worth of stolen property was seized. A large amount of narcotics, mainly methamphetamines, was located in the residence. In addition, a check manufacturing and identity theft plant was also discovered. The Organized Crime and Burglary Units were assisted by the Auto/Nite detectives, Methamphetamine Unit, Northeast Field Services, and the Safe City Strike Force.

- Detective Medrano assisted the White Collar Crimes Unit in an embezzlement investigation involving a motorcycle dealership in Albuquerque. The offender was a service manager for the business. He used his position to perform services and install parts on his personal motorcycles, but failed to pay for the service and parts. The offender also worked on family members' motorcycles without charging them appropriately for the service or parts. The offender was charged with eight counts of embezzlement. An arrest warrant was obtained and the suspect was arrested on October 29.

- In October, SID completed 858 surveillance hours.
- In October, SID had 21 felony and nine misdemeanor arrests. They completed 19 felony and 13 misdemeanor warrants.
- In October, the Investigative Support Unit (ISU) was provided a license plate number for a vehicle seen leaving the scene of an armed robbery. The offender had hit two restaurants multiple times. The offender was armed with a handgun during the commission of the robberies. Detectives established surveillance on the vehicle and eventually identified a male that matched the description of the offender. After conducting a week and half of surveillance, ISU detectives witnessed the subject commit a robbery and he was taken into custody. Nine robberies were cleared as a result.
- On October 6, Air 1 responded to the Town of Bernalillo to assist units in a multi-agency high-risk area search for an armed robbery suspect. While in route, units located the subject in the back of a pickup truck. The suspect was armed with a handgun and was holding the gun to his own head and threatening suicide. Air 1 assisted in establishing a perimeter and kept surveillance on the offender. The incident was turned over to the Rio Rancho SWAT team. The subject was eventually taken into custody without incident. The subject was identified and found to be the suspect in over ten armed robberies including an - incident where the subject pointed a gun at an officer and attempted to hit him with a vehicle.

- On October 21, Air 1 personnel were at the hanger and monitoring the radio when it was heard that a police officer had been shot in the Southeast Area Command. Air 1 immediately responded to the scene. A perimeter had already been established. The suspect was last seen running northbound across Central Avenue. After searching within the perimeter for approximately an hour, Air 1 located a subject. He was observed attempting to get into several sheds and was seen jumping walls into several yards. Air 1 tracked the subject until he concealed himself in what appeared to be a covered porch area of a house. Air 1 informed APD tactical units of the situation and they responded to the area. They established a perimeter around the house in which the subject was concealed in. Eventually a police service dog was sent into the area and apprehended the subject.
- On October 23, Air 5 responded to a call at a store. Information from the call indicated that a male suspect was in the store stealing items and a description of the vehicle he arrived in was provided. Air 5 observed the male exit the store and enter the vehicle. He then exited the parking lot traveling southbound. A Sheriff's deputy attempted to stop the vehicle but it took off at a high rate of speed. Air 5 continued following the vehicle as he recklessly disregarded traffic laws without any officers in pursuit. The suspect eventually ditched the car. Air 5 directed Sheriff's deputies to his location at which time the suspect began to run. The suspect then jumped a wall to a residence and unlawfully gained entry to a structure in the backyard. % change is based upon the 2015 time-frame compared to the average of the previous 3 years for the same time-frame. The blue represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were less than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve). The yellow represents numbers that are highly statistically significant. It denotes that there were more than average incidents of the particular crime. The amount is over 2 standard deviations away from the mean (toward the far outer portion of the tails of a bell-shaped curve).
